

CASTING BRIEF

A geeky general manager must enlist the help of his eclectic employees to save their out-of-date arcade from its impending doom of being sold to a major lingerie company.

This is not a sitcom. It's not your typical every day box cutter comedy, but rather a cinematic, comedic experience for online streaming. It's wacky, weird, loveable yet strangely relatable. Based on a true story, real people and what was once a real venue, Galactic Circus will be a reprise on its glory days (or not so glory days).

We are looking to cast actors who are able to have a long-term commitment to multiple seasons, mini series and skits. Strong character development and improvisational skills are also a plus. We are currently casting for lead and recurring roles.

Auditions will be held between January – March 2020.

To apply for a role, please email your online profile/CV, headshot and show reel to: producer@toprockproductions.com

Please included in the subject line:
"GC Auditions – CHARACTER NAME – Your Name"
Eg GC Auditions – ESPEN – Tristan Braines

More information will be provided on application.

STACEY CHIN (late 20's, early 30's)

Coordination Manager

Stacey is ambitious, studious, hard working and full of potential. With a strict Asian upbringing and degree in statistics and analytics, Stacey's role as a "Coordination" manager and Herbert's 2IC is putting her skills to waste. She deals well with numbers, facts and food. But that's not all that she's good at. She knows how to handle staff, customers and superiors. Deep down she does like people and select staff, and does appreciate it when they come to her for advice and to rack her brain for knowledge, but she doesn't wear her feelings on her sleeve.

MADYSON JOYCE MADLANGBAYAN (early – mid 20's)

Senior Staff

Madyson is an easy-going, social butterfly and senior staff member at GC. Her bubbly personality mixed with a feisty nature, prankster and pun-lover makes her one of the most liked employees there. She knows the ins and outs that make GC tick and how to wrap the guys around her little finger. Shifts are always better when she has her BFFs, Gracie and Espen with her. To her, GC is her family and playground. Herbert and Stacey are like her dysfunctional parents, Gracie her twinnie and Espen's her annoying brother.

(Ethnicity: Filipino/half Filipino)

ESPEN ARGUS (early – mid 20's)

Senior Staff

Espen is an ambitious procrastinator with slight OCD tendencies. He carries a bottle of hand sanitizer everywhere he goes and although he ends up being picked on by Madyson and Gracie, he still considers them his best friends. He comes from a well off Danish/South African and a successful Scottish/Australian family. To him Galactic Circus is his chance to break free from the impending doom of taking over the family business. He aspires to be like the super strict, Stacey but with a cool, fun side, which he is learning more about from his best friends. He has been trying to push for a managerial position for a while, but feels frustrated by an incompetent and big talker, Herbert.

GRACIE O'NEIL (early – mid 20's)

Senior Staff

Gracie wants the best for everyone, but at times does enjoy being a bit cheeky with her best friend, Madyson. Indecisive, curious, gullible and naïve, Gracie is not the leadership type, but her positive outlook always lets her see the best in people. She's also often known as Madyson's shadow and right hand gal. Not naturally devious, but will go along with Madyson's plan in the name of loyalty. Although perceived as ditzzy, she has a lot of quirky, hidden talents e.g. trained Pilates instructor and animal whisperer.

CHRISTINA (early – mid 20's)

Senior Staff/Step-Up Manager

Christina has relatives in the Australian-Italian Mafia and has seen more than she should. She often gets her way, without having to do much. For some reason, people just tend to help her out before she can even finish a sentence. She only speaks when there's something worth saying. She will only do something if she believes it is worth doing. She has her "eating" days and her "smoking" days. Her closest friend at GC is Tom, as they usually work the laser tag shift together. She's straight to the point and has a "different" sense of humour. We're still trying to find her soft spot.
