

Jack Summerall Community Center, Inc.
A Legacy Empowered for Change
Since 1970

MISSION STATEMENT

To improve, advance and empower the Appling County community through educational, social awareness, cultural, technical and financial programs that enrich and nourish the lives of residents and that honor the legacy of family, the foundation of the community.

ABOUT

In 1970, descendants of ancestral parents Jack and Mariah Summerall shared a vision to honor their legacy in Baxley where they arrived as slaves. On August 9, 1999, that the Jack Summerall Community Center, Inc. was formally established as a 501c3 organization. The Corporation's flagship initiative is the forthcoming Jack Summerall Community Center which will be instrumental in its mission to empower citizen, community and family for a better future.

Through business and community programs in education, health, culture, finance and technical awareness. JSCC executes innovative solutions that help build better lives, healthy families and enhance and transform the quality of life for residents of Appling County. The Corporation is grounded in its commitment to help promote health choices to leave a living legacy for families and ultimately build a stronger community.

Jack Summerall Community Center Board of Directors

President

David Hartwell, III

Executive Director

LaWanda Jackson, Esq.

Executive Secretary

Chelsye J. Williams Burrows

Treasurer

Diann R. McNeil

Members of the Board

Judy Brown
Wally Burgess
Patricia Collier
Edith Gibbs
Dr. Ricky Jackson
Ime Ntekpere
Angela N. Stevens
Margie Summerall-Leonard
Felita Turner

Jack Summerall Community Center, Inc. Programs and Engagement Initiatives

Jack Summerall Community Center, Inc.

The JSCC is in the process of building a state-of-the art facility in Baxley, Georgia that will present a diverse program of recreational, educational and business services for residents of Appling County.

Jack Summerall Community Center Memorial Park

Erected in 2012, the Jack and Mariah Summerall Memorial Park is a landmark park in Baxley, Georgia developed to serve family, loved ones and the Appling County community at large with a place of beauty, peace and enjoyment.

Jack and Mariah Summerall Legacy Lecture Series

A lecture series focused on topics that address the needs of the community and help promote self-sufficiency and financial freedom. Programs that have been presented, include

Jack and Mariah Summerall Specialty Merchandise

The JSCC produces a variety of unique promotional merchandise that showcases the legacy of the Jack Summerall family including, tee shirts, cookbooks and souvenir plates.

Make a Difference - Donate

The Jack Summerall Community Corporation is grateful to our network of generous donors and volunteers that share our mission of improving lives by promoting a philosophy of self-empowerment and respect while uplifting the Jack Summerall family legacy.

Please join us in our mission. Donations may be sent to:

Jack Summerall Community Center, Inc.

P.O. Box 723394

Atlanta, Georgia 31139

Make checks payable to Jack Summerall Community Center, Inc

Or via Zelle at Jacksummerallcorp@gmail.com. Please note what the contribution is for.

Donations are tax deductible.

For more information contact our Treasurer Diann McNeil at lenmore31404@yahoo.com