INSIDE SCOOP FROM THE PAVILION ROYAL

One Magnificent Affair Is Brought To Life By The Illustrious Royal Gentlemen. Promising An Experience That's Nothing Short Of Majestic!

BY ESHIKA CHOPRA

Curious about the mysterious world of galas? Think of it as a dazzling ballroom decked out in chandeliers that drip with elegance, a vast ocean of fancy suits and glamorous gowns, with a delightful symphony of clinking champagne flutes. It's an affair where boredom takes a backseat and every moment sparkles with excitement!

On January 26th, the grand spectacle known as Pavilion Royal lit up the prestigious halls of Ritz Paris! Marek Harmony and Thomas Misse, the masterminds behind Royal Gentlemen since 2020, decided to sprinkle a bit of magic by blending lifestyle, art, and culture into the captivating concept of Pavilion Royal. It's like stumbling upon the golden ticket to a fantastical event that leaves you breathless!

For 10 glorious days, twice a year, Pavilion Royal bursts into life – once in January amidst the chic streets of Paris, and again in May, gracing the glamorous shores of Cannes. It's a haven where creativity thrives, with exhibitions, promotions, and a bustling marketplace where creators of all stripes converge to mingle with our cherished guests, who are as eclectic as they are discerning. And oh, did we mention the grand opening? It's not just any ordinary kickoff; it's a cocktail extravaganza, a toast to our heritage.

We have the inside scoop from the gala! The Pavilion Royal was a whirlwind of creativity, with art in every shape and form – from stunning paintings and sculptures to jaw-dropping haute couture, luxurious leather goods, dazzling jewelry, and enchanting perfumes. But wait, the real showstopper? A dazzling fashion extravaganza featuring the hottest accessories from a lineup of top-notch brands like Abaymona, L'shyan, Atelier Élise Bellec, TAKAVI, Encarnacion,

After the runway madness, it was time to let loose! The night turned into a madhouse of mingling, dancing, and jaw-dropping performances. And just when you thought it couldn't get any better, they capped off the evening with a lavish Gala dinner, celebrating the divine connection between art and gastronomy. It was a feast for the senses, leaving us utterly spellbound.

With the snowy tie vibe ruling the roost at the gala, the tables were decked out in style, radiating pure delight. It was a soirée dripping with elegance, especially with Her Highness Princess Anh Bonaparte and Miss World Colombia Camila Pinzonk gracing with their presence. As we eagerly anticipate the Cannes extravaganza in May, let's bask in the glory of the Parisian spectacle!
