

To the leader, I request a minute
at the start of your meeting to say:

"I am promoting a little 😊💰💖 'Save the World' 😊💰💖 😊💰💖 project." 😊💰💖

"It's fairly self-explanatory on the other side of this note."

This project is most powerfully conveyed through a few written and spoken words.

I will give everyone a copy of this note folded in half, above end up, to focus their first impression, then sum up: "This project is to inspire media, politics, religion, everyone, to promote it on their screens and embrace it in all they say and do," take a question or two, then say "use the chat icon on the website." - And to model that for those who want to promote this to groups too.
