JustBeYourNaturallyHelpfulSelf.org

I am promoting this little "save the world" project.

Its main goal is to inspire everyone to live by this sentence:

Just be your naturally helpful self to save the world from selfishness.

- To increase everyone's peace & prosperity infinitely faster than is now occurring.

This project is best conveyed in a few spoken and visual words. The other side explains it, + I'll answer questions, + our website has chat. It is easy to show groups 1-3 mins. before meetings. Give this to their leader + ask to do that, + "Everyone should get all the copies of this Note they want (you or they may supply) to give out, folded in half, the top showing." Then sum up the other side, mainly asking Media, Politics, & Religion to put that sentence on their screens, even tiny.
