

KAYLEIGH'S LAW: LIFETIME NO-CONTACT INJUNCTIONS

What is a Lifetime No-Contact Injunction?

Victims of certain felony crimes that occurred in Arizona may be eligible for a court order prohibiting a defendant from contacting them for their lifetime under A.R.S. § 13-719.

Am I Eligible for a Lifetime No-Contact Injunction?

To obtain a lifetime no-contact injunction, the following conditions must be met:

- There must be a qualifying conviction.
- The conviction must include at least one:
 - Dangerous offense as defined by A.R.S. § 13-105
 - Serious offense or violent or aggravated felony as defined by A.R.S. § 13-706(F)
 - Sexual offense as set forth in A.R.S. § 13-1401 to 13-1428, or
 - Sexual exploitation of a child offense as set forth in A.R.S. § 13-3551 to 13-3562
 - Strangulation (a form of aggravated assault) as set forth in A.R.S. § 13-1204(B)

Preparatory offenses (attempt, solicitation, conspiracy, and facilitation) involving the crimes listed above are eligible for the lifetime injunction.

How do I obtain a Lifetime No-Contact Injunction?

A lifetime no-contact injunction may be requested directly from the court by a victim or an attorney on behalf of the victim.

A lifetime no-contact injunction can be obtained by:

- Preparing and submitting the following forms to the Clerk of the Superior Court in the jurisdiction where the crime occurred:
 - Petition for Lifetime No-Contact Injunction
 - Confidential Victim Information Sheet

Forms are available at: www.azcourts.gov/selfservicecenter/Lifetime-No-Contact-Injunctions/Lifetime-Injunction-Forms

Once the court issues the lifetime no-contact injunction, it must be served before it goes into effect. The injunction is not in effect until it has been served on the defendant.

How do I get my Lifetime No-Contact Injunction Served on the Defendant?

Arizona law requires that Arizona law enforcement for the city in which the defendant resides must serve the lifetime no-contact injunction. A.R.S. § 13-719(D). There is no provision for service on defendants residing outside of Arizona; a process server must be used at the victim's expense.
