Tournament Rules

General: Each contestant will compete in a clean uniform. Jewelry of any kind is not to be worn. All competitors and instructors are fully expected to portray good sportsmanship by having a positive attitude, giving your best effort, not arguing or challenging officials, and simply displaying the 5 tenants of TaeKwonDo.

Judging: All competitions will be run and judged by blackbelts from all schools in attendance, any blackbelts who sign up to judge at registration will NOT be charged a spectator fee.

Forms: Forms will be judged by a panel of five judges. Each judge may award a possible ten points. The highest and lowest scores will be disregarded, and the final score will be the total of the remaining points.

Breaking: Scored with the same point system as the forms, scores should be based on whether or not break is successful (how many attempts where applicable), difficulty and originality of breaking technique used.

White through Orange	→	One Board
Green through Blue	→	Two Boards
Brown	→	Three Boards
Black	→	Four Boards

No head breaks will be permitted, fist breaks are allowed for competitors 17 years and older

Sparring:

Protection: Male competitors must wear a groin protection. Foot/Shin and mouth guards are required for all competitors that wish to spar, hand guards are required for Black belts. Headgear is not required but is welcomed for anyone who wishes to wear it.

How a winner is determined – In free sparring competition, the contestant who attains a 3 point advantage, or is ahead on points at the end of two minutes is the winner. These points are awarded by decision of the four corner judges and referee. One point is awarded for a hand or foot technique to a legal mid-section target. One point is awarded for a foot technique to a legal high target.

Legal and Illegal Target Zones – The only legal areas are high-section (from neck up) for foot techniques and mid-section (including both sides of the torso, for hand and foot techniques. Techniques are to be controlled to 1” or less. Light uniform contact indicates this, Illegal target areas are the whole of the spinal column (neck, back of head, backbone), groin, knees, throat and eyes.

Attacking weapons – The only attacking tools to be used are the front fist, ball of the foot, heel, knife foot, and instep of the foot.

Illegal Techniques – Biting, scratching, holding or clawing, intentionally avoiding close contact, and attacking illegal targets are prohibited. Blind techniques and sweeping techniques are prohibited. Hand techniques to the head or face are prohibited.

Warnings, Point Loss & Disqualifications – Warnings will be issued for rule infractions. Two warnings constitute minus one point. Quarreling with any judge, attempting to end the match injury of opponent or the infliction of bruising, swelling, cut or bleeding will result in disqualification. The referee may disqualify any contestant at any time.

Grand Championship – This match shall consist of two, two-minute rounds with a one-minute rest between rounds.

Weapons: No sharp weapons allowed, all weapons will need to be checked in on entry at designated spot.
