MORE ABOUT AEG TV STRATEGIC ALLIANCE PARTNERS

Dmack Enterprises and Funding Sources

Strategic Alliance

Owner, Donna Mckissack

DMACK Enterprises, the parent company of Entertainment Exchange of America (EEA), is a networking vehicle for established and Indie filmmakers, producers, directors, talent agents, sports figures, and fashion designers. With DMACK's Corporate structure in conjunction with EEA, we strategize and utilize progressive business models to successfully maximize the profit potential for independents and creatives through a streamlined business approach as we present to potential industry investors.

The Mission of DMACK Enterprises and EEA is to positively impact the professional trajectory of talented individuals whose work often goes overlooked, connecting them to influential leaders in the entertainment industry and professionals who possess the real connections needed to take their careers to the next level of exposure, support, and celebration.

ENTERTAINMENT EXCHANGE OF AMERICA (EEA)

FACTSHEET

The Entertainment Exchange of America (EEA) is a networking vehicle for established and Indie filmmakers and producers, directors, talent agents, writers, and financial advisers. Through the use of the EEA's Corporate structure we will strategize and utilize our progressive business model to successfully maximize the profit potential for independent film makers, musical artist and sports figures through a streamlined business approach. The EEA Consists of various departments that contribute to the company's overall mission and goals such as PR/Marketing, Music/Film/Sports Development, Global Sales, Business Affairs, Finance, Human Resource, and IT. These divisions represent the major departments within our privately held company. We will develop our presence across the continental USA, having Headquarters in the Southeastern Region and Offices throughout the Southern and Northern Regions.

The Board's activities are determined by the powers, duties, and responsibilities delegated to it or conferred on it by the bylaws as written. As EEA is a non-stock corporation with no general voting membership, the board will serve as the supreme governing body of the company consisting of equal parts as listed below to formulate the EEA:

- EGO Management – Mike "Mickbeats" Taylor, CEO/Owner
- DMACK Enterprises, LLC – Donna "DMACK" Mckissack, CEO/Owner

EEA is dedicated to serving our industry clients in all areas of film, television, radio, theater, music, the visual arts, literature and sports. Through involvement with and collaborations from Television Executives, Theater owner/managers, Musical Artists, Literature Authors, and Sports Figures and Agents. We will also consult with Corporation Board of Directors/CEOs, Financiers as Brand Ambassadors and/or Brokers. To strengthen our services, EEA has several Joint Ventures (JV), Strategic Partnerships and Collaborations to support our Associates.

Our Ognline states, "We Build Corporate Brands and Grow Careers".

EEA Corporation and EEA Regional Offices are governed by a Board of Directors (BoD); composed of the Founders of the Company (e.g. CEO, and COO); subcommittees consist of Vice Presidents, and CFO. EEA has great diversity in the corporate structure; we are organized as Divisions, Geographic, and a Matrix business.

EEA Consulting and Executive Producing Services

EEA Consulting offers an array of services to customers in the entertainment and corporate sector with a focus on cross-branding efficiency and effectiveness goals. These services include shared services, financial management, continuous process improvement, program management, and strategic planning support. Our team has the ability to provide critical shared services, continuous process improvement, financial management, and executive production/management support.

EEA Strategic Planning

EEA Consulting engages staff in strategic planning support to develop a strategic plan that addresses our client's organizational effectiveness by clearly and concisely providing a framework for future performance improvements and level sets client expectations.

Additional Strategic planning activities include:

- Assist in developing a plan of action by
- Provide facilitation services for strategic planning session with leadership
- Assess the internal and external environment to formulate a strategy
- Provide guidance and recommendations in the implementation of the strategy
- Recommend monitoring tools to assess the success of the planning session and the execution of the plan

Shared Services

Through our Executive Production, we support the planning, resourcing (investing), implementation, and optimization of shared services delivery models for clients by implementing leading practices to achieve cost savings for non-core, but business-critical, services. For the planning support of a shared services implementation, EEA Executive Consulting we aid in the analysis of alternatives and project/program management activities to enable clients to determine the most feasible methods for realizing standardized end-to-end processes, and successful industry alignments.

The primary elements of a shared services project can focus on one or more of the following functional areas: finance, strategy, production management and/or corporate expansion.

EEA Financial Management

EEA Consulting provides financial management solutions to support Producers and organizations during its formal Planning, Production, Budgeting, & Execution process. The primary means of this process is to control the allocation of resources and achieve the best mix of manpower, materiel equipment and support under tight budget restraints. EEA Consulting team focuses our services on audit readiness, portfolio prioritization, production cost estimation, and budget execution management. Professionals assisting clients with these activities have experience supporting clients in similar fashions and related certifications – such as Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Financial Manager (CFM) Continuous Process Improvement and Professional Management Engineers (PME).

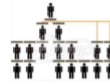

We utilize lean management methodologies when working with our Corporate customers, to enable an organization to systematically identify and eliminate waste in order to improve processes and satisfy customers with high quality, low cost, and on time services. Our solutions focus on making client operations more efficient and effective so they can better meet their organizational missions despite ongoing fiscal constraints and uncertainties within the corporate sector.

Program Management Support

Our team provides program and project management services to all engagements with skilled managers. Depending on the needs of the client and the nature of the projects, key project management services may include project initiation, planning, governance, communications, risk management, quality assurance/quality control, performance improvement, and project closing support. Professionals assisting clients with these activities have years of experience and proven success in managing like projects within the industry.

Our professionals supporting strategic planning contracts have deep organizational knowledge of the client agency and industry and have demonstrated an understanding of strategic planning and governance structure implementation.

The EEA Team

CEO and Managing Partner – Mike Taylor
Mike or "Mickbeats" as he is well known in the industry, has worked and continues to work as a high-powered Executive in one of the major Hollywood Studios. He brings 40 years of expertise in the entertainment sector and finance arena to the table. He leads the EEA Team with keen insight and direction as he keeps his thumb on the pulse of the industry.

Partner, President and COO – Donna Mckissack
Donne or "DMACK" as she is affectionately known, started out her career in Corporate America. Reaching the highest levels of Executive management for over 25 years, branched out into entertainment starting in the music industry. Serving as CEO of her own successful and thriving business for the past 10 years, she has managed careers, produced projects and now working alongside her partner as a "dream catcher" for Independents who wish to see their dreams come true.

Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) – Lauren Jones
Lauren or "Lo" as we call her, has over 15 years working in various Administrative positions. Progressively moving into Executive and C-Suite levels supporting CEOs of Fortune 500 companies. Her Company Elm Jay Communications provides all Administrative support to EEA as a strategic partner.

Chief Spiritual Officer (CSO) – Edward Mckissack and Tina Newman-Gaines (SO)
Ed is the Licensed and Ordained Pastor over Kinonisa Life Ministries. He serves alongside Tina a Licensed Minister as the Spiritual Leaders for EEA and they intercede on the Company's behalf; engaging in spiritual warfare and conducting weekly prayer meetings.

Other Team Members consist of:
