FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK - My name is Mary Ramsay, and I am here to serve you for four more years as your Mayor of Hunker Borough.

This holiday season, I rode through the streets of our town to enjoy the festive decorations. What I noticed is that our residents celebrate many holidays throughout the year. You can find yard and window displays from Valentine's Day to St. Patrick's Day, Easter, and throughout the summer months with red, white, and blue in patriotic pride—continuing into the spirit of Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas.

I truly enjoy all the seasonal events and the beautiful displays created by our residents. I believe this decorating reflects the warmth our town expresses to all who visit.

Kudos to you, with a standing ovation from me.
