Service we Offer

Removal of court judgements, nationwide

Court judgments and court writs are entered into against individuals and companies when a civil claim has been brought against the individual or company in court, and no defense is lodged at the time.

As consultants, we can represent you in these matters from beginning to end, nationwide.

Removal of Commercial defaults

If you have signed personal guarantees or are a director of a company or a commercial entity you may also be subject to negative credit listings on your personal or company credit report.

This can affect your ability to obtain finance both personally and via your commercial entity.

Being a complex area of law this requires the attention of qualified lawyers to achieve success.

Our team of experts can act on your behalf, aspiring to improve your credit rating and maximize your likelihood to obtain loan approval with a lender.
