the Promo Note 10.18.26

I am promoting this little "save the world" project.

☺ $ 💗

Its main goal is to inspire everyone to live by this tiny sentence:

Just be your naturally helpful self to save the world from selfishness.

- To increase everyone's peace & prosperity infinitely faster than is now occurring.

This project is most powerfully conveyed in a few spoken and visual words. The other side explains it, + I'll answer your questions, + our website has chat. It is easy to show groups 1-3 minutes before meetings. Give this to their leader, asking to do that. Say "Everyone should get all the copies of this Note they want (you or they may supply those) to give out themselves, folded in half, the above half showing, to simplify it." Then summarize the other side, which mainly asks Media, Politics, Religion & AI to just put that sentence somewhere on their screens, even tiny.
