The Friends of the Maud Marks Library is incorporated and a non-profit organization under 501(c)3. All contributions are tax deductible.

The Friends of the Maud Marks Library are community members dedicated to supporting the Maud Marks Library through fundraising and advocacy.

The Friends provide financial support for library programs, activities, and assets over and above the Harris County Public Library budget. All funds raised by the Friends directly benefit the Maud Marks Library and our community to support the enjoyment of our library and its resources.
