Music Artist Promotion

Spotify Canvas Animation & Tour Poster

This project focuses on promoting Will Wood's music and concerts.

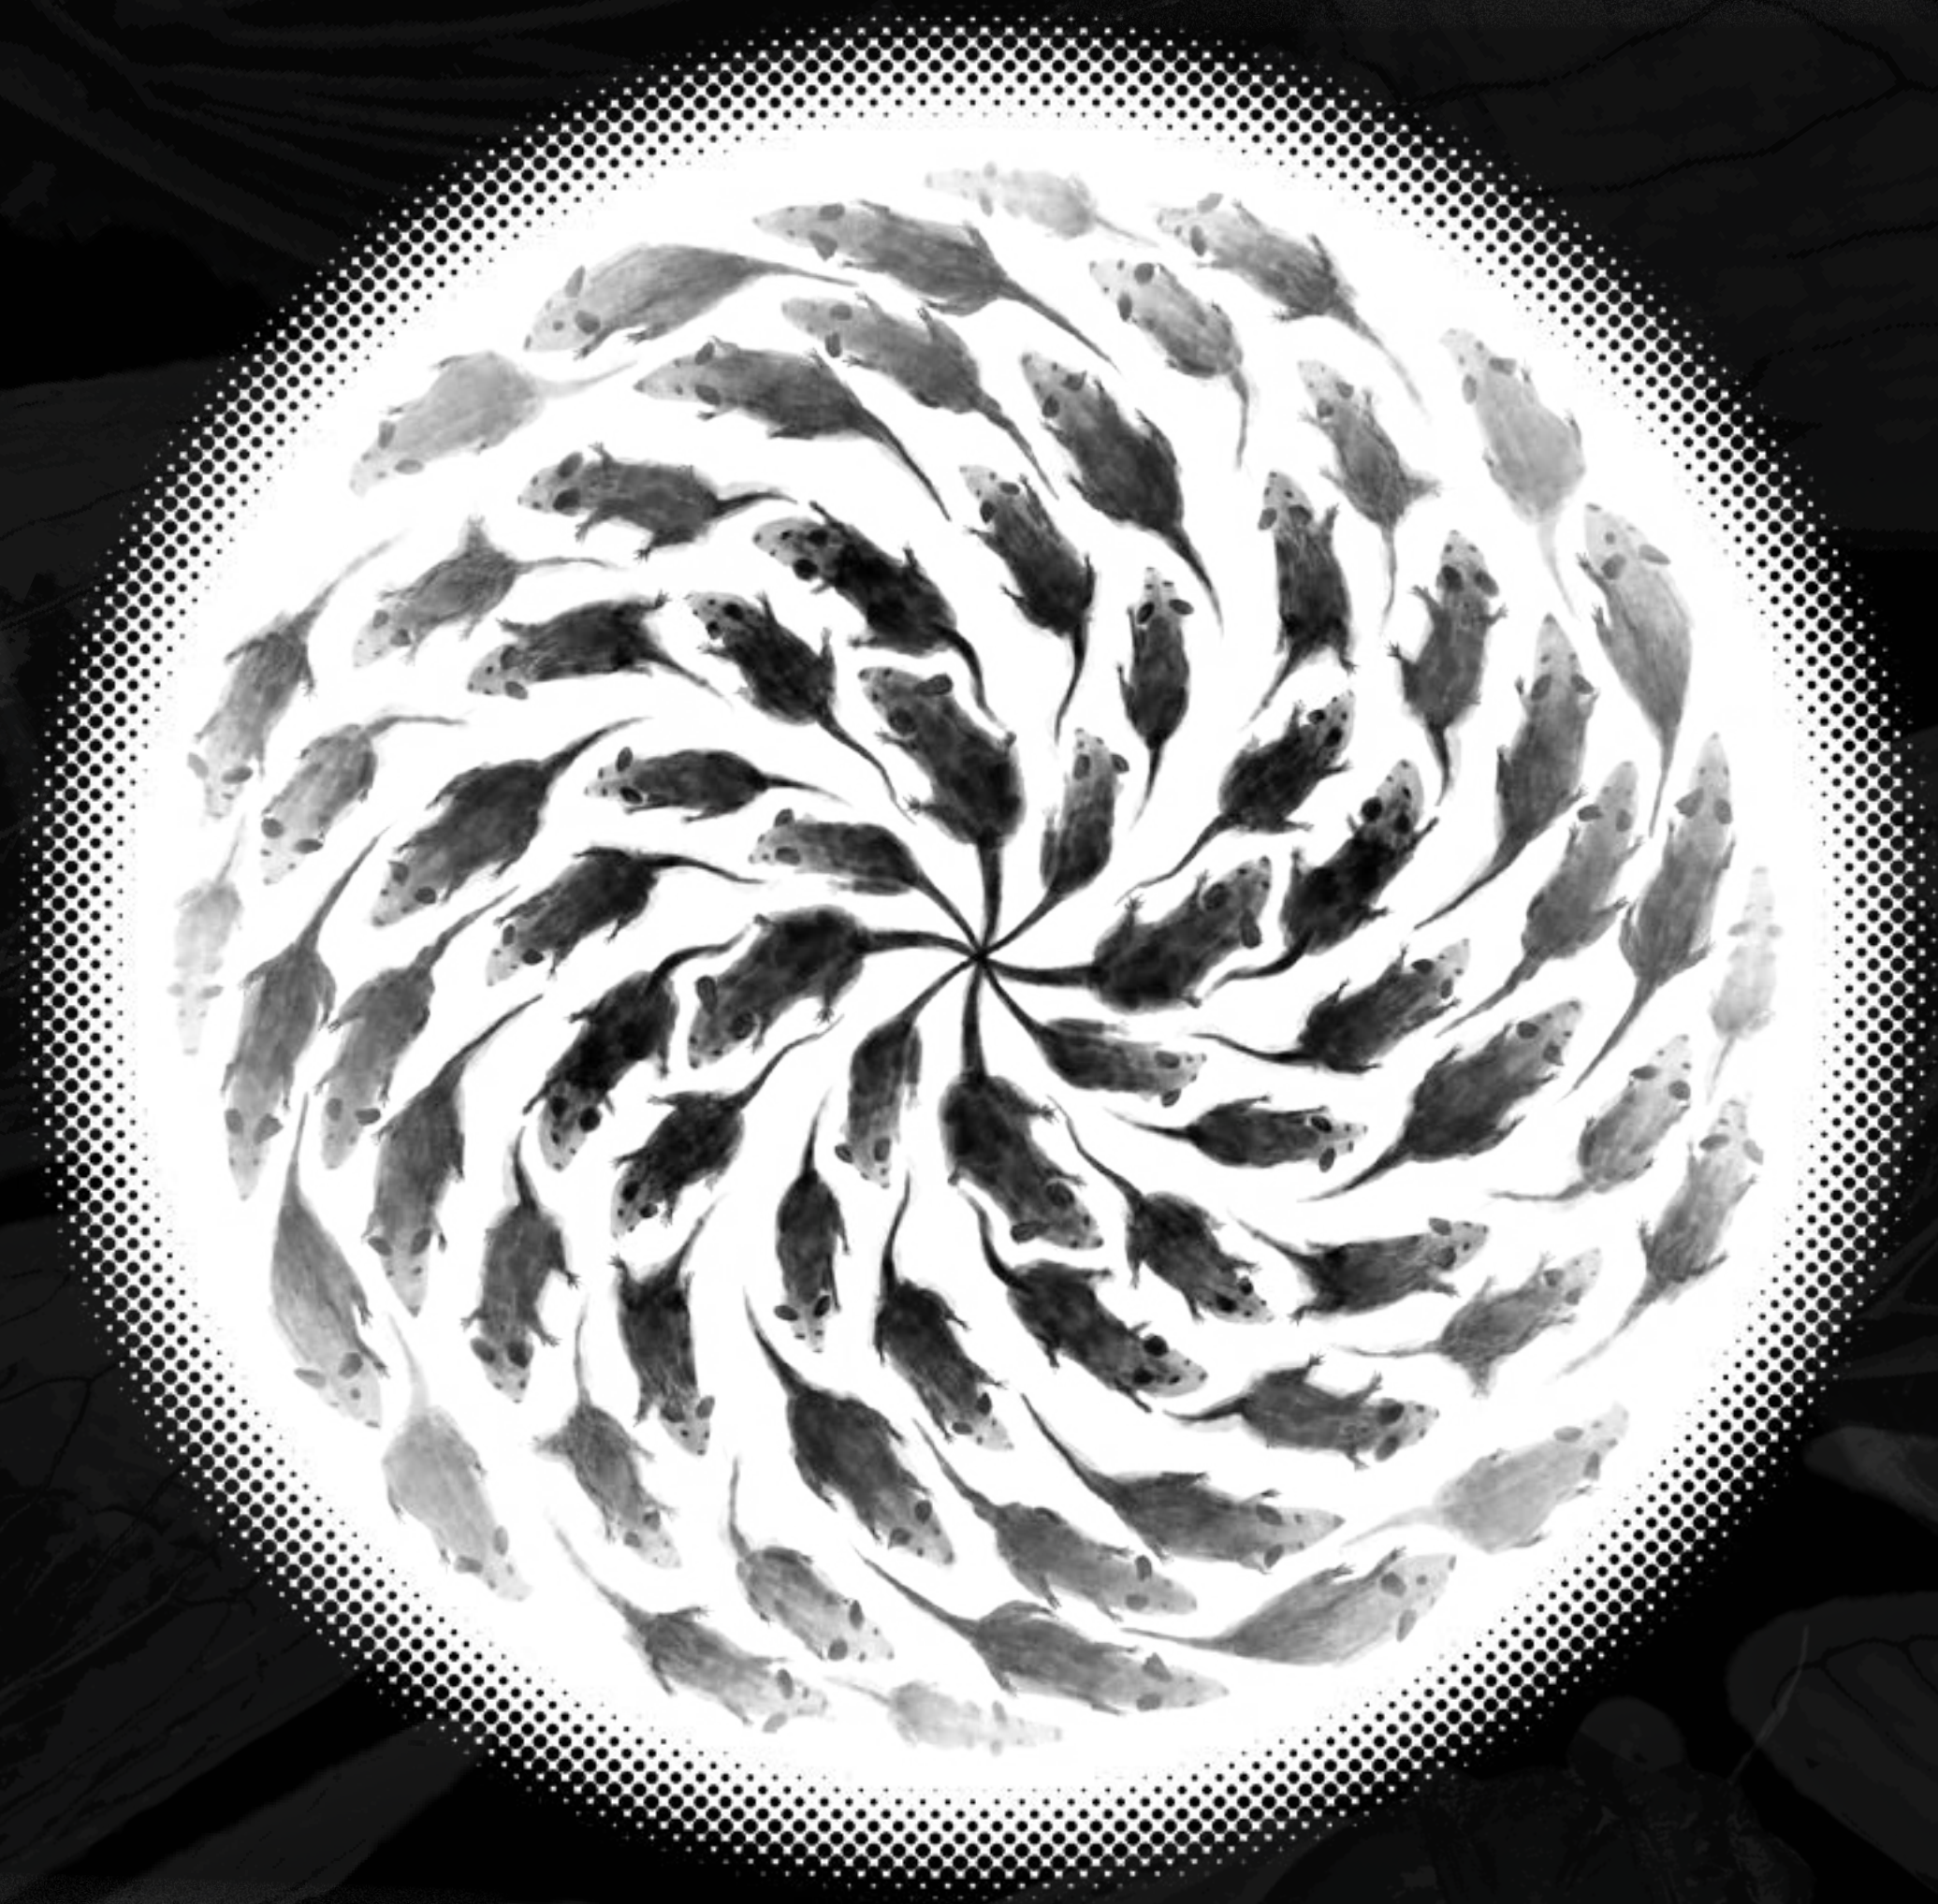

The pallet is monochrome and both pieces contain imagery of rats and spirals.

The artist is closely associated with his love of rats, and this was a major theme in his album, "In Case I Make it." The spirals come from his earlier work, when his band went by the name, "Will Wood and The Tapeworms."

Black Women in Music

Event Poster & E-blast

This is an event celebrating the accomplishments of black women in music, both historical and modern. Nina Simone was an astounding musician and civil rights activist. The poster and e-blast both feature an illustration of her, along with real newspapers behind her.

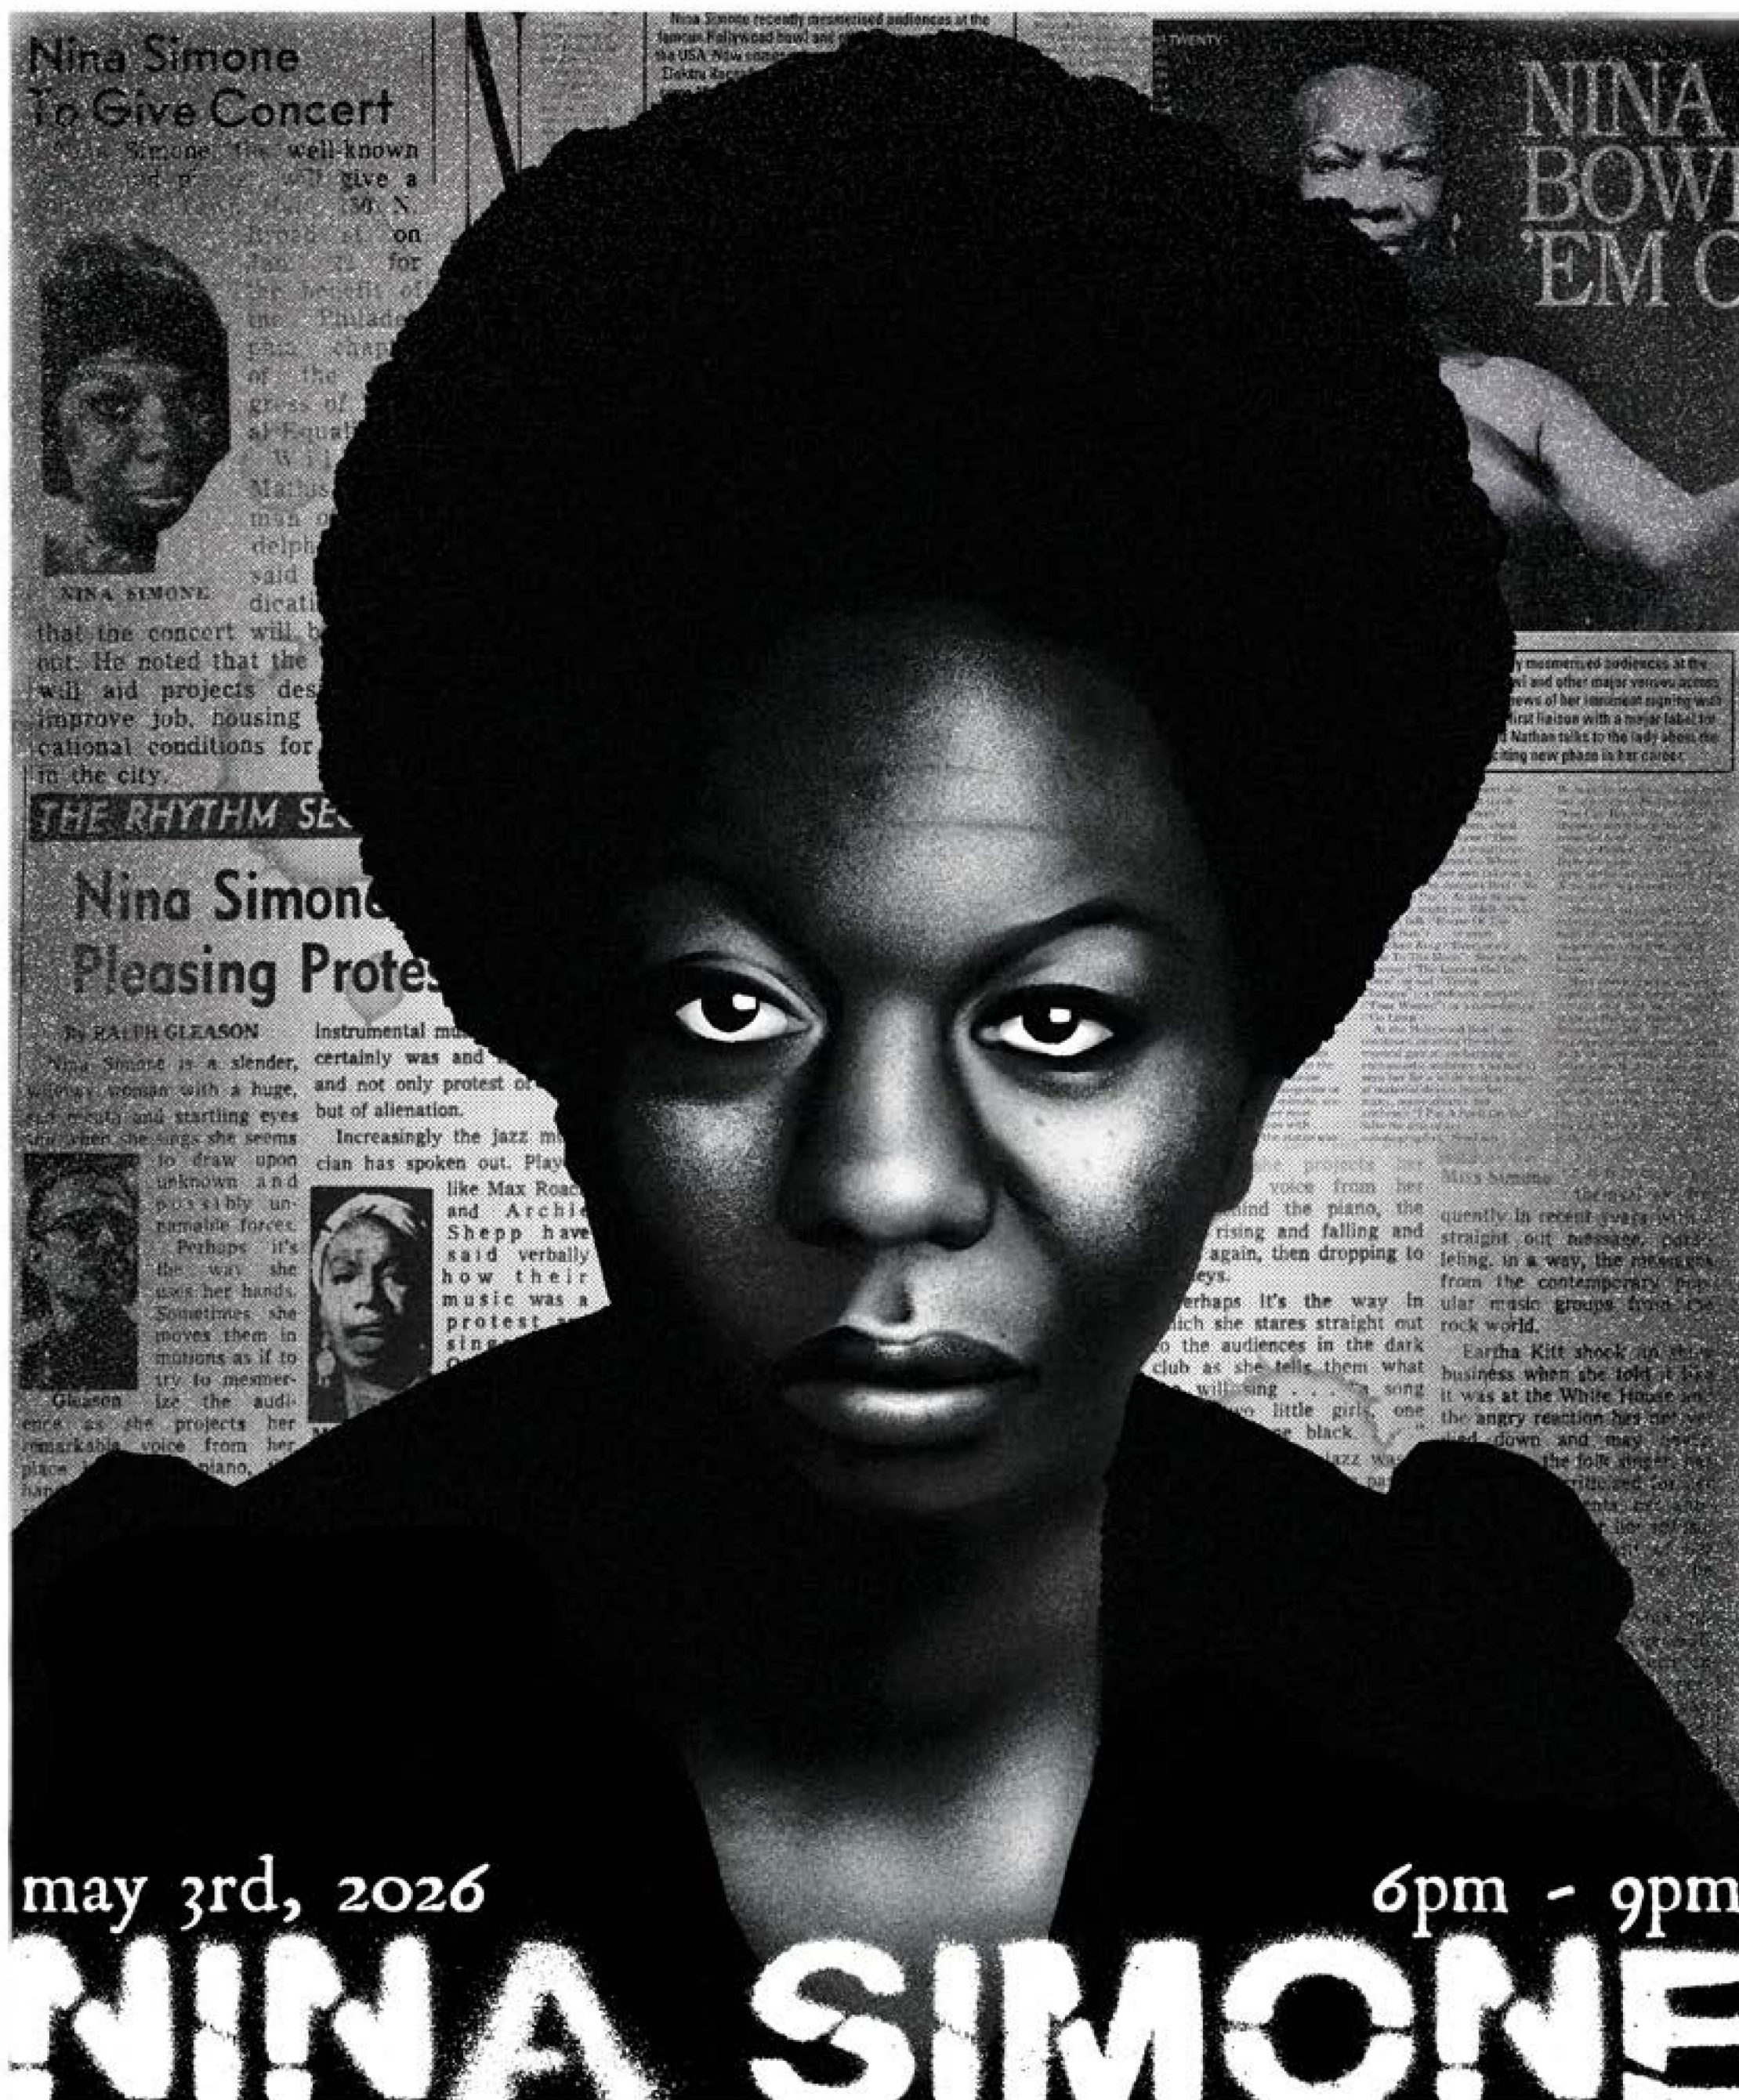

Black Women in music

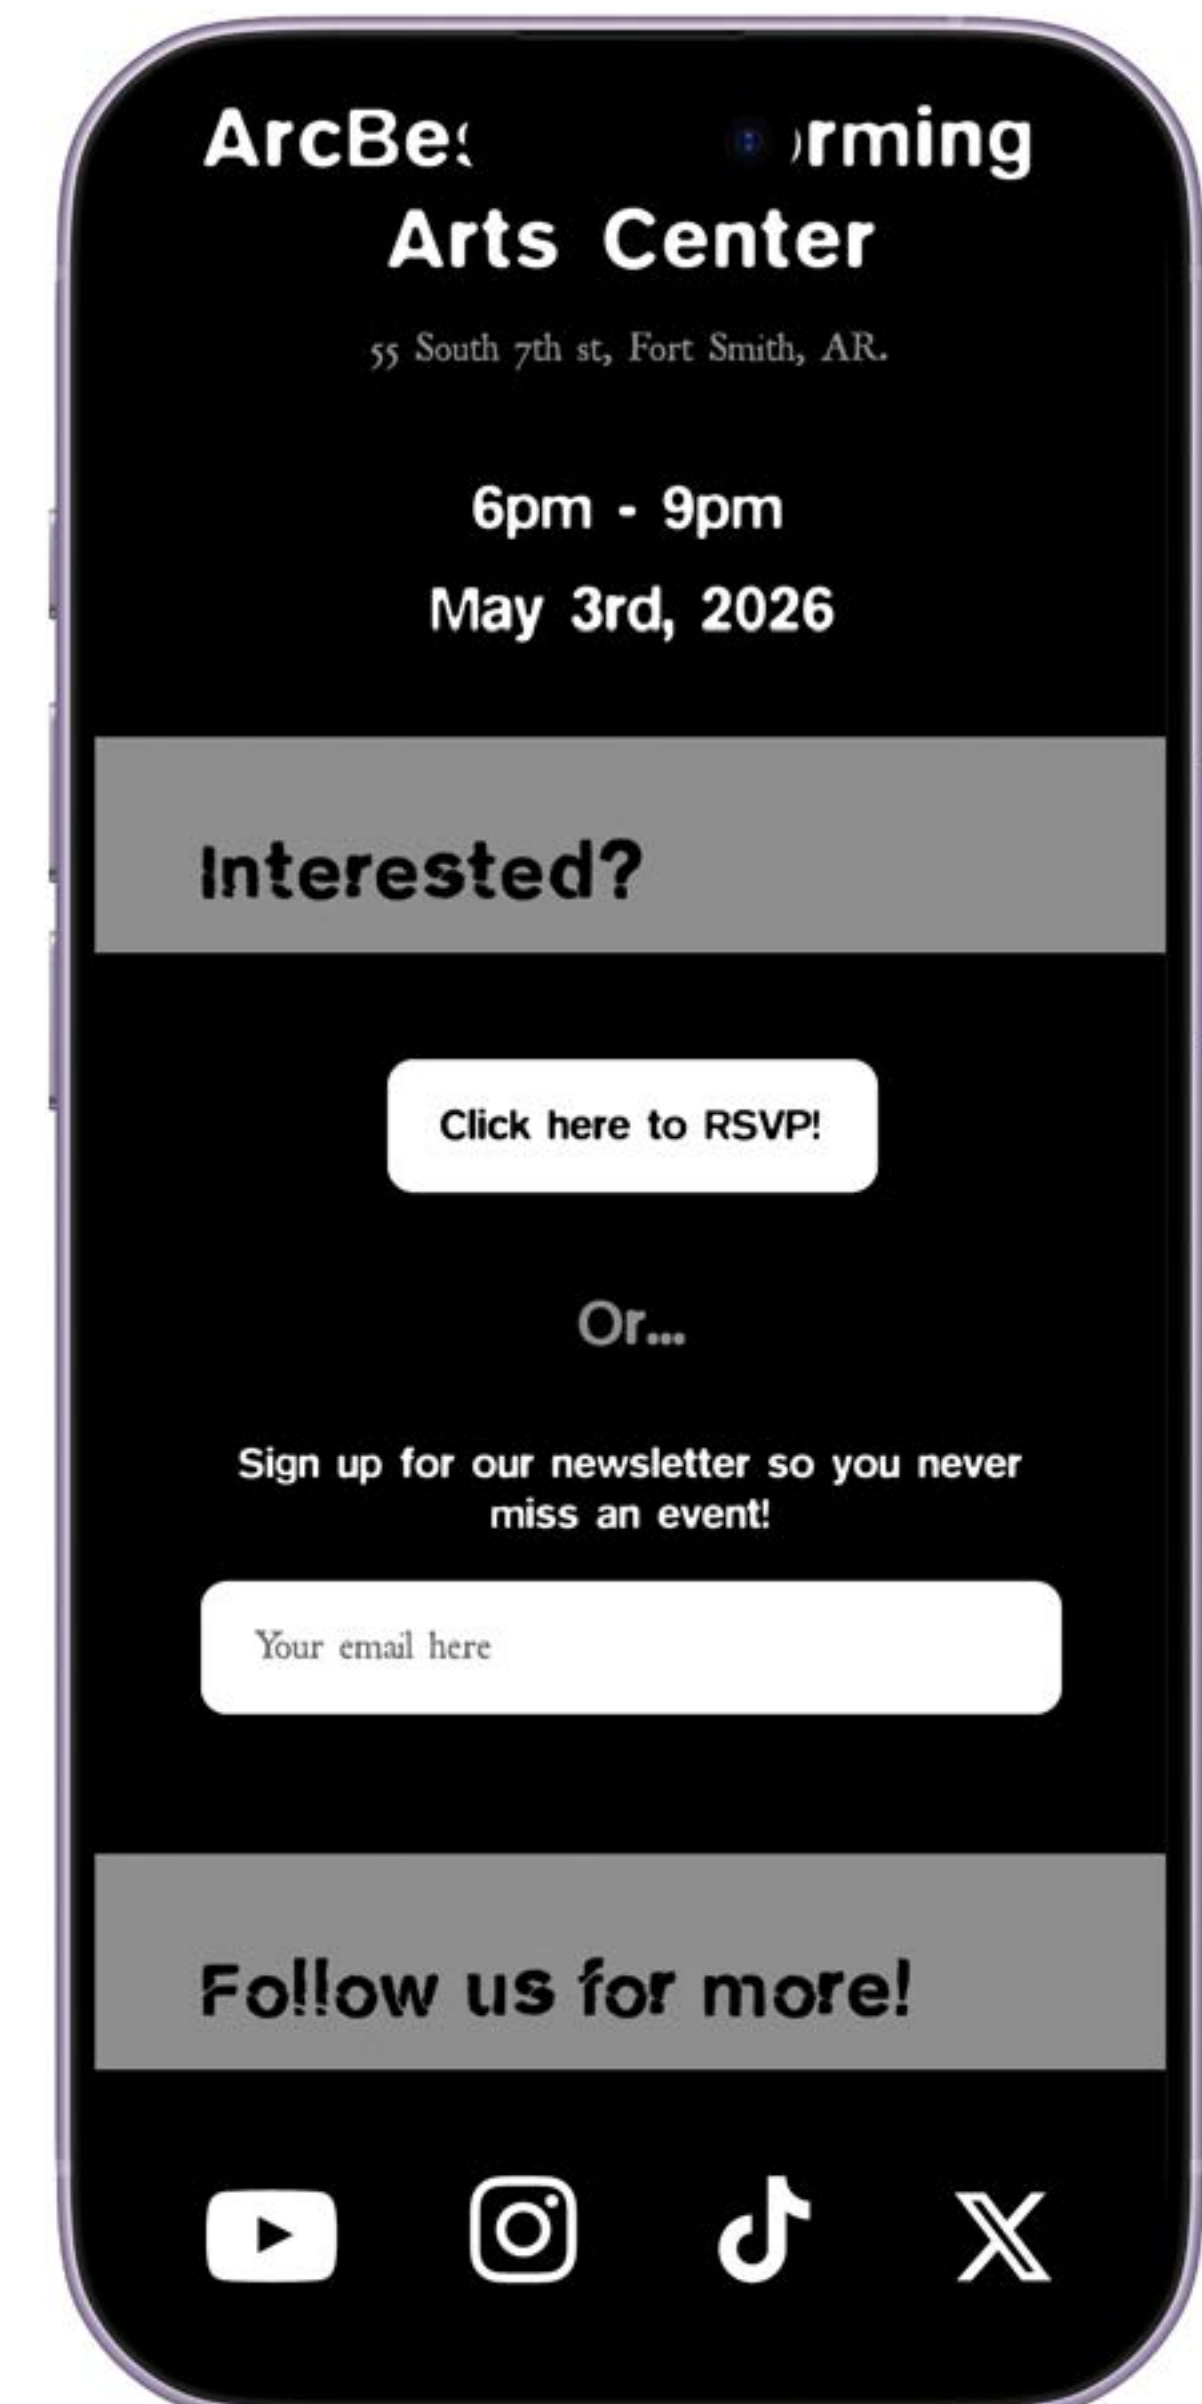

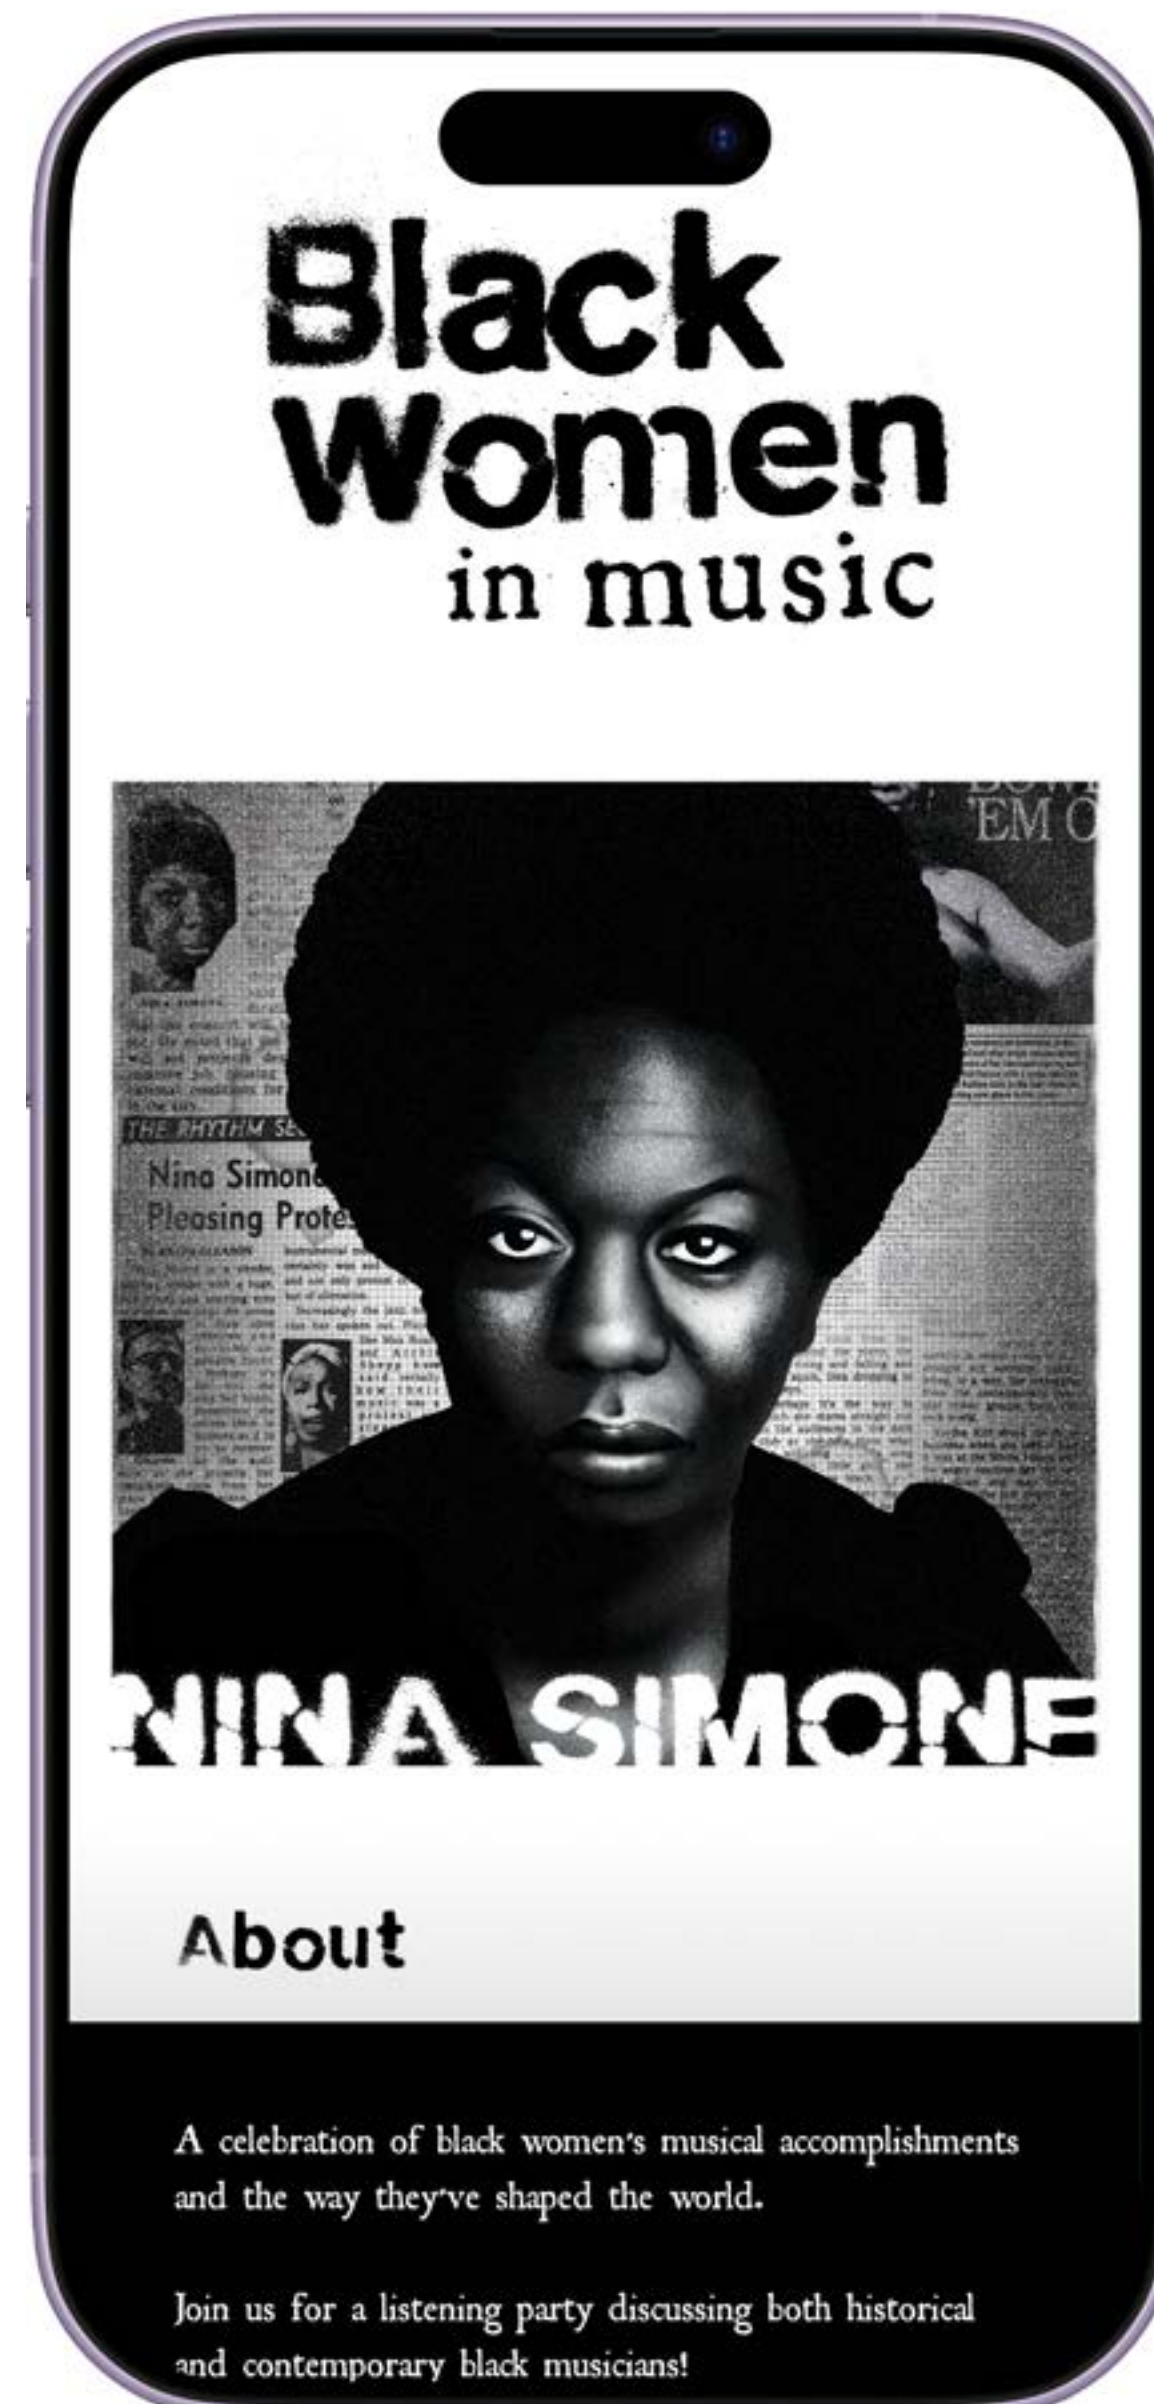

A celebration of black women's musical accomplishments and the way they've shaped the world.

Join us for a listening party discussing both historical and contemporary black musicians!

R3TROFIXT

Brand Identity, Advertizing, & Web Design

R3TROFIXT is a brand dedicated to helping fix old technology, whether that be through selling parts for people to fix/mod their devices themselves, or modding/repair services

The color pallet is primarily green because of PCB boards, and it's association to technology. Think hacker aesthetic.

Figure Freaks

Subscription Box & Product Design

Figure Freaks is a subscription service that sends out gundam-like build-able figurines and other related accessories to its subscribers.

The box itself is designed to include the "runner," or the plastic mold that the consumer pops the pieces out of. On the inside of the lid is a cardboard figure that can be cut out and assembled using metal joints.

Autistic Adult Communication Network

Web Design & Brand Identity

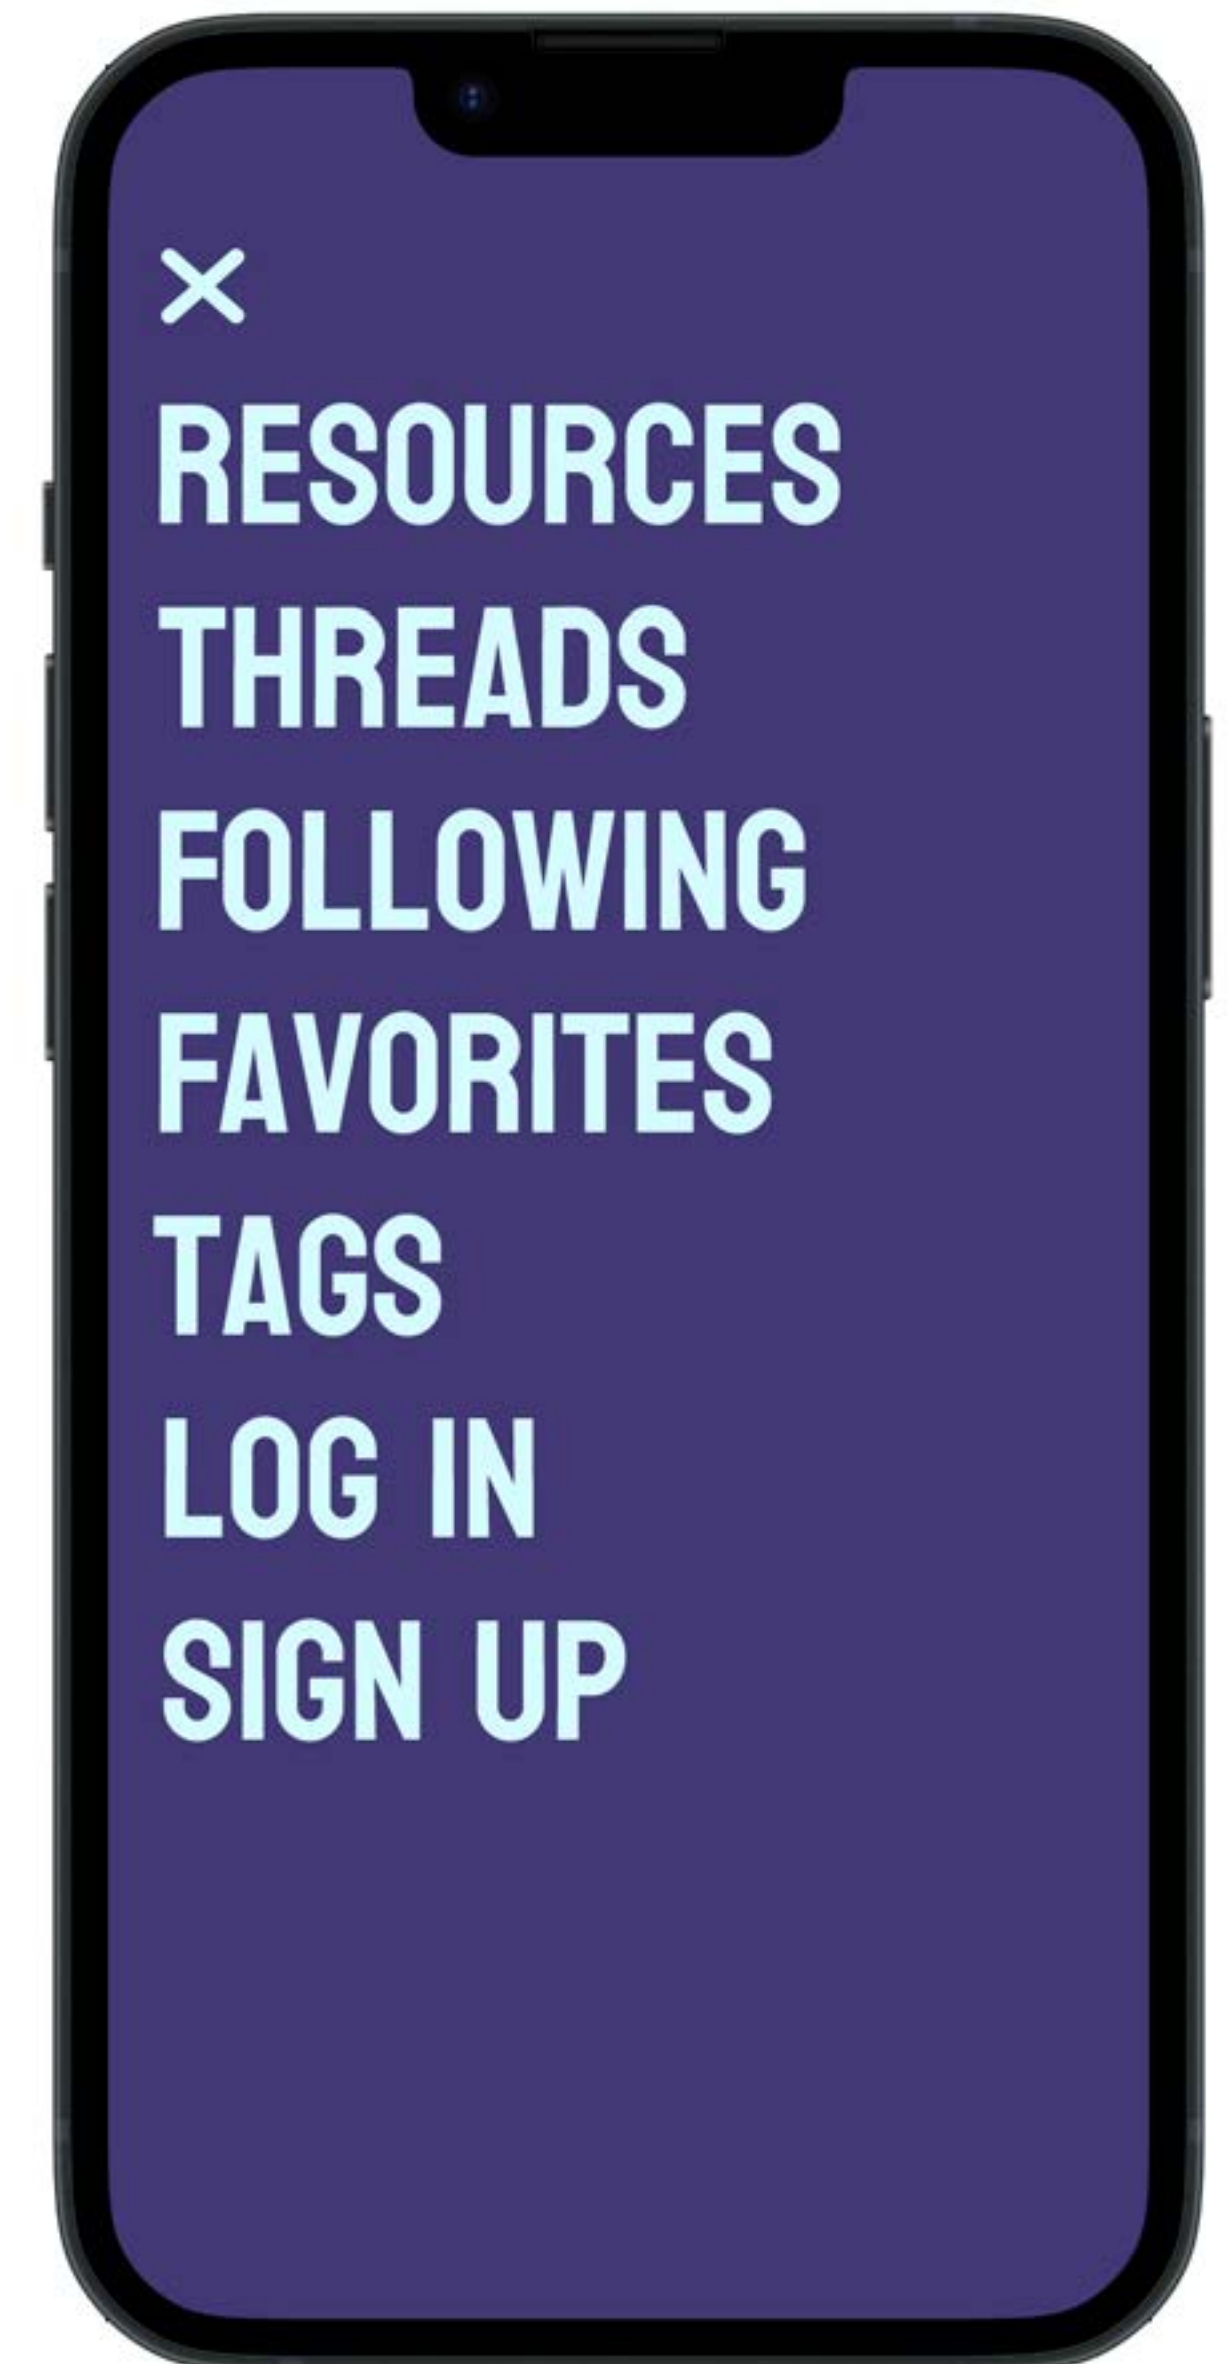

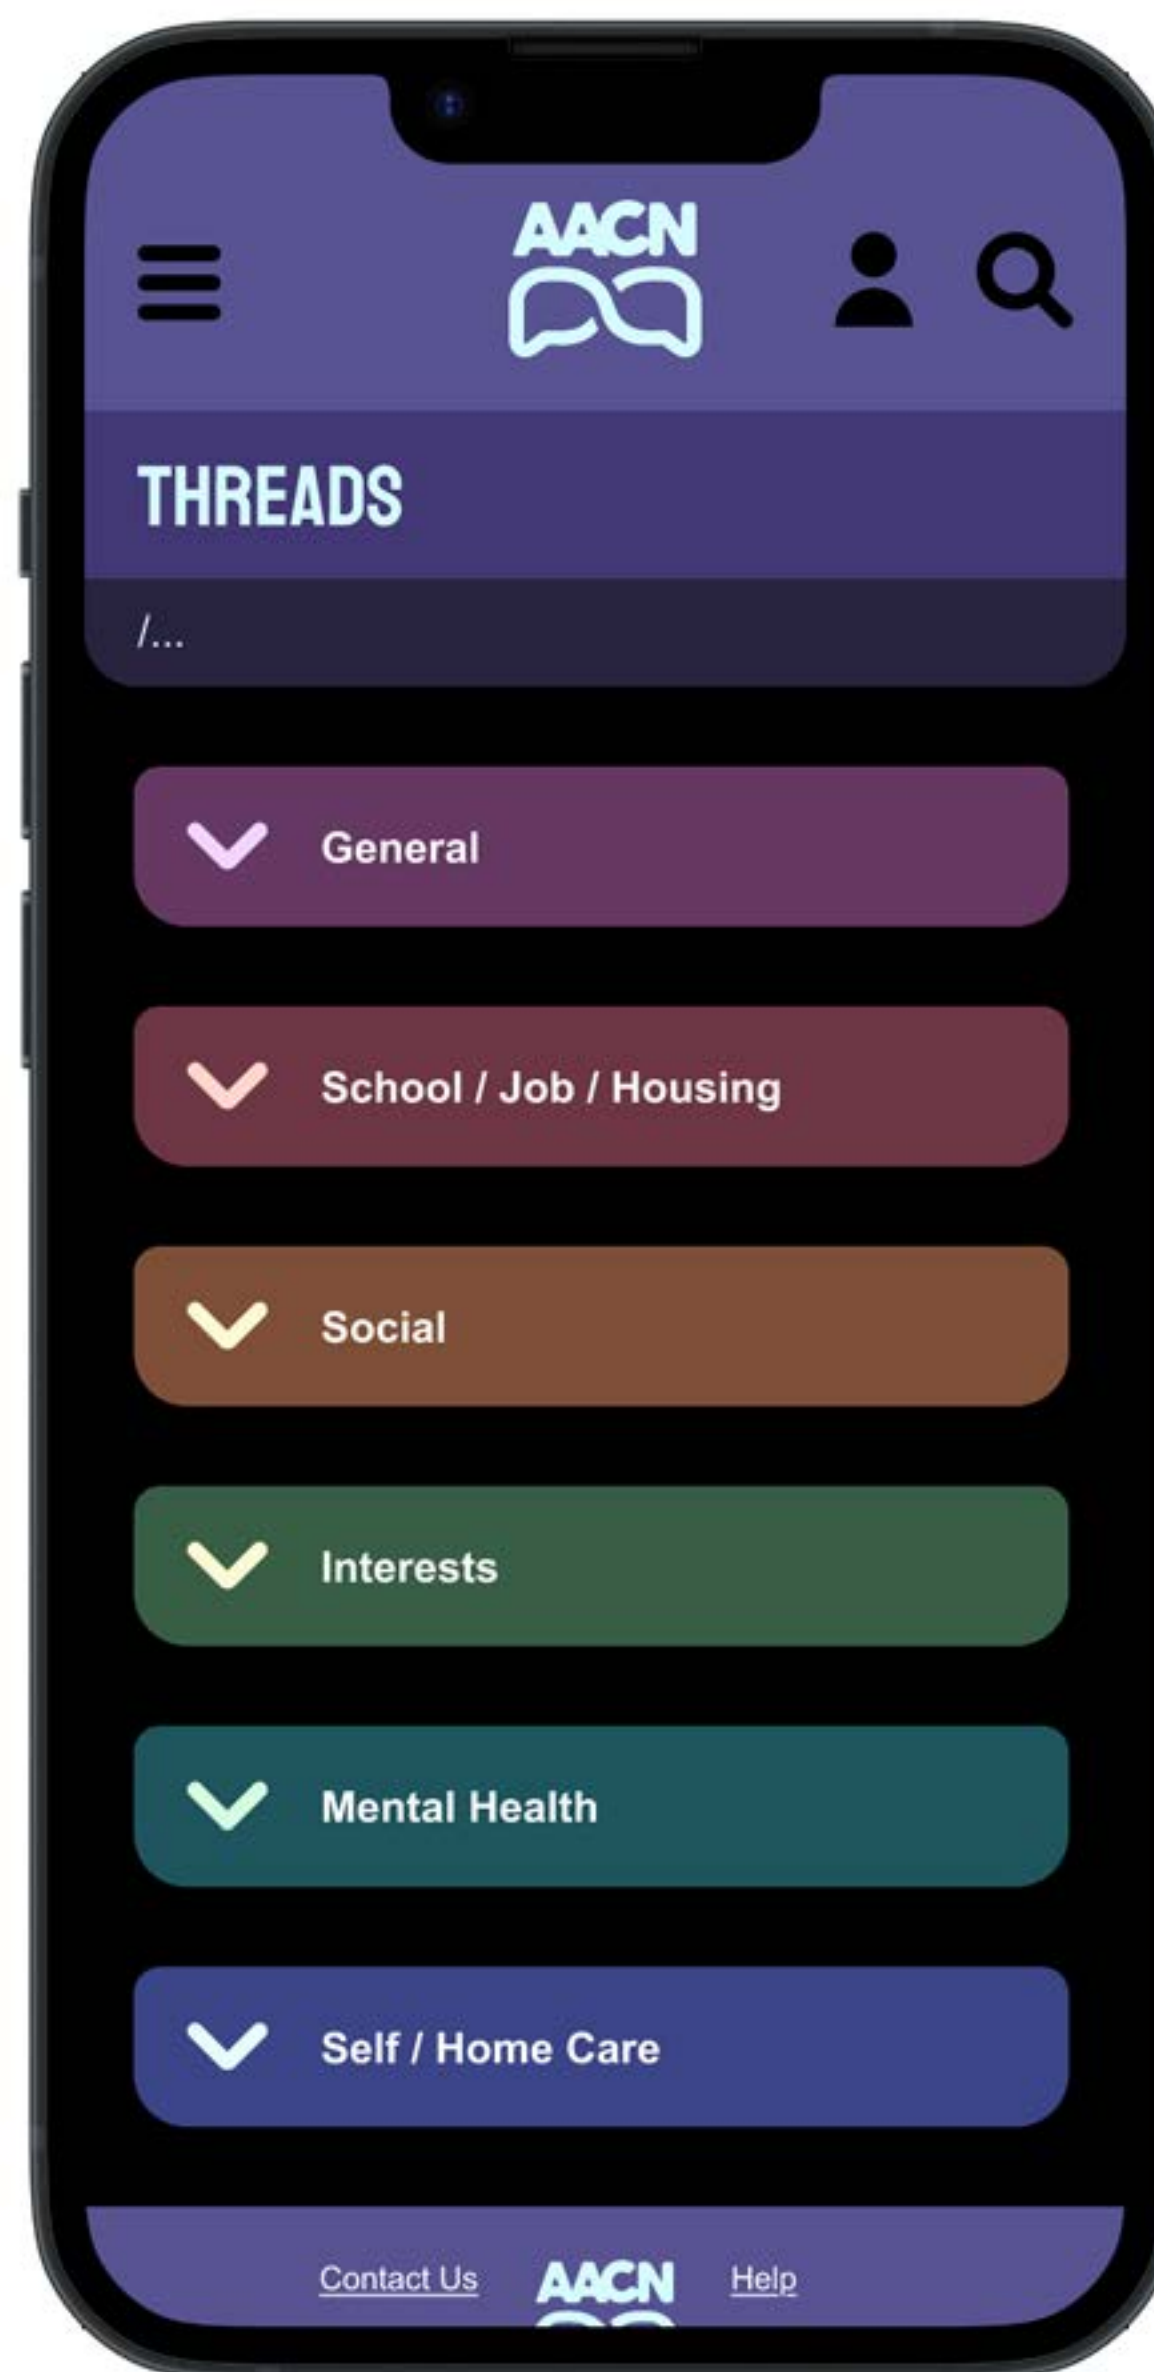

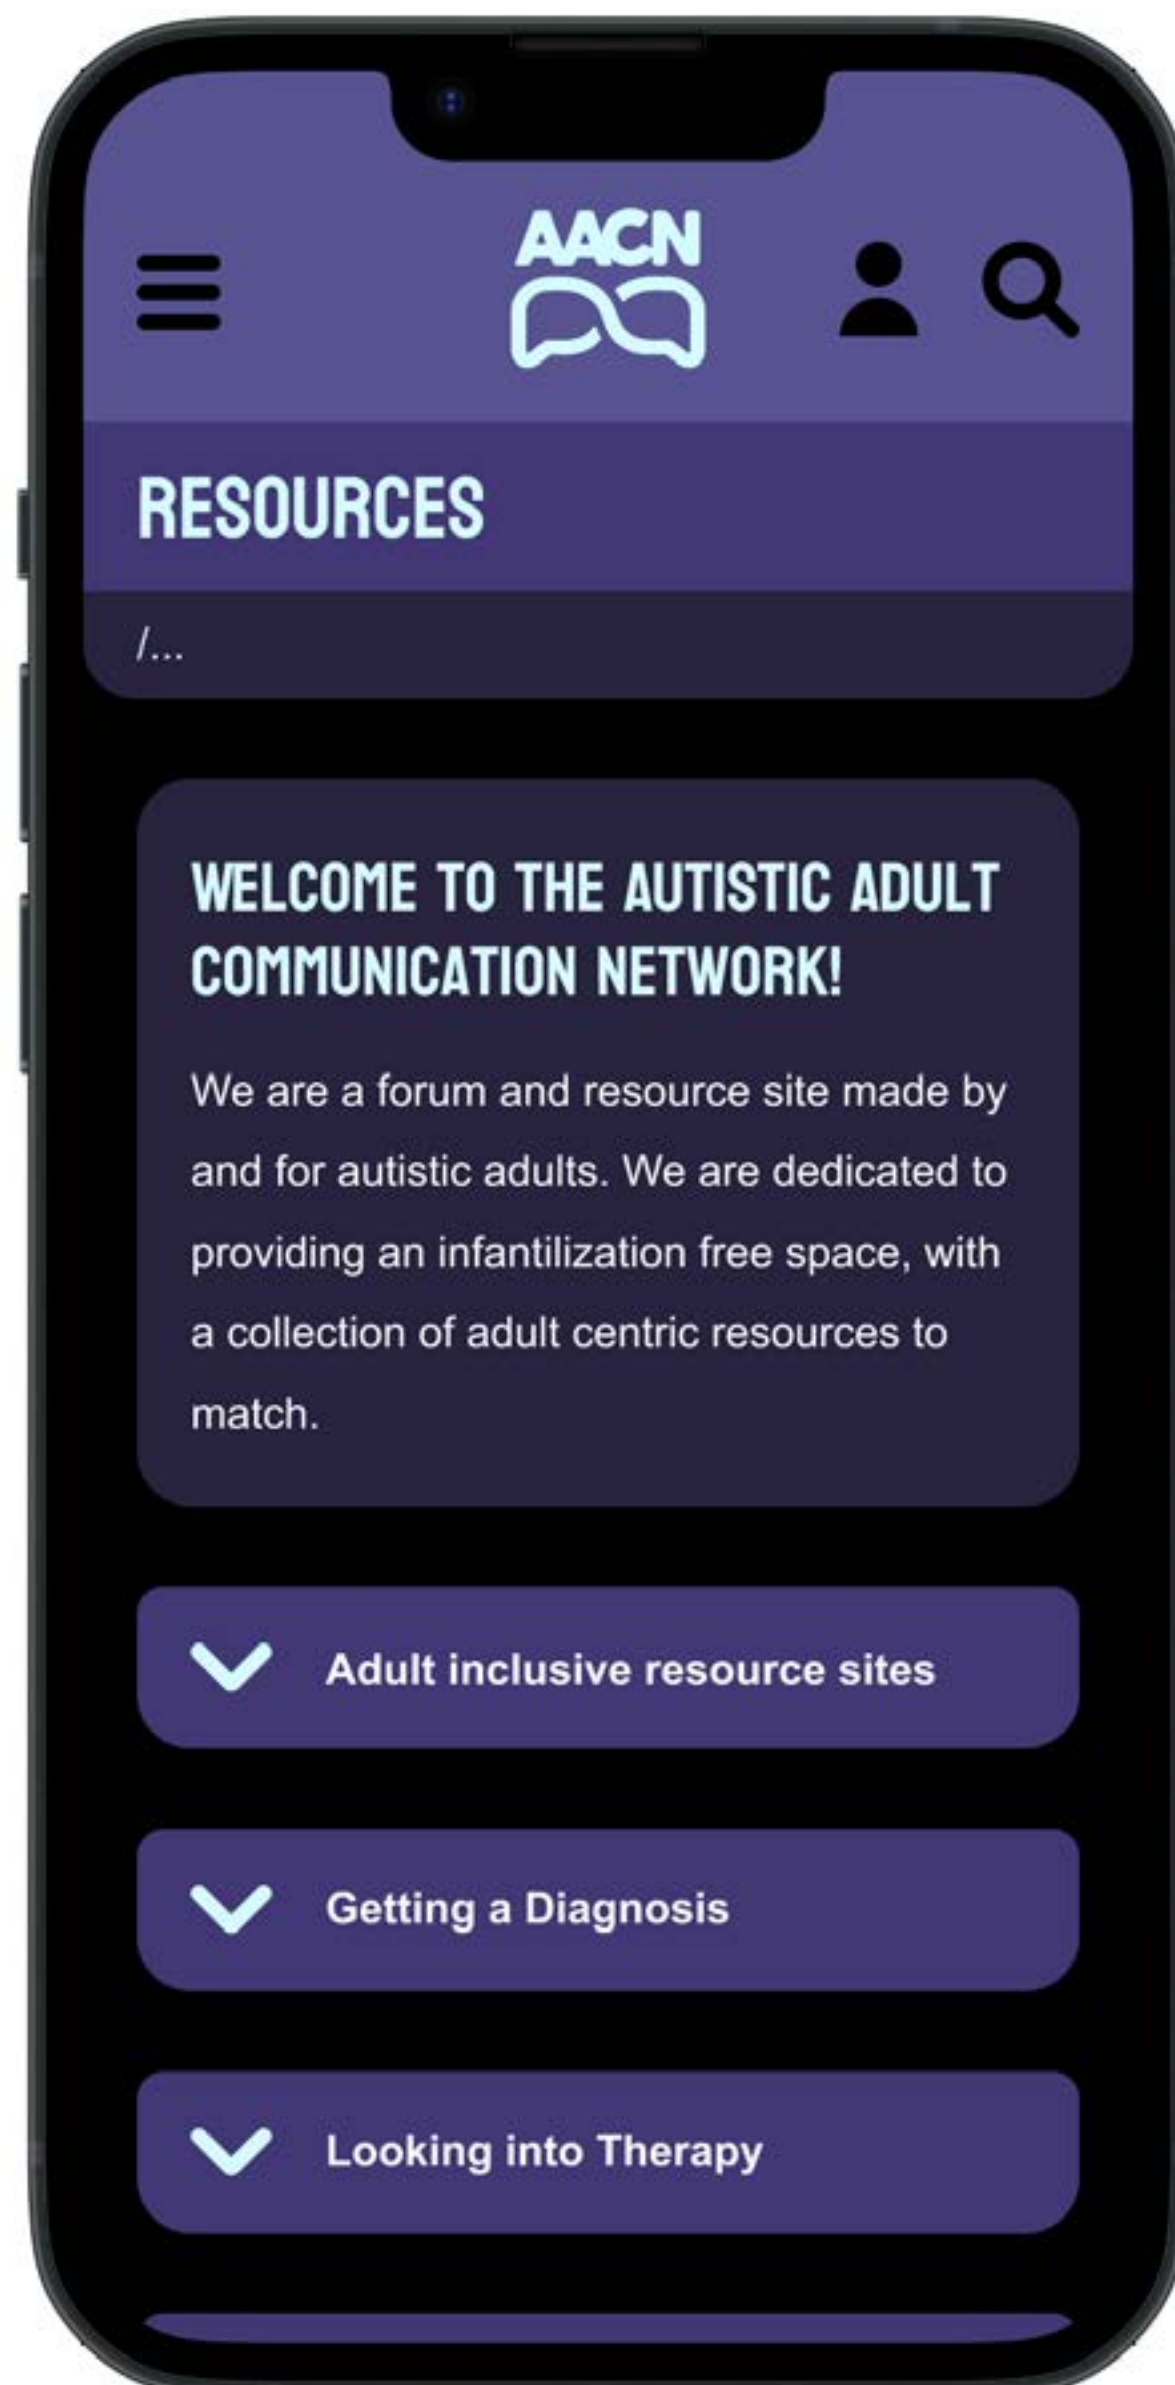

The Autistic Adult Communication Network is a combination resource forum site for autistic adults to find help and connect with one another, as most resource sites cater primarily to the parents to autistic children, and not the autistic people themselves.

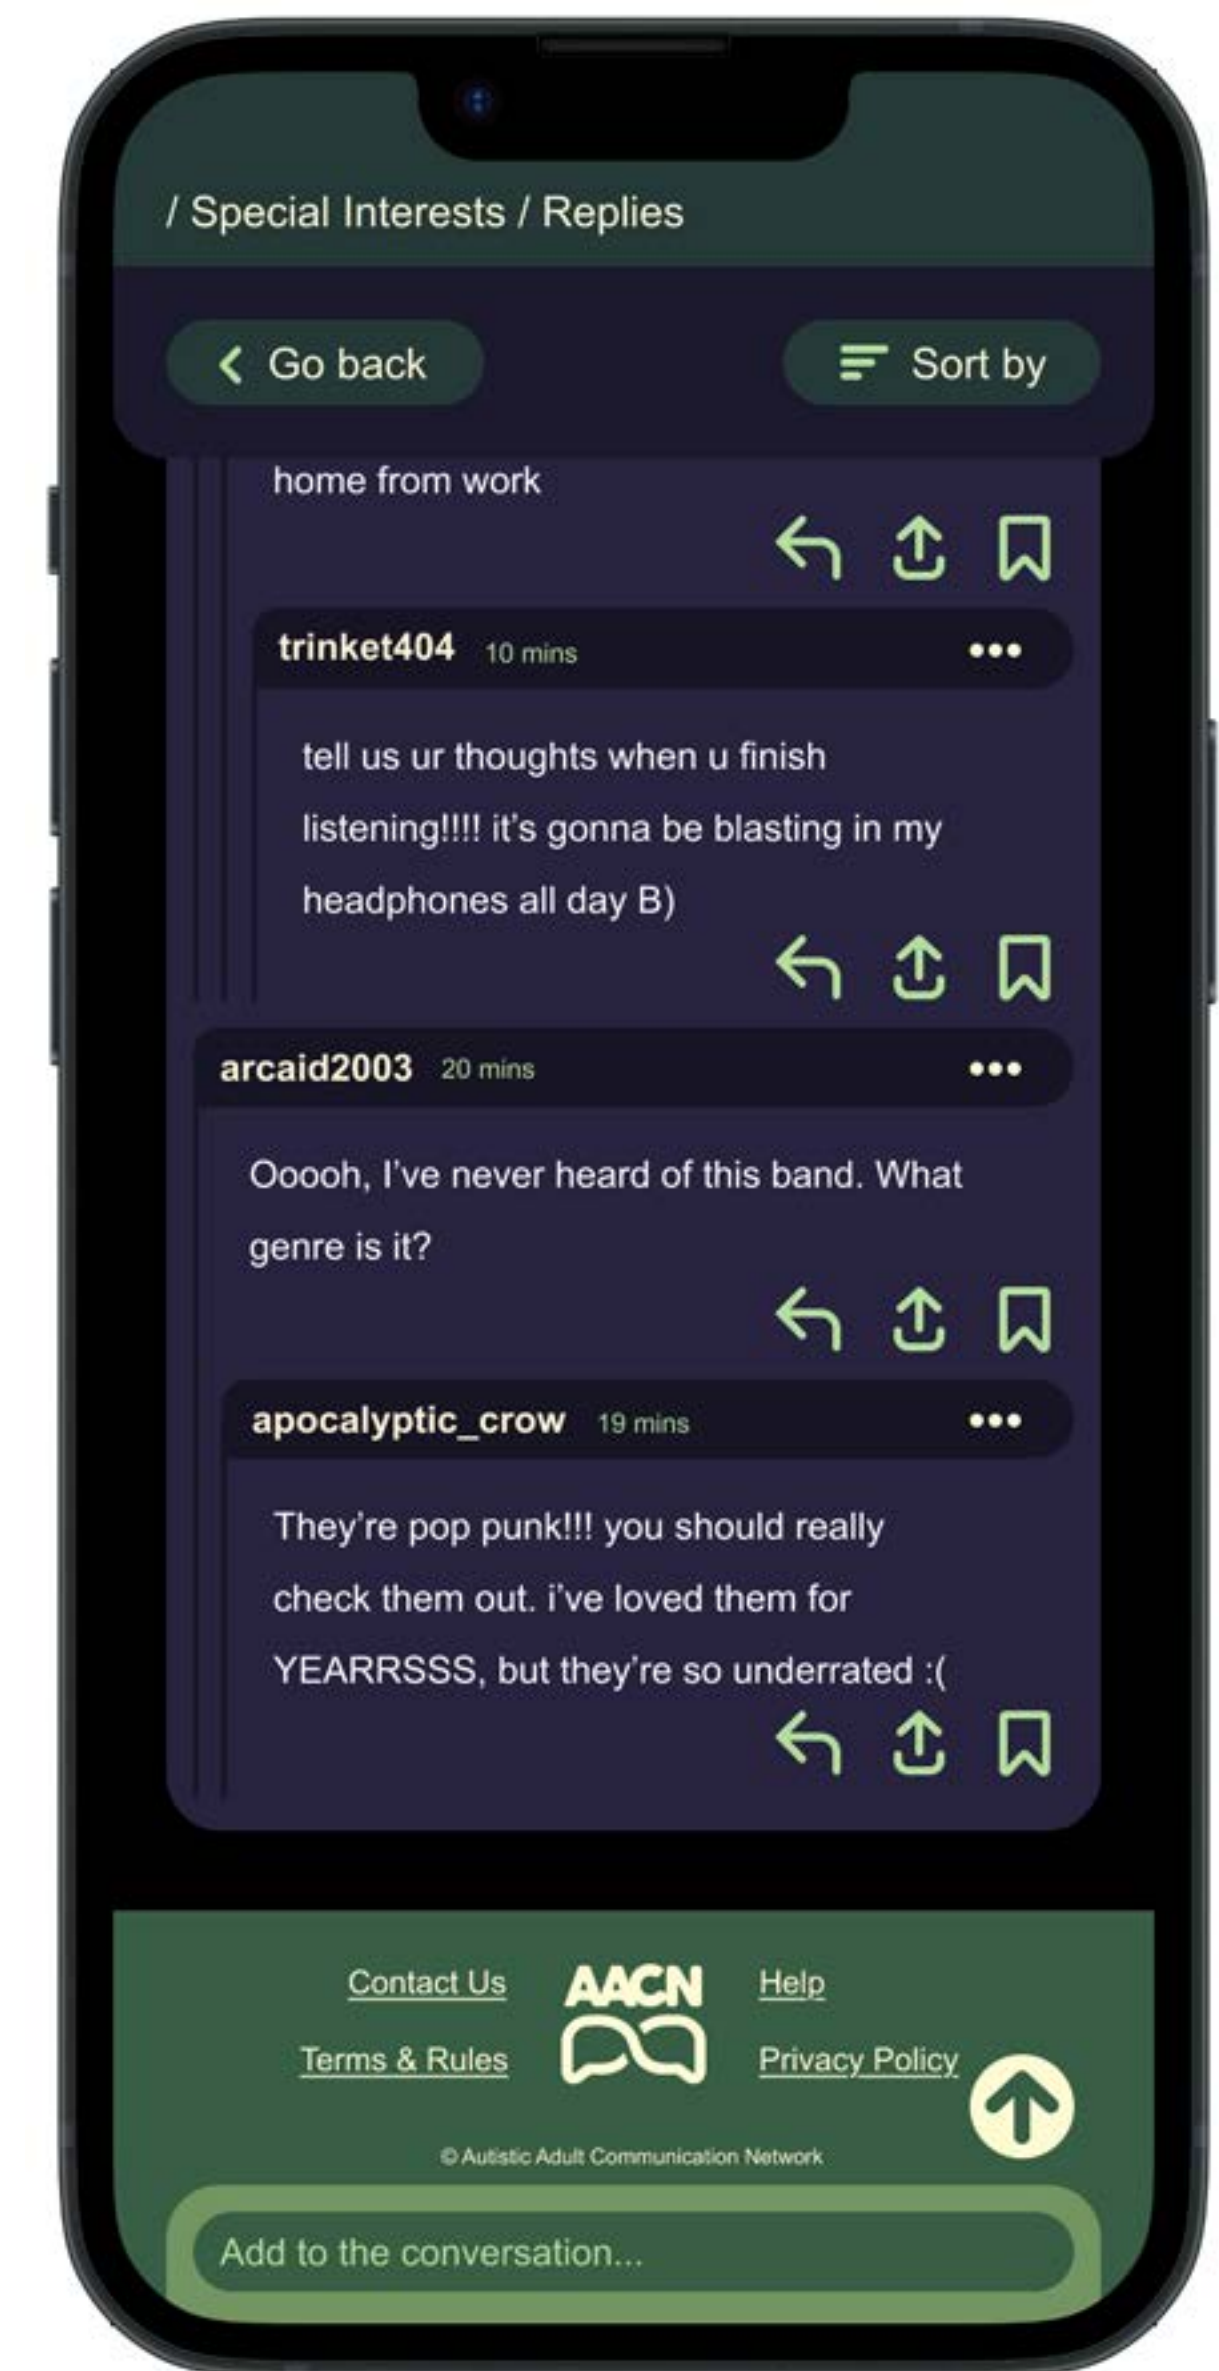

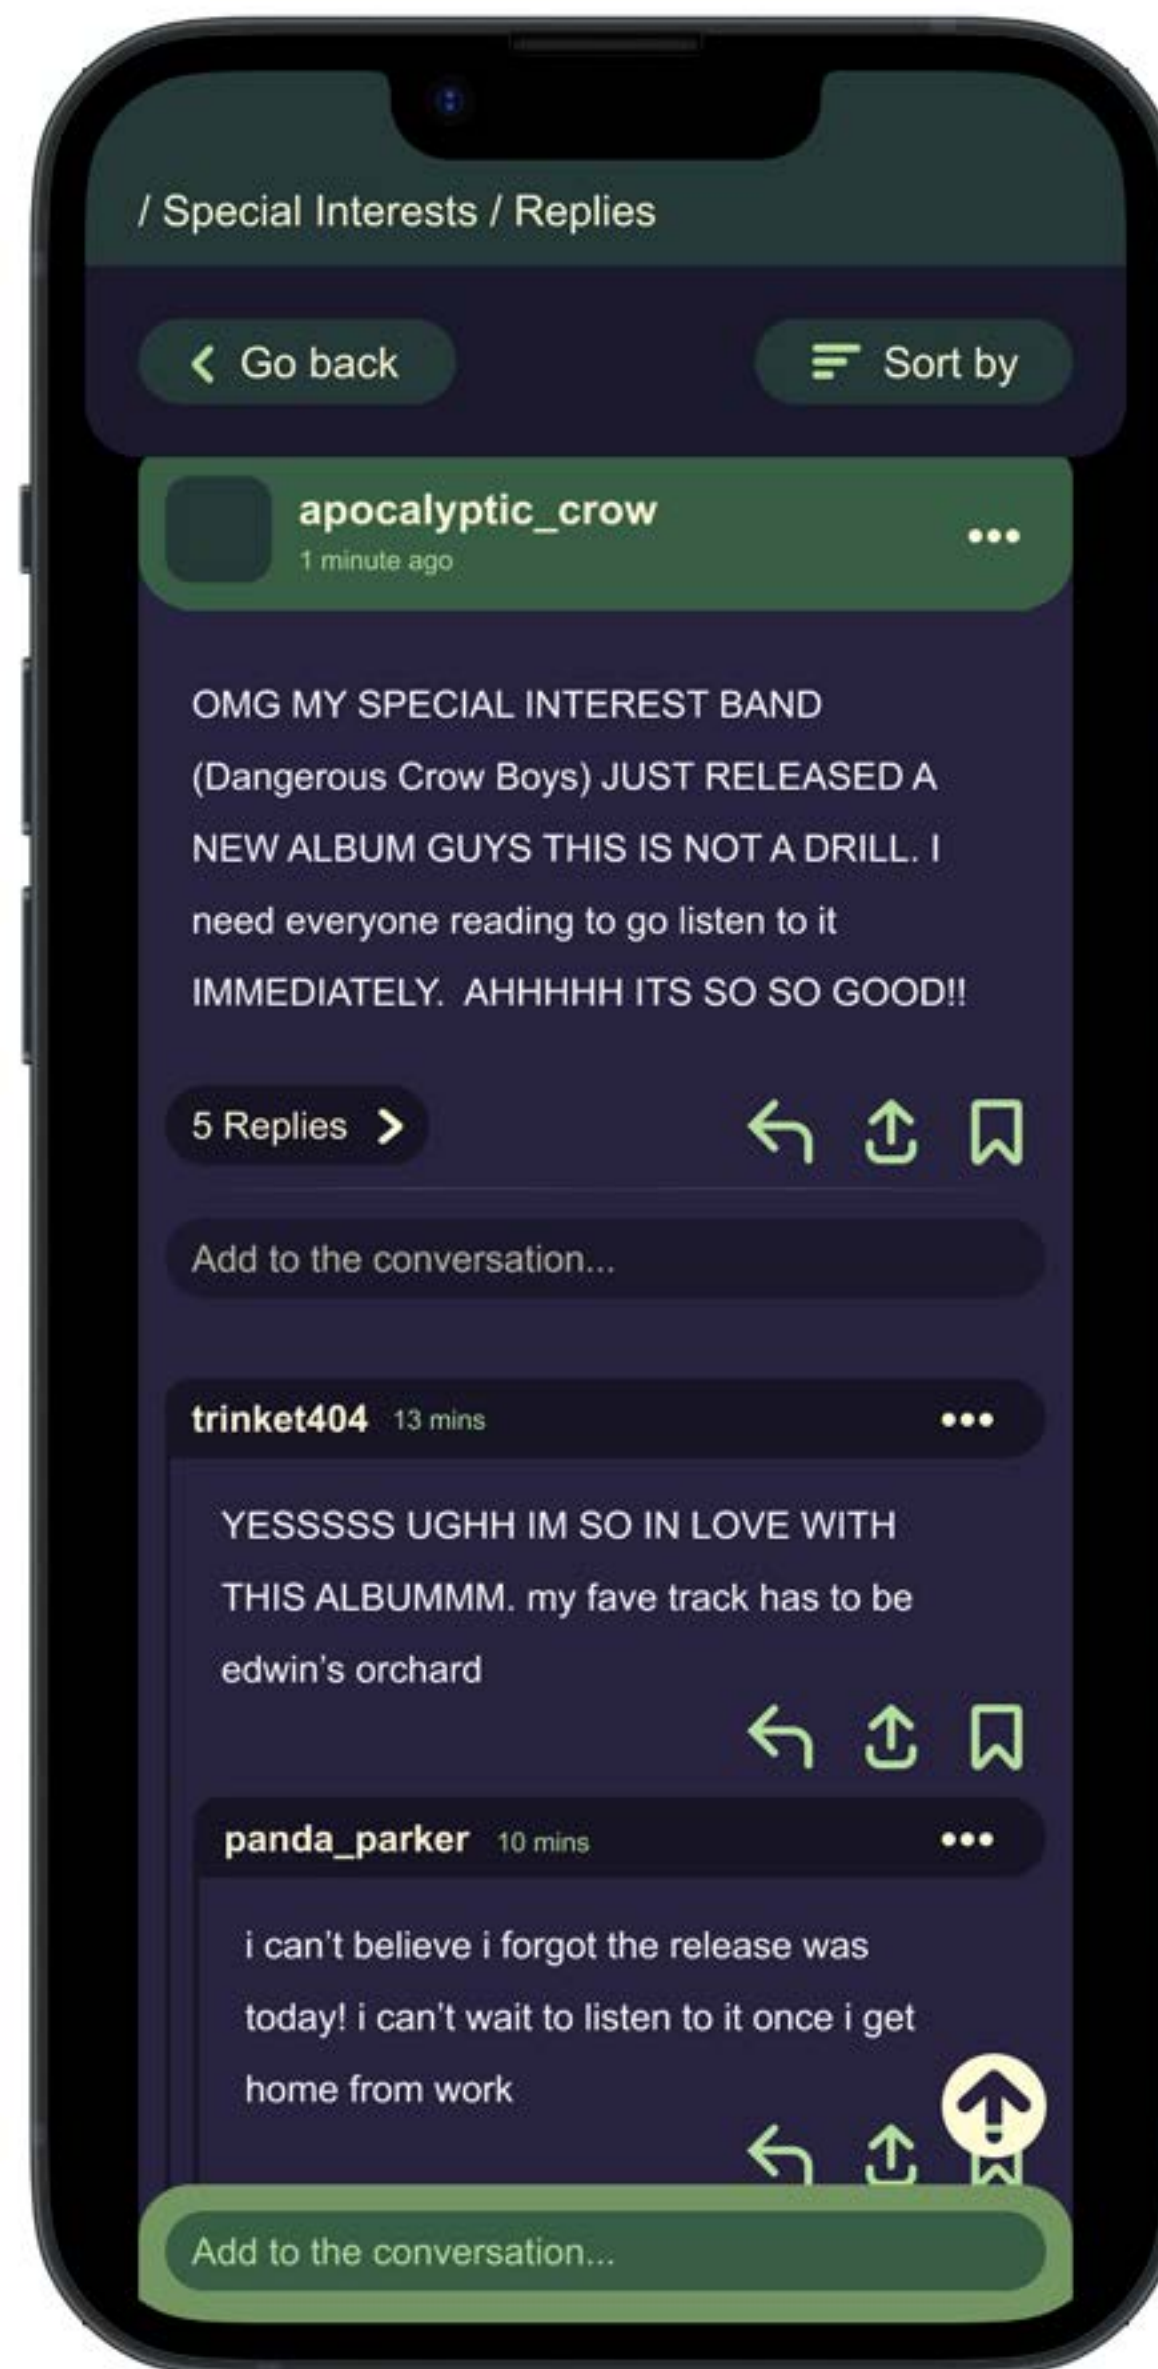

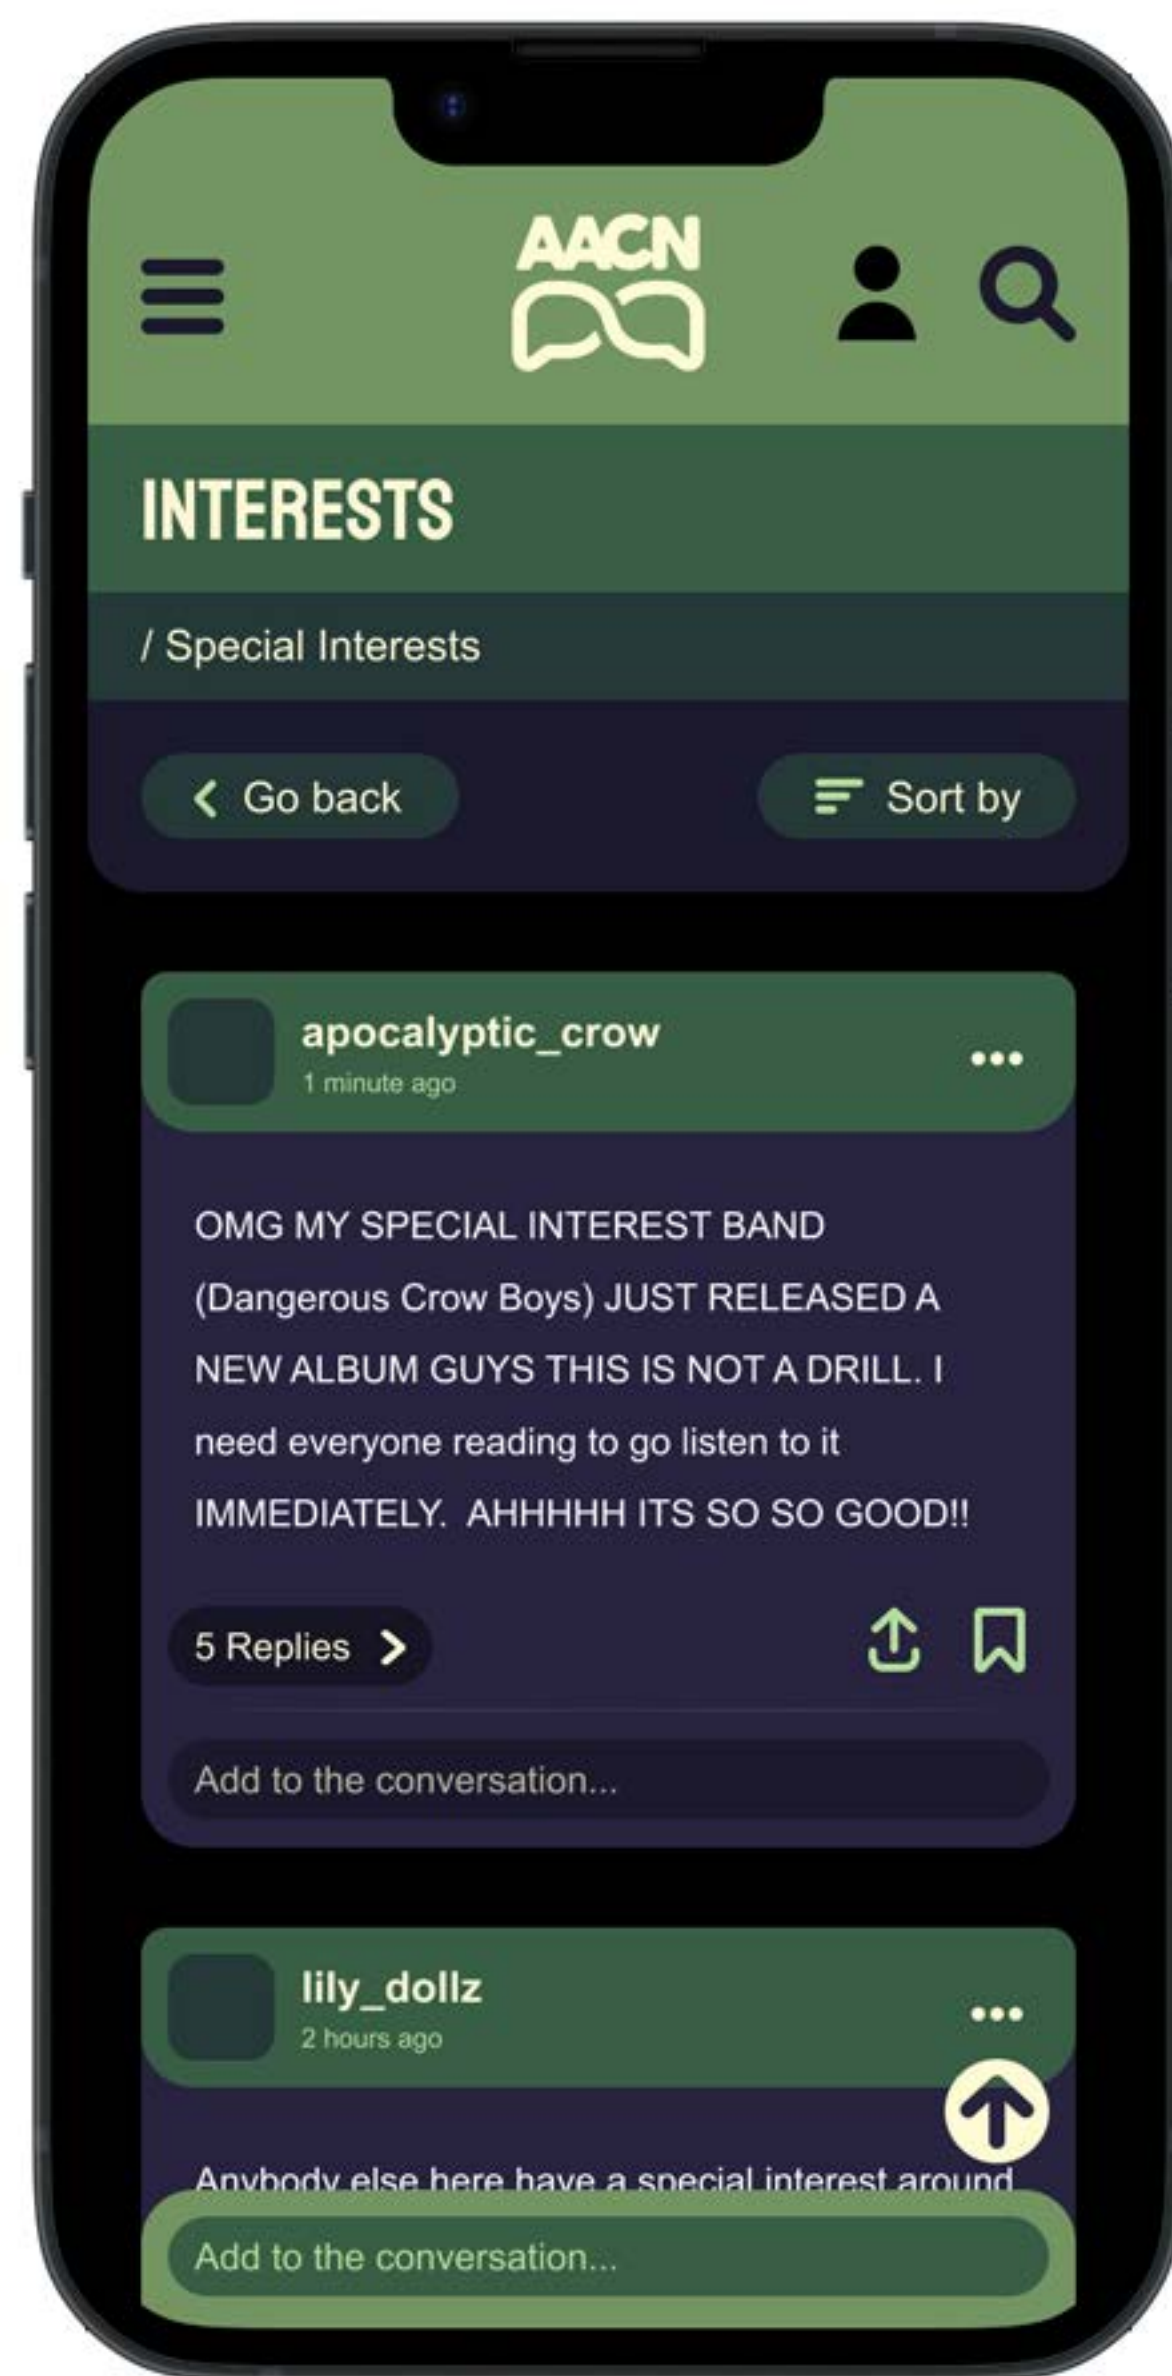

The logo of the site is a combination of the infinity symbol, (a symbol for autism) and two chat bubbles.

The site is designed with dark colors in order to be sensory friendly, and each part of the forum section is color coded so you never forget where you are.
