

Believe
Equine Rescue
& Rehabilitation center
Non-profit Horse Rescue

Adoption/Long term Foster Agreement

Date: _____

Horse: _____

Caregiver(s): _____

cannot sell, transfer, breed, slaughter, trade, adoption/foster Horse in agreement. For any reason horse is not wanted or cannot care for, must be returned to Believe Equine Rescue.

If horse becomes ill or injured and is suggested to be euthanized by a licensed veterinarian. Believe Equine Rescue should be contacted and allow a representative to discuss with veterinarian. If animal is suffering and a representative is not available, euthanasia should be performed. A letter from veterinarian should be emailed or sent to rescue with diagnoses and date of euthanasia was performed. Remains of Horse in adoption/foster agreement shall be disposed of by caregiver according to state law. Remains can also be buried at Believe Equine Rescue and Rehabilitation 140 Faulkner Lane, Roseboro, North Carolina 28382

A donation was made $_____ and is a non-refundable donation, with the exception of horse in adoption/foster horse in agreement to be returned to Believe Equine Rescue within 7 days of adoption. Donation will be returned minus a 10% administration fee in cash, money order, PayPal or electronic transfer after 30 days of horse being returned in condition it was received to:

Believe Equine Rescue and Rehabilitation, a North Carolina nonprofit horse rescue located at 140 Faulkner Lane, Roseboro, North Carolina 28382

Transport costs for a return horse is the adopter's responsibility, and also may be deducted from the refund if adopter doesn't provide their own safe transport. _____

If Horse in adoption/foster agreement needs medical attention, cost of veterinary care will be deducted from donation that was made. _____

Believe Equine Rescue has the permission to confiscate Horse in adoption/foster agreement if not being cared for, abused, abandoned by caregivers or anyone associated. _____

Caregivers are responsible for the cost, care and health of Horse in adoption/foster agreement. _____

Believe Equine Rescue or affiliates will not be legally responsible or any injuries, illnesses or death resulting from the adoption of any equines. _____

Believe Equine Rescue and Rehabilitation Center
140 Faulkner Lane
Roseboro, North Carolina 28382
(704) 307-3317

Believe Representative Initial, Date