Disclosure of Information on Lead-Based Paint and/or Lead-Based Paint Hazards

Lead Warning Statement

Every purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The seller of any interest in residential real property is required to provide the buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the seller's possession and notify the buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase.

AGENCY DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

(to be signed before presentation of the offer)

There are different types of agency representation options that exist in real estate transactions. Below is a list of the representation options available. In addition a person may represent himself or herself in a transaction.

- $\underline{\textbf{SELLER EXCLUSIVE AGENCY}} \quad \textbf{When the property is listed for sale by one company (the Listing}$ Realtor) and the property is sold by a different real estate company (the Selling Realtor). It is the policy of the Listing Realtor and its Brokers and Salespersons to represent the Seller(s) exclusively.
- BUYER EXCLUSIVE AGENCY When the Selling Realtor assists you in writing your offer or purchase agreement and the property is listed with a different real estate company, it is the policy of the Selling Realtor and its Brokers and Salespersons to represent the Buyer(s) exclusively. If the Selling Realtor represents the Buyer(s) exclusively, the Selling Realtor and its Brokers and Salespersons may receive compensation for the transaction from the Listing Realtor pursuant to a cooperation agreement between the two companies.
- CONSENTUAL DUAL AGENCY
 - When a real estate company both lists and sales the property (the Listing Realtor and the Selling Realtor are the same company), it is the policy of the Company and its Brokers and Salespersons to represent both the Seller(s) and Buyer(s) as a Consensual Dual Agency. Please see the Consensual Dual Agency Agreement for further information.
 - When a real estate company assists you in writing your purchase agreement and the property is listed with the same company (the Listing Realtor and the Selling Realtor are the same company), it is the policy of the Company to represent both the Seller and Buyer as a Consensual Dual Agency. Please see the Consensual Dual Agency Agreement for further information.
