

A couple is seen from behind, sitting on a boat and looking out at a sunset over a coastal town. The man is on the left, wearing a light-colored shirt. The woman is on the right, wearing a white dress and a large straw hat. In the foreground, a wooden tray holds a variety of appetizers, including olives, bread, and seafood, along with two glasses of drinks. The background features a rugged coastline with buildings and mountains under a golden sky.
