

WILLING HELPERS' HOME FOR WOMEN, INC.
226 WEST MADISON AVENUE
JOHNSTOWN, NEW YORK 12095

Information for prospective residents:

We are a not-for-profit adult care home for women established in 1908. The home has twenty private bedrooms and numerous shared bathrooms. Private telephone and cable access is available in each room.

We serve three nutritious balanced meals daily, planned by a New York State certified dietician. Afternoon beverages and a planned evening snack is provided. We offer the following diets: Regular, no added salt, regular with ½ portion of regular dessert.

We have an in-house beautician and routine house visits by a physician and a podiatrist.

Transportation is available for off-site medical appointments. Residents may not have personal vehicles on site.

We have daily scheduled activities and outings. Regular religious services are available for all denominations.

Housekeeping, personal laundry and linen service is provided.

Twenty-four-hour supervision and assistance with medication management is provided by trained personal care staff.

We are a non-smoking alcohol free facility.

All of our residents get special attention from our in-house pet; "Maddy The Cat".