

RETAIL THERAPY

Aficionados will confirm that Scottsdale is awash with top-notch shopping and dining, and the good news is it's all adjacent to The Westin Kierland. Jump on a shuttle at the porte cochere and head over to KIERLAND COMMONS or SCOTTSDALE QUARTER to find boutiques, jewelry, delectable dining, haute couture, and many other specialty shops. Best yet, resort guests who show their room keys to participating retailers and restaurants enjoy special discounts. Ask the resort concierge about the Key to the Commons and Key to the Quarter programs. Also nearby is HIGH STREET, where more dining, shopping, and good times can be found; and other fine stores such as STEVEN KRETCHMER, the renowned jeweler whose flagship store is now located on Scottsdale Road.

PERFECT COMFORT

Over at Scottsdale Quarter, check out The Sarah Asymmetric Maxi Dress at Calypso. Embrace soiree dressing in a Grecian-inspired asymmetric dress. A functional drawstring at the waist and neckline allows for a customized fit, while the tiered, faux-wrap, asymmetrical skirt adds dimension and flow. The neck tie is meant to sit on the left shoulder but can be positioned to front or back.

FRANK ISAAC

A magnificent necklace and ring pairing fashioned in 18-karat white gold, designed and manufactured by master jeweler Frank Isaac, whose Frank Isaac Jewelers is located in Kierland Commons. The necklace has a remarkable combination of 5.59 carats of Round Brilliant Fancy Yellow Diamonds, surrounded by the sparkle of 3.00 carats of traditional White Diamonds. All of the natural Fancy Yellow Diamonds selected for these custom designs were specially chosen for their intense color and vivid clarity, and only the finest white diamonds of pure transparent brilliance were carefully matched and meticulously fashioned for such an entrancing presentation.

THE SPIRIT OF JAZZ

The colorful spirit of jazz is awakened in this whimsical bracelet, part of the renowned Jazz collection by award-winning jewelry designer Steven Kretchmer. Conceived to represent musical elements in platinum, 18-karat gold, diamonds, and/or colored gemstones, each lively, custom-made piece evokes a playful "jazz swing feeling." Located just a few blocks away from the resort on the northeast corner of Scottsdale and Thunderbird roads, Steven Kretchmer's flagship store and design studio are home to the original patented Tension-Set™ collection, the famous magnetized Polarium™ line, and a tantalizing array of one-of-a-kind diamond and colored gemstone pieces.

JUST FOR LAUGHS

Just for laughs, head over to Phoenix's High Street, where the House of Comedy showcases the absolute best in live stand-up comedians from across the world. The comedians who perform here have been featured on Leno, Letterman, Kimmel, Conan, The Daily Show, Comedy Central, Last Comic Standing, HBO, and more. It's a night to remember ... with a smile.
