FRENCH ROUND TOWELS

Les Antillaises

FRENCH ROUND TOWELS

Les Antillaises was created from our desire to combine aesthetics with conviviality. Our round towels are a harmonious blend of luxury for all of your escapades. Wherever you go, we help you create a space dedicated to pleasure and relaxation.

Les Antillaises are round beach towels designed with love. Our passion for travel and for the Caribbean islands has led us to start this magnificent adventure. Our motto is : "Luxury, calm and voluptuousness". It is inspired by Charles Baudelaire's poetry : Invitation to the voyage. Just like this author did with words, we wish, through our round towels brand, to celebrate the beauties of nature. Our life is nothing but wandering ... We find the inspiration according to our travels and encounters. From Martinique's palm trees to Indian ethnic motifs, our creations are a tribute to the wonders of the world, to nature and fascinating cultures.

Our sensibility comes from a landscape's magnificence, from tropical plants' fragrances, from the subtle light of a setting sun hugging the horizon... We celebrate the ocean and its splashes through our round beach towels. Our goal is to help you create moments of happiness, sharing, magic and vagabondage ... Walk along with the rhythm of your desires. Reinvent your space with our inspiring round towels. You are invited to exodus.

Welcome to our world. Welcome to YOUR world

THE ECO DINNERWARE

THE ECO DINNERWARE

Ekobo is an eco-friendly enterprise specialising in the design and manufacture of contemporary home accessories made from a natural and renewable resource: the bamboo.

We combine modern aesthetics with local craftsmanship to sustain artisanal communities, while promoting bamboo as a socially and environmentally-responsible material.

Since its creation in 2003, Ekobo has evolved from a specialist in bamboo tableware to an eco-design brand focusing on home living accessories. Ekobo now offers over 350 sustainable, functional and stylish products for all areas of the home.

Designed for everyday use, at home, or on the move, this tableware range is an alternative to traditional plastics, disposable or fragile dishware. To extend the life of our products, we've combined biodegradable bamboo fiber, a highly renewable natural resource, with a 100% food-grade melamine binder.

GUSTO trays

GUSTO's versatile palette of pop, neutral and sultry colors allows one to mix or match to make graphic statements using contrasting colors or subdued tone-on-tone combinations.

This tray combines perfectly with the Gusto cups. Multi-purpose, it can also serve as a colourful "apero" tray.
