NATIONAL PHARAOHS SOCIETY

About Chapter Advisors

Chapter Advisors are vital to a healthy chapter. They should be available to the officers and members of the chapter and should offer guidance, when necessary, while allowing the students to develop their own ideas and leadership capabilities.

All Pharaohs chapters must have at least two Advisors and maintain two one Advisor per ten members. One advantage of having multiple Advisors is the ability to share Advisor responsibilities.

Requirements

Every active chapter must have at least two Chapter Advisors. One Advisor must be designated as the chapter's Lead Advisor (the primary liaison for Society communications and mailings).

Chapter Advisor(s) shall:

- be a faculty member or administrator at the school associated with the chapter;
- be considered a member of the chapter she/he sponsors (the Society induction fee is waived for Chapter Advisors);
- be designated as a Chapter Advisor by the school principal/administrator; and
- have a positive background check (unless waived by school principal/administrator).

Duties

Chapter Advisor duties include but are not limited to the following:

- Plan orientation for all chapter officers;
- Attend meetings of the officers and the chapter;
- Check the grade point averages for prospective members;
- Distribute promptly to the members any information that comes from the National Office;
- Supervise national, state, and local programs, activities, events, and initiatives for chapter;
- Encourage students to submit original work for possible publication in the Pyramid Blog and verify that it is their original work;
- Encourage students to attend the State and National Conferences;
- Encourage students to compete at the State and National Conferences;
- Encourage students to submit original work for possible presentation at the National Conference and verify that it is their original work;
- Encourage students to apply for scholarships, awards, and internships; and
- Store the chapter's records and provide continuity for the chapter from year to year.
