I love the month of June and not just because June is my birthday month, although that is a big part of it. Even if you can't figure out how you reached your current, too advanced birthday age, and I can't, birthdays are fun. Who doesn't like cake and ice cream, balloons and presents and everyone singing in off-key harmony? As long as I don't have to sing the response to "How Old Are You?", I'm fine with all of it.

June is also the traditional month for weddings, although I read somewhere December has eclipsed June as a preferred bridal month. Early summer held up for millennia as the most desirable time for a wedding for a couple of reasons. In ye olden times people did not bathe as frequently as we do today. Historians cite an annual, just one, bath a year for most folks. Summer flowers helped cover the inevitable gamey aroma of the bride and groom and their guests. Also, the practice of an annual bath in June with soap made of animal fat and wood ash for those who could afford such luxury, was undoubtedly a more comfortable activity in warm weather than in the depths of winter.

My parents were married in June of 1938, with the benefits of modern hygiene, and the dubious benefit of Great Depression prices. My mother's wedding dress cost $19.00 and their chicken dinner reception in the church basement was similarly frugal. Between my birthday, Mom and Dad's anniversary, and Father's Day, we looked forward to a month of festivities each year in June.

Unfortunately, another anticipation of June when I was a kid was the yearly arrival of June bugs. The large, heavy bodied beetles showed up every year just when the lure of a patio, ballgame, picnic, or any outdoor activity beckoned. They don't bite or pose a danger to humans, but if you've ever been dived bombed by a June bug it's one of those life experiences you don't forget. June bugs don't aim for humans with evil intent, but given their big, awkward bodies, they aren't the best fliers in the insect world. Think a zeppelin attempting aerial maneuvers.

This year, many areas of the country are dealing with the return of the cicada invasion, which also shows up around June, albeit only every 13 to 17 years. For most folks who live in heavily infested areas, repeat appearances even every 13 to 17 years are way too often.

Cicadas and June bugs are only distantly related. Both are beetles, but beyond that the main trait they share is their large size. While neither one would win a beauty pageant, except in the entomology world, cicadas are best described as the "ugly stepsisters" to June bugs. They are big. They are very noisy. They leave smelly carcasses and tons of crunchy outer shells and while they don't bite they can pee on you. True. Look it up.

A writer friend is one of the few who appreciates them. "I am obsessed with the cicadas!" she said in a Facebook post. "We must have several hundred thousand just in our yard. I've always been a bug person – I have no idea why . . ."

I have no idea why either. I'm just grateful we don't have a ton of them here in Bandera County.

And I'm still in love with June. You should be, too. A month with birthdays, brides, and bugs has something for everyone. Welcome, June – happy to see you again, and see all of you in July!

Funny Bone

Did you hear about the dog who wears a swimsuit? Apparently, it looks quite fetching.

Why don't seashells take baths? Because they wash up on the beach.

What do you get when you cross an elephant and a fish? Swimming trunks.

What happens when ice cream gets angry? It has a meltdown.

Did you hear about the sunflower that was excited for summer? It wet its plants.

Where do boats go when they're sick? To the dock.

What do you call an anxious mosquito? A jitterbug.

How many blueberries can you grow on a bush? All of them.

What did the tree say when summer finally arrived? What a re-leaf.

What kind of sandals do frogs wear? Open-toad.

Why do bananas wear sunscreen? Because they peel.

Why did the watch go on vacation? To unwind.

What do sheep do on nice summer days?

Go to a baa-baa-cue.

Where do ants go for summer vacation?

Frants!

What do frogs like to drink on a hot summer day?

Croak-o-cola.

HEY, WHAT'S HAPPENING?

By Lisa Crawford (Activities Director)

Well just as expected it's here. The HEAT! Like an unwelcome guest that never leaves. So, what do we do? Indoor activities, as much as possible. Let's get right to it.

MUSIC: Cowboy Capital Opry June 4th. Doors open at 6:30 and music starts at 7:00 p.m. Our guest this month will be Homer Whisenant. He does some great old real country music. Don't miss it. $10 at the door.

George Ensle Concert: On Saturday, June 15th we are so proud to have George Ensle in concert here at the Silver Sage. His performances are filled with wit, wisdom, grit and always hope, accompanying his edgy vocals with intricate fingerstyle guitar, resonator, and keyboard. Doors will open at 6:30 and music will start at 7:00. Tickets are $10 each and we are currently taking prepaid reservations. This is a BYOB event. Please contact me for more information or reservations.

BUS TRIPS AND LOCAL MEET UPS: The Exotic Resort Zoo Tour Monday, June 3rd, the bus will leave from the center at 8:00 a.m. $17.95 for seniors 60 and up. This is the third and final trip to this cool place until next spring. This has been our most popular bus trip to date. With so many wanting to go, I had to add this third trip. If you missed it this year, be sure to watch the calendar starting next February and March as we will do this again.

Mac & Ernie's Roadside Grill Thursday, June 6th. The bus will leave the center at 10:30 a.m. Yes, we do this one every month. If it ain't broke, don't fix it. The food is truly perfect every time. If you have some other suggestions, I am always looking for new ideas.

JoAnn's Fabrics, Olive Garden & Michael's Tuesday, June 11th. The bus will leave the center at 9:00 a.m. Space will be very limited on this trip as the first two rows will be designated for our mobility challenged and the single seat will be reserved to lock walkers in place. If you have any questions about this, feel free to call me anytime at the Silver Sage.

Bumdoodler's & Rock Box Theater Live Radio Show. Wednesday, June 12 the bus will leave the center at 3:45 p.m. and head for an early dinner and pie at Bum-doodler's in Kerrville and then on to the Rock Box Theater in Fredericksburg for the SongwriterTX FREE live radio show. If you want to tune in just go online to <https://jambroadcasting.com/radio/buck/> or tune in on your radio to 99.1 the Buck. You may or may not be able to tune in on your radio depending on where you live. This month's show will be so great with the guest performers being Taylor Pie of the Poco Seco fame and Bobby Boyd one of Bandera's own home town boys.

AMC Movie Theater in Boerne, Tuesday, June 18th will be our monthly trip to the movies. As soon as movies and times are posted on the website, I will send out a text to everyone who signs up letting you know what movie has been chosen and what time we will leave the center. CONTINUED ON THE NEXT PAGE...

WRITER'S GROUP: If you are or want to be a writer, come join our group to discuss ideas and all things writing. Led by author Mary Schenk, this free group is as educational as it is a source for your creative soul. The group meets the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at 1:00 p.m.

WATERCOLOR PAINTING WITH SHELLY: This is not a class, but an event. Shelly Swift will guide you through a beautiful watercolor painting you can take home with you at the end of each session. Cost is $6 per person and covers the cost of all supplies. This month the watercolor painting will take place on Friday, June 21st and 28th and both will be at 12:30 p.m.

IN-HOUSE MOVIE: Thursday, June 27th at 1:30 p.m. we will show the movie Megan Leavey in the dining room. The true-life story of Megan Leavey, a young Marine corporal whose unique discipline and bond with a military combat dog saved many lives during her deployment in Iraq. Assigned to clean up the K-9 unit after a disciplinary hearing, Leavey starts to identify with Rex, a particularly aggressive dog that she trains. Over the course of their service, Megan and Rex complete more than 100 missions until an improvised explosive device injures both, putting their fates in jeopardy.

EXERCISE: We offer Yoga with Willie on Monday mornings at 10:00 ($10), Stretch and Strengthen with Ida on Tuesdays at 10:30 ($8), and free self-led video exercise on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings at 8:00. You are also invited to join the Silver Sage walking group on Mondays and Wednesdays at 8:00 a.m. at the city park entrance across from the skate park. Pull in and turn right and you'll see a couple of cars parked there. Mine is the blue Ford Edge. Everyone walks at their own pace and all are welcome. Please check the calendar as some dates are left off for bus trips or other events.

I hope you will find your place here with us soon, whether it's for lunch, painting, exercise classes, entertainment, or bus trips. You are welcome.
