dwbasics"

Does every season of the year have special food attached to it or is it just me? I have written about pumpkin spice in the fall, the aromas and flavors of Thanksgiving, the spicy goodness of gingerbread at Christmas and other toothsome treats throughout the year. February is no exception.

If you're expecting an ode to chocolate ala Valentine's Day, however, you'll have to wait. Something arrives in Bandera County before our annual homage to Cupid. It's that purple, green, and gold celebration we call Cowboy Mardi Gras. If ever there was a culinary monument to excess it is this pre-Lenten party when everyone one throws caution to the wind and chows down on hearty fare like gumbo, jambalaya, crawfish, etouffee, red beans and rice, muffuletta, beignets, all set to a zydeco beat.

Once you've OD'd on all the rich food, there's another Mardi Gras tradition to finish off a meal – King Cake. The custom of eating King Cake goes back centuries and is tied to the commemoration of Epiphany, January 6th (12th Night), the date the Church remembers the Wise Men and their gift bearing visit to the baby Jesus. It's also where the custom of hiding a tiny baby figure inside the cake originated. The first person to find the baby, presumably without breaking a tooth, becomes king or queen for the day, can look forward to luck and prosperity, and gets the honor of hosting the next Mardi Gras party and providing the next King Cake.

The sweet yeast dough cakes are undeniably enticing with a unique oval shape and the addition of colorful sparkling sugar in the traditional purple, green, and gold colors of the season. What is inside these cakes is equally intriguing. Most start off with a standard cinnamon crumble filling, but from that base the possibilities are endless. Varieties of cream cheese fillings, lemon curd, fruit, Bavarian creams, whatever your imagination and taste buds suggest is okay.

The more recipes I looked at, the more determined I got. I was going to make a King Cake! Sure, I could buy one from a bakery, online or from the grocery store, but why? I've been baking sweet yeast bread in the form of German stollen since my youth. It's fussy; it's messy; it's very time consuming . . . I digress. The point is, I've made breads like this before. Sort of. Besides, how bad can something that's loaded with butter, sugar, eggs, gooey filling, and more of the same turn out?

I wish I could give a final review of the result, but I haven't actually made the cake yet. I'm still gathering ingredients and looking for a plastic baby Jesus. The plan is to bring my creation to our Writers Group here at the Silver Sage on February 13th. I've discovered food is a popular motivator for my writers and a party here and there is fun. So if you're interested in how writers work – and eat – join us and find out if I get a successful King Cake to the table.

There's always the HEB bakery department as a backup and rather cleverly on my part, Valentine's Day is the same week. Chocolate candies and heart shaped cookies are easy. But I can already taste that cake. I'm thinking a blueberry-lemon cream filling . . . Happy February eating!

"Why shouldn't you trust a pastry chef on Valentine's Day?" "Because he'll dessert you."

"What do you give your Valentine in France?" "A big quiche."

"What do you tell a pig on February 14?" "Happy Valen-swine's Day!"

"What did the tortoise say on Valentine's Day?" "I turt-ally love you."

"How did the squirrel get his Valentine's attention?" "He acted like a nut."

How do you keep a jewelry store save on Valentine's Day?" "You locket."

"What do you call sweets that can keep a beat?" "Candy rappers."

What do you call a romance that starts at the aquarium?" "Guppy love."

"Why should you date a goalie?" "He's a keeper."

"What did the painter tell his girlfriend?" "I love you with all my art."

"What did the man with the broken leg tell his Valentine?" "I have a crutch on you."

"What do you write in a slug's Valentine's Day card?" "Be my Valen-slime!"

"What did the paper clip say to the magnet?" "I find you very attractive." How do vampires know if they had a successful Valentine's Day?

If it's love at first bite.

HEY, WHAT'S HAPPENING? By Lisa Crawford (Activities Director)

Live your life and forget your age!

The Cowboy Capital Opry guest this month is Byron Zipp. You have probably seen him playing fiddle in bands all round the Texas Hill Country, but did you know he also sings and plays guitar? I know for a fact he's a great fiddle player because he played with me for quite a while, but I have never heard him sing or play guitar. I'm super excited because I have been told that he's really good. Join us on Tuesday, February 6th in the Great Room. Doors open at 6:30 and music starts at 7:00. 100% of your $10 entrance fee goes to help fund our Bandera County Meals on Wheels program. All our musicians are volunteering their time and talents to this great cause, and we appreciate them greatly. We hope you do as well.

MEET UPS - Our MEET UP events have been going really great. I'm so thrilled with the amount of participation. This month we are going back to the Hen's Nest on Friday, February 2nd at 10:30 a.m. We will MEET at the restaurant. Our second MEET UP will be a visit to the Bandera Natural History Museum on Tuesday, February 27th. We will MEET at the museum at 12:40 p.m. and they have graciously offered FREE entrance to our group of up to 20 people age 65 and over. For this reason, we will need an accurate head count and it is absolutely necessary to sign up in advance. If you are not signed up, you will not be considered part of our group. I will bring the sign-up sheet with me when we meet at the museum. Be sure to get your name on the list early as I'm sure it will fill up quickly. Please don't be late. If you have a suggestion for a good MEET UP place in Bandera, I'm all ears.

BUS TRIPS - Our first bus trip this month is to see the movie ARGYLLE at the AMC Movie Theater in Boerne. We will leave the center at 11:30 so plan to eat beforehand or at the theater. The movie is a matinee so will be $5.59 plus a $5 fee for the bus trip.

Wednesday, February 7th HEB in Kerrville.

Thursday, February 8th we will finally take a trip out to Mac & Ernie's Roadside Grill in Tarpley. They've been featured on the Food Network Show Guy Fieri's Diners Drive-Ins and Dives. You don't want to miss this trip.

Monday, February 12th we will try again for the Lost Maples Café Pie Run. Last month it was icy on the scheduled day, so we had to cancel. Those who were previously on the list have been given first opportunity to sign up again. There will be very limited space, so sign up early.

Tuesday, February 20th we're going to Heavy's BBQ in Hondo. I've wanted to take y'all there for a while, and I finally got it on the calendar. I thought about combining this trip with the Walmart trip but thought better of it since the Walmart shoppers usually have quite a few purchases and that would limit space and crowd everyone. Wednesday, February 21st Walmart in Hondo.

The last trip of the month will be the Boerne AMC Movie theater to hopefully see Ordinary Angels. They have not listed the times it will be showing on the website as of yet and probably won't until the Wednesday before. That's how they work unfortunately, which makes it hard for me to determine an absolute time and date. Their website does have it listed as an upcoming movie on February 23rd, So, I feel confident we will get to see it, but if you sign up be prepared to be flexible on the day and time. I will do a mass text to everyone who signs up and give you the exact day and time as soon as possible.

All bus trips are subject to change. Please call the Silver Sage the day before if you have any questions. All bus riders must be able to get on and off the bus without any assistance. There is a $5 per person non-refundable fee to ride the bus which is due at the time you sign up. Please give your payments directly to Lisa. If Lisa is not available, please give it to Autum or Jerry and ask them to put your name and what trip you are paying for attached to the payment and ask for a receipt.

Join us at the Silver Sage for one of our fun events! See the full Calendar of Events at silversage.org
