

This project is to help humanity mature from being and living relatively tiny and highly toxic, divisive, and dominating

into ever greater universal value-creation. From:

selfishness ⇒ to ⇒ helpfulness impatient, shortsighted, ⇒ to ⇒ patient, demand-it-now visionary + later, greater rewards

authoritarian ⇒ to ⇒ democracy 1 man dominates shared all power overall power relatively few rich people ⇒ to ⇒ everyone's everprofiteering growing peace & prosperity.

I propose the most vivid evidence of this maturation is that in just the past 45 years, as a world, we have reduced extreme poverty by over 50%, due mostly to the supreme value-creating power of democracies building and spreading their wealth through commerce and aid. - Which has helped most of those hundreds of millions of formerly desperately impoverished, starving people get on their feet and start contributing pricelessly to their local, and our global, economy.

And for you, like the vast majority of people who live in democracies, to be so generally unaware of that truly mind-blowing reality, is evidence that democracies are not all-wise or by any means perfect. They are messy as hell. Just look at the U.S. now. Then ask your phone for verifiably-evidenced comparisons of the profitability of democracies to all other forms of government. – As well as the happiness of their respective populations.

And this is NOT to demonize you, China, Russia, India, Turkey, Brazil, Hungary, and other countries who are led more by authoritarians or are leaning that way. You are all amazing, infinitely helpful people. But on average, again, democracies are 20%+ more profitable (/year GDP) than your more selfishly authoritarian led countries are, AND THEIR PEOPLE ARE MUCH, MUCH HAPPIER. And EVERY 5 YEARS, THAT'S ~100% MORE PROFITABLE, 20 YEARS ~2000% MORE PROFITABLE. And likely that much happier. And see my free online guide below for verifiable evidence, or ask your phone.

So a big part of this project's purpose is to help inspire your authoritarian leaders to capitalize infinitely more on HOW your countries got so great, in order to make them infinitely greater: Through YOUR HELP TO EACH OTHER and THE WORLD. So in the simplest terms, I propose that to do that, as all good parents teach their toddlers, they need to learn to share with others. Share power with others, thru democracy. And they and everyone else there will be infinitely richer and happier overall. – Including your leaders, ultimately. And to get through that painful growing process with as much success and as little pain as possible, I propose that you just have one mutually helpful dialog at a time, using my Free Online Guide™, below. And sometimes that can seem virtually impossible. So if you would like me to lead you through some of those dialogs, please let me know. Thank you!
