Welcome to Reedley!

Welcome to friendly Reedley, California. Named after wheat baron Thomas Law Reed, Reedley is known as "The World's Fruit Basket" because more fresh fruit is grown and shipped from here than any other place in the world. Situated along the Kings River, Reedley is a vibrant and sophisticated city. It is a popular stop for both national and international tourists visiting Kings Canyon and Sequoia National Parks.

With a blend of quiet residential neighborhoods, bustling commerce, award-winning educational institutions, unique cultural events, active civic clubs, a plethora of religious organizations and exciting recreational opportunities, Reedley is a unique place to live, work, study, visit, and play. Whether you are a long-time resident, passing through, or considering a move to town, Reedley has something to offer everyone.

COMMUNITY FACTS

- ◆ Reedley was named for T.L. Reed, a Civil War hero and 19th century farmer who settled here to provide wheat for Gold Rush miners. He built the town's first hotel, livery stable and blacksmith shop. He donated land for the area's first railroad station site and school; he helped build the first church, and lobbied to build a dam on the Kings River. A granite monument stands in his honor at Reed and Manning Avenues.
- ◆ Ethnic and religious diversity have been a source of great pride in this city for well over a century.
- ◆ The opening scene in the 1989 movie "Roadhouse," starring Patrick Swayze was filmed in Reedley.

Reedley History

For hundreds of years before the arrival of white settlers, the San Joaquin Valley was home to a group of Native Americans known as the Yokuts. The Yokuts were a peaceful group, who lived along the Kings River in villages where they hunted, fished, and gathered their food.

The first white settlement, in the area that we now call Reedley, was established by the James Smith family in 1855. The Smiths operated a ferry service and hotel on the east bank of the Kings River, near today's Olson Avenue Bridge, until 1874.

In 1884, ten years after the ferry and hotel closed, a Civil War veteran from Ohio named Thomas Law Reed, arrived with his family from Yolo County to farm wheat. Reed was encouraged to move to the Reedley area by the 76 Land and Water Company. He was impressed by the possibilities of irrigation and purchased land from the company. Soon he was farming 12,000 acres between the Kings River and Smith Mountain.

In 1888, the Southern Pacific Railroad built a branch line through the area. Reed deeded a half-interest in a 360-acre town site to the railroad and in return they established a depot. The railroad named the new town "Reedley" in honor of Reed.

The rich land surrounding Reedley was dry a good part of the year, but the river made irrigation possible. Canals were built and during the 1890s wheat growing began to fade. Farmers turned to the more profitable work of growing grapes and tree fruit. The attraction was immediate, and settlers arrived from all parts of the world. Vineyards and orchards flourished. In time, Reedley became known as, "The World's Fruit Basket."

In 1913, twenty-five years after the town's founding, Reedley was incorporated. Today, Reedley is Fresno County's fourth largest city with a population of 26,087 – all because of the vision and hard work of early day pioneers, and of the many who followed.

ST. LA SALLE SCHOOL (Private K-8)

St. La Salle, a Catholic school founded by the Christian Brothers, provides a Christ-centered education in which children may grow in relationship with and respect for God, self, others, and the environment.

The school fosters a student-centered educational environment. They believe education means teaching the whole person. Each student is led to develop spiritually, morally, socially, emotionally, intellectually, and physically in a spirit of faith, hope and love.

Students are called to be active member in building a community of faith through participation in prayer, liturgies, sacraments, daily catechesis, and service.

ST. LA SALLE FACTS

St. La Salle School believes that community is the heart of Christian education, not simply as a concept to be taught but as reality to be lived. The religious education of the children is not perceived as the responsibility of the school solely, but of the faith community at large.
