

Pilsung Scholarship Application

Jung's TaeKwonDo Gibson Branch Schools

The Gibson Branch Schools of Jung's Taekwondo are pleased to provide an annual scholarship in support of exceptional black belt students in their pursuit of physical, mental and educational excellence. This scholarship is intended to support tuition needs of furthering one's higher education/schooling in one of three areas: the trades, college/university studies or continuing martial arts studies.

To be considered for this scholarship, applicants must meet the following requirements:

1. Current resident of Iowa or a student of a Jung's Academy branch school
2. Ranked as Temp Dan (or higher) Black Belt
3. Active in TaeKwonDo by way of attending/instructing at dojang
4. Recommended by individual's Master Instructor (see signature line below)

Applications with completed essay questions and photo must be received the Thursday evening (by 5pm) prior to the Saturday tournament. Applications can be emailed to gibsontkd411@gmail.com. Scholarship winners will be selected from the Pilsung Scholarship Committee and announced at our Annual Grinnell & English Valleys Taekwondo Tournament.
