To EVERYONE, and ESPECIALLY in the MOST INFLUENTIAL FIELDS of MEDIA, POLITICS, & RELIGION:

Just be your naturally helpful self to save the world from selfishness.

Please put that sentence somewhere on your screens, even tiny:

Just be your naturally helpful self to save the world from selfishness.

- Because helping others is how everyone creates value in their own and others' lives (mostly working, being a good neighbor, spouse, friend, etc.), boosting the economy, and everyone's peace and prosperity. That's why >99% of human behavior, overall, is helpful. But the <1% that is selfish (impatient self-help that hurts others), poisons the economy (like 1 drop of benzene poisons >2,000 gals. of water) and everyone's peace and prosperity.

So EVERYONE, screenshot + share this Promo Note™ to INSPIRE MEDIA, POLITICS, RELIGION, and ALL HUMANS to ALIGN ALL THEY SAY AND DO with THAT SENTENCE.

See our Free Online Guide™ for details, definitions, and tools to apply all this in all situations + the vast verifiable evidence behind this work. ➡
