

Help Add the World's Missing Context™ to Save the Economy & thus the World from Selfishness™

Step 1: Post this note everywhere, tag media CEOs, influencers, leaders, organizations, etc. (first 60 usernames: ) inspiring them to put 3 words first on their screens:

Helpfulness Above All™

- Because:

Helping others the most you feel you can, at work and personally, is how you and EVERYONE* else ALREADY create your own greatest rewards, prosperity, and economy overall.

But since world leaders DO NOT promote helpfulness above all else, its OPPOSITE, SELFISHNESS (self-help that hurts others), ROBS the focus, rewards, & ECONOMY the world needs to afford to SOLVE ALL PROBLEMS, in relationships, work, politics, etc. & ALL bother & pain INFINITELY BETTER.

Step 2: Use my free online crowdsourced guide, Only the Most Helpful Words & Actions for Everyone™, even print it out for whole organizations! This is NOT about working harder to help others, but EASIER overall, to get the most rewards and prosperity for everyone, overall.

I apologize to everyone I have hurt by selfishly not promoting helpfulness above all else before now. – Tim Mossman

Donate to this on GoFundMe for printed copies of this note, even send to others who need it!

*Even "selfish" people. It's just not obvious they create most of their rewards this way, overall.
