Living Well in the Community Starts Thursday, March 20, 2025

Living Well in the Community (LWIC)

welcomes any person with a disability 18 years or older who has a desire to set personal goals that can improve their quality of life. This free ten-week, in-person weekly workshop helps participants gain valuable skills that promote living well physically, intellectually, emotionally, spiritually, and socially. Topics include goal setting, healthy communication, eating well, and more.

When: 11:00am to 1:00pm every Thursday beginning March 20 through May 29. Attend all ten weeks and receive a gift card!

Where: Hamilton County Developmental Disabilities Services Support Center, 1520 Madison Road, Cincinnati, 45206 (enter main door)
