*Principles of Safeguarding
Suitable for Designated Safeguarding Leads*

LEVEL 3

This qualification is designed for people who have contact with children, young people or vulnerable adults in their working environment including voluntary work. It will teach you how to recognise the signs of abuse and neglect and what actions you can take to stop this from happening and occurring again in the future. The programme emphasises the importance of ensuring that safeguarding concerns are reported and acted on appropriately.

Successful candidates will be awarded a national

- Study the course via distance learning
- A combination of self-study and webinars
 - Guided by a qualified Trainer/Assessor
 - Distance learning resources included
 - Assessed via a professional discussion
 - Ofqual accreditation regulated qualification
(SUBJECT TO ASSESSMENT)

Course Duration

The qualification has 4 assigned guided learning hours (GLH) and 8 hours total qualification time (TQT). GLH indicates the number of contact hours that the learner will have with the trainer/assessor. TQT includes GLH but considers unsupervised learning and is an estimate of how long the average learner will take to achieve the qualification. It is beneficial for the learner to undertake additional independent learning for example, by doing research on the internet.

A range of Safeguarding subjects are covered including:

- Safeguarding legislation and guidance
- Making judgements
- Roles and responsibilities
- Dealing with and reporting of allegations and complaints
- Indicators of abuse or neglect
- Communication
- Sharing of information

Entry Requirements

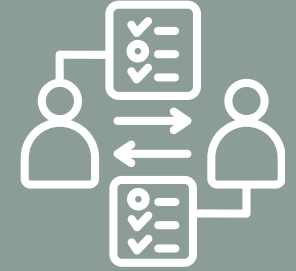

This qualification is available to learners aged 18 years or over. Learners must have the literacy skills to be able to read and self-learn the reference manual and additional resources.

In addition, the learner will need access to a computer with a reasonable internet connection in order to access the distance learning resources and communicate with the Trainer/Assessor

The qualification is assessed by a professional discussion with the Trainer/Assessor and evidenced by a recorded video call. The learner has a maximum of 60 minutes to complete the assessment. There is no grading of the assessment; learners pass or are referred.

Assessment

Certification

A Level 3 Award in the Principles of Safeguarding and Protecting Children, Young People or Vulnerable Adults will be issued to the learner, subject to successful assessment. The qualification does not have an expiry date, but refresher training and keeping up to date with changes to policies, procedures and new legislation through ongoing CPD is vital.
