TELL CONGRESS: AMERICA ELECTS PRESIDENTS, NOT KINGS

The Supreme Court has declared that criminal law doesn't apply when you're Donald Trump – or any other president using the powers of the office. Presidents who use their official powers to commit crimes are now presumptively immune from criminal accountability – even after they leave office. That means a president could commit absolute atrocities in office – turning the Armed Forces against political opponents, using the Justice department to investigate or prosecute critics of the president, or worse – and as long as their actions are "official," they'll be immune from criminal prosecution. We cannot let this ruling stand – so we're calling on Congress to pass a constitutional amendment overturning it.

PROTECT THE PROTEST!

from Amnesty International: online petition

Throughout history, protest has been a powerful tool for change. But governments around the world are cracking down on protests and it must be protected. Add your voice to our global call to protect the protest and join our campaign today. Protest is a powerful force for change, and it's because of the bravery of those who speak out that a more just and equal world is possible. KEEP THE U.S. OUT OF FOREVER WARS!

from Move On

Donald Trump promised peace, yet he just started a war with Iran. This wasn't inevitable, it was a choice that will put U.S. military members at risk, kill innocent civilians, and has the ability to destabilize the lives of millions across the region.

Congress has the power to stop this! Sign the petition now to show that you don't support another senseless war in the Middle East. Add your name to the petition NOW!

NO MORE SECRET POLICE. NO MORE ICE!

from ACLU

Across America, a secret police force is operating in plain sight. ICE and other federal agents are throwing people into unmarked vans, lurking outside of schools, and attacking people in Home Depot parking lots. This secrecy spreads fear, enables abuse, and undermines our collective safety. Call on your state legislators to fight back against secret police tactics, or scan the QR code to take action.

ROSES ARE RED.
VIOLETS ARE BLUE.
THESE COMPANIES PROFIT FROM ICE SO WE ARE THROUGH.

Boycott Companies Supporting ICE from Third Act

Boycott: Amazon, AT & T, Citizens Bank, Comcast, Dell, FedEx, Home Depot, Lowe's and more.....

Enough is enough. While we wait for the Senate to decide whether or not to continue funding DHS and ICE, we're moving our money from companies that profit from these brutal institutions and we're letting their CEOs know, in very direct language, why.

Here's how you can join our movement to turn the heat up this No Kings Day—and beyond—to melt these companies profiting off of ICE. To take further action, such as easy online letter writing, scan the QR code below the article.

Step one: stop spending money at these companies! To do supports a company that facilitates the work of ICE. Enough said.

Submit two: Submit a letter here to the CEOs of the companies who hold major contracts with ICE, DHS, and Border Patrol telling them why you are boycotting them until they cut ties with these agencies—we've written a sample letter for you, but you should add your own stories and flourishes.

Step three: review the list of companies we're targeting below, and take as many steps as you can to disentangle your money from them—this might mean cutting up a credit card, finding a new cell phone service, or choosing to shop locally instead of using Amazon.

Step four: tell others about this boycott, continue to move your money away from bad banks, and take any of our other actions found on our Democracy Can't Wait guide.

IMPEACH DONALD TRUMP

from Free Speech for People, coverage from Newsweek

IMPEACH DONALD TRUMP PETITION REACHES 250,000 SIGNATURES

In the first year of Trump's second term, we've seen militarized ICE agents aggressively patrolling our streets, wrongfully detaining U.S. citizens and legal residents, and carrying out a record number of deportations. And the Trump administration has made it clear: They are only getting started. The hateful rhetoric of this administration paired with the violent tactics of ICE and Border Patrol are sowing fear into our communities and causing lasting damage to our country.

A petition urging that Congress begin impeachment proceedings against President Donald Trump be impeached has attracted more than 1,000,000 signatures, according to the nonprofit that initiated it.

PROTECT VOTING RIGHTS

from Common Cause

We REJECT this anti-voter power grab. Trump and congressional Republicans must abandon the SAVE America Act and any attempt to impose anti-voter restrictions by executive order. The Constitution gives Congress and the states – not the president – the power over our elections.

Stop this campaign to deny our votes. Senate Republicans have all but admitted defeat on their so-called "SAVE America Act" – a reckless scheme to stop married women, naturalized citizens, and anyone else they don't want voting from casting a ballot. But this fight isn't over. After failing to pressure Congress to pass the SAVE America Act, Trump is now reportedly trying to change our voting laws through executive fiat.

That's right. The exact same anti-voter restrictions that Congress seems likely to REJECT – like banning mail voting and making it costly and confusing to register to vote – could reportedly end up in a Trump executive order. It's a desperate attempt to deny millions of Americans their right to vote and avoid accountability at the ballot box this November. We can't let it fly. Let's show Trump and Congress just how many of us are paying attention and demanding they protect our freedom to vote. Add your name to our petition REJECTING this campaign to deny our votes >>
