VaccinateBandera.org was born as an initiative to protect our most precious citizens of Bandera County, you readers. Art Crawford saw a need in his Community - the lack of access to Covid-19 vaccines even as they’re free and widely available - and an opportunity to fulfill it. Well, you all know what happens when Art Crawford sees a problem and nobody else offering any solutions. He applied for Round 1 of the Texas Vaccine Outreach and Education Grant and went right to work building our team.

SILVER SAGE APPROVED FOR ROUND 2 OF THE TEXAS VACCINE AND OUTREACH GRANT

Round 2 of the Texas Vaccine Outreach and Education Grant is a 1-year long initiative that will focus on education and outreach to demographics with lower Covid-19 vaccination rates such as our communities of color and families with children. The Silver Sage has hired four new employees for Round 2- Anna Montague, Rebeca Gibson, Karla Presa, and Graciela (Chela) Dubbs. They will be engaging directly with the community by attending community events and conducting door-to-door, phone, and social media outreach.

6 MONTHS – 4 YEAR OLDS CAN RECEIVE COVID-19 VACCINE

The FDA and CDC both gave the green light in June for both Moderna’s and Pfizer/BioNTech’s Covid-19 vaccines for children as young as 6 months. The vaccines were rigorously evaluated and have proven to be safe and effective and preventing severe disease and death from Covid-19. Moderna’s mRNA vaccine is a 2-dose series taken one month apart. Immunocompromised people can take a third dose at least one month after the second dose. Pfizer/BioNTech’s mRNA vaccine is a 3-dose series. The first two doses are taken three weeks apart, and the third is taken at least 8 weeks after the second dose.

STAY UP-TO-DATE!

The next scheduled clinic is July 30 at Back to School Bash. DSHS and VaccinateBandera.org will be providing B2S vaccines. Check https://vaccinatebandera.org/vaccines-here OR follow “Protect Our Future Bandera” on Facebook OR call 833-882-2246 for updates on newly scheduled clinics/educational events. You can also call to pre-register for any of our clinics to save time.

BANDERA INTERAGENCY COALITION

Silver Sage hosted the monthly Bandera Interagency Coalition (BIC) meeting on June 21. We were joined by several new agencies including the Castle Lake Ranch Volunteer Fire Department, Bandera Chamber of Commerce, MHP Salud, Bandera County Helping Hand, and Kronkosky Charitable Foundation. Discussions included the role of Silver Sage as providing the digital and print aspects of a community resource GUIDE, BIC’s role as maintaining the community resource NETWORK of agencies, and different ways to refer clients within the network that ensure the security of any clients’ personal information.

I’m taking the liberty of using this month’s column to highlight a few of the many things that make me scratch my head and go, “Hmmm?” I say a few things because in 75 years I’ve accumulated so many it would take a full year to cover them all. I’m betting our readers will relate. Here we go . . .

Parking Lots. No, this isn’t about returning shopping carts to their proper place. I don’t sweat the small stuff. I’ll leave that for another time.

Why is it that normally decent drivers (I’m taking the high road) turn into mindless numbnuts the minute they enter a parking lot? The other day I got almost off the road entering a very busy grocery store parking lot. I say “almost” because the driver ahead of me inexplicably stopped before I could get my vehicle fully off the road. Just stopped. When she finally got going again, she pulled into an aisle and stopped once more with no room to go around her and no way to back up since there were now two other cars behind me. But, praise be, a car pulled out of a space and there was another open space next to that one. The lady inched ahead and pulled into both spaces, straddling the painted space marker and she wasn’t even driving a truck. I parked eventually, but when I finished shopping and came back to my car, two long bed trucks had parked opposite each other, preventing anything bigger than a golf cart from passing between them. Two cars were already at a blocked standstill in that aisle. In the neighboring aisle, a vehicle trundled along in the wrong direction of the single vehicle lane despite freshly painted arrows.

I rest my case on parking lots.

PeopleWhoTalkTooFast. I started noticing this at least 20 years ago when I had to ask one of my sons to repeat almost everything he said. He is in large, if not good, company. People who make their living talking on TV – newscasters, actors, “personalities” whose claim to fame is somewhat mysterious, receptionists, entire swaths of the population talk like they’re being paid by the word. If they also have lazy diction, they’re unintelligible. I’m not talking about the folks who sit on phone banks in the Philippines or India, although they have their fair share of speeding tongues. And don’t write me off as an old curmudgeon whose hearing is less than sharp. Google some variation of “talking fast” and you’ll find articles and studies on the subject. Johns Hopkins Medicine has one on “Fluency Disorder” which includes a description of “cluttering” where one “speaks fast and jams words together”. A “Disorder”. Further, a study in Science Advances found that “more efficient languages tend to be spoken more slowly.” So there.

Slow down, people!

I saved the big one for last. Why is everything so bloody hard to open?

There’s not much more to say about this. Those re-close-able boxes and packages are the worst and my favorites are packaging that shows a dotted line, indicating a perforated tear strip. If you can get the tear started you are then faced with getting the package open. Ok, I have a condition that makes my hands less agile than they used to be but I am surely not alone and getting that blasted package open is often all but impossible. A scissors solves the issue but also destroys the “reclose-able” aspect. The whole process has helped increase my vocabulary, although not in a totally positive way.

Thank for your patience with my rant. Drive carefully. Slow down and enunciate your words. Buy good scissors. Happy Fourth of July, see you in August and thank you for returning your shopping cart!
A Sweet Grandma
A sweet grandmother telephoned St. Joseph’s Hospital. She timidly asked, “Is it possible to speak to someone who can tell me how a patient is doing?” The operator said, “I’ll be glad to help, dear. What’s the name and room number of the patient?”

The grandmother in her weak, tremulous voice said, “Norma Findlay, Room 302.” The operator replied, “Let me put you on hold while I check with the nurse’s station for that room.”

After a few minutes, the operator returned to the phone and said, “I have good news. Her nurse just told me that Norma is doing well. Her blood pressure is fine; her blood work just came back normal and her Physician, Dr. Cohen, has scheduled her to be discharged tomorrow.”

The grandmother said, “Thank you. That’s wonderful. I was so worried. God bless you for the good News.” The operator replied, “You’re more than welcome. Is Norma your daughter?” The grandmother said, “No, I’m Norma Findlay in Room 302. No one tells me nothin’!

The Track
A guy is reading his paper when his wife walks up behind him and smacks him on the back of the head with a frying pan. He asks, “What was that for?” She says, “I found a piece of paper in your pocket with ‘Betty Sue’ written on it.” He says, “Jeez, honey, remember last week when I went to the track? ‘Betty Sue’ was the name of the horse I went there to bet on.” She shrugs and walks away.

Three days later he’s reading his paper when she walks up behind him and smacks him on the back of the head again with the frying pan. He asks, “What was that for?” She answers, “Your horse called.”

Hey, What’s Going On? By Lisa Crawford (Activities Director)

Well, it is HOT! I mean REALLY HOT. I hope you are staying cool and hydrated. Be sure to eat lots of watery fruits like watermelon or cantaloupe to help keep you hydrated as well as drinking plenty of water. Pray for RAIN!

We have had so much fun with all the different activities in June. Our Friday Mall walks have been a big hit. Ok, in all honesty, we got a little bit of walking in and a lot of shopping, but that is ok. It gave us time out of the house and time to visit with one another and we are good with that. The dinner and Luckenbach trips were so much fun. We had a fun group on each one of those trips and laughed and visited and just really enjoyed every minute. Hope you will join us soon.

Music
Please plan to join us for a very special afternoon of patriotic music on Sunday, July 3rd at 4:00 P.M. by the much loved Almost Patsy Cline Trio. The cost is $10 per person.

Cowboy Capital Opry will take place at 7 P.M. on the first Tuesday each month, and this month it falls on July 5th and our special guest will be Bob Stewart.

Bus Trips
I want to let you know that this month I will be out of the office several days, and because of that, the monthly HEB bus trip is changed to Friday, July 1st at 12:30 p.m.

Our Walmart trip will be Thursday, July 14th at 12:30 p.m. Please come early if you plan to eat lunch at the center, so you will have plenty of time.

On Friday, July 15th at 10 a.m. we will go to the River Hills Mall in Kerrville to walk or shop or both. When everyone is ready, we will go to Broken Stone Pizza for lunch. I expect we will return to the Silver Sage by 2 p.m.

Wednesday, July 27th we will take a dinner trip to Hondo’s on Main in Fredericksburg to have dinner and hear Dave Kemp play music on the outside stage. We will leave the Silver Sage at 5:45 P.M. It is about an hour drive, so will be there around 6:45 which should give us plenty of time to order and be seated before the music starts at 7 P.M. This is a self-serve restaurant, and we will be sitting outside, so please dress for the Texas heat. There are lots of trees for shade until the sun goes down and there is usually a wonderful breeze.

*All bus riders are asked to make a $5 per trip donation to help offset fuel costs. All participants are expected to pay for their own meal and any gratuities. All bus riders must be physically able to get on and off the bus un-assisted.

CRAFTS
Did somebody say ROCK PAINTING? Monday, July 18th at 1 p.m. in the craft room we have the talented Tiffany Bettinger coming in to show us how it’s done. The class is free as Tiffany considers it her way of giving back to the community. If we have enough interest and participation, we will continue on a weekly or monthly basis. Whichever we all agree on.

LET’S TALK
We have three Let’s Talk/Lunch & Learn programs planned for this month. On July 13th we have Mary Brosius from CentroMed giving a talk on Medicaid and Vaccinations. July 20th, Steve Bradley will be here to answer all your questions about Medicare, and on July 27th Susan Broa will talk to us about Wellness and Nutrition. Please plan to join us for lunch and let’s learn something new!

SPECIAL EVENT
On Thursday, July 28th at 10:00 A.M. we will offer an Elderly Fraud Training Class in the Silver Sage Great Room. The class will be taught by J.C. Spillman, the captain of the Austin Dept. Of Public Safety. The class is FREE and highly recommended for all. Please call Lisa at the Silver Sage to get your name added to the list if you plan to attend so we will know how many chairs to put out. 830-850-0028

Well, that’s it for July (I think). I sure hope I haven’t forgotten anything. See you at the Silver Sage soon!

Smart Tips to Power Up with Breakfast

Breakfast gives you energy to start the day. A healthy breakfast is important for everyone. Get the morning nutrition you need with these quick breakfast ideas.

- Make instant oatmeal with low-fat milk instead of water. Toss in raisins or dried cranberries and chopped walnuts.
- Layer low-fat plain yogurt with your favorite crunchy whole grain cereal and blueberries.
- Blend a breakfast smoothie with low-fat milk, frozen strawberries and a banana.
- Grits topped with a sprinkle of low-fat cheese and spinach or tomatoes. Add a cooked egg on the side.
- Top a toaster waffle with low-fat yogurt and peach slices.
- Stuff a whole-wheat pita with a sliced, hard-cooked egg and low-fat shredded cheese.
- Spread a flour tortilla with peanut butter. Add a whole banana and roll it up.
- Spread low-fat cream cheese on a whole-grain toasted bagel. Top with sliced strawberries.
- Add lean ham and low-fat Swiss cheese to a toasted whole-grain English muffin.

If your taste buds just don’t crave traditional breakfast foods, try these choices:

- Hummus spread on a whole-grain toasted bagel with cucumber and tomato slices on top.
- Leftover veggie pizza
- Low-fat cottage cheese with fruit
- Leftover rice mixed with low-fat yogurt, dried fruit and nuts. Sprinkle with cinnamon.
- Corn tortilla with mashed avocado, black beans, salsa, and low-fat shredded Cheddar cheese

Helping Seniors Stay Cool

TOP 10 TIPS

1. Once temperatures rise, be sure to check on elderly family or friends with regular visits.

2. Remind seniors—especially those showing signs of dementia—of the dangers of extreme heat and the signs of heatstroke.

3. Certain medications can make it difficult to stay hydrated, so make sure seniors drink 6-8 glasses of water a day, even if they’re not thirsty.

4. Know the signs of dehydration, including dry mouth/skin, lightheadedness, lack of sweat, low blood pressure and rapid heartbeat.

5. Seniors should avoid direct sunlight during the warmest part of the day, apply sunscreen and wear lightweight clothing when outdoors.

6. Ensure seniors have access to a working air conditioner during the day.

7. Close blinds and curtains in seniors’ homes to lower room temperatures.

8. Some medical conditions, like asthma or heart conditions, can be more serious during hot weather—discuss with their doctor to see whether medications need to be adjusted.

9. Look for signs of heatstroke, including profuse sweating, fatigue, cold/clammy skin, nausea, muscle weakness, disorientation, shallow breathing and vomiting.

10. Prepare to directly assist with measures like turning on the AC or removing robes or blankets—even if it means staging a “cooling intervention.”

FIVE SUMMERTIME PET SAFETY TIPS

1. WATCH WHERE YOU WALK
   Even when the outside air temperature is a balmy 75°, asphalt under a summer sun can reach a painful 125°. On hotter days, it can hit 155° or higher. If it’s hot enough to fry an egg, it will surely sizzle your pet’s paws!

2. HEAT CAN KILL
   Speaking of summer sun, don’t forget that your pets get thirsty too. Hydration is key. Make sure they have plenty of fresh water indoors and out, and keep them in the shade as much as possible. And NEVER leave your dog or cat locked in a car. It takes less than 10 minutes for them to die of heat stroke.

3. DON’T LET PARASITES PICNIC ON YOUR PET
   Fleas, ticks, mosquitoes and other pests, which thrive in summertime, can carry tapeworms, heartworms, and diseases like Lyme and Bartonella. Ask your vet what preventative measures you can take to keep your pet safe from them.

4. NAME YOUR POISON
   Not all grass is created equal; some is doused in fertilizer and pesticides, which can be toxic to dogs and cats that lie or play in it. Likewise, some types of plants (such as tulips, hyacinths, certain lilies, and daffodils) can make your pet ill or even die if it is ingested. Be cautious about where you let your pet wander!

5. LAST BUT NOT LEAST... VACCINATE!
   Summer is the peak season for rabies, since warm weather increases the risk of encounters with wild infected animals. Protect your pets by making sure their rabies inoculations are up-to-date.

A Tale that’s a Bit Fishy

By Mikie Baker

This is a love story about two fish. Or at least, it started out that way. But you know relationships. Sometimes you just to have to make the supreme sacrifice.

The Adult Eating Machine and his daughter, Tiny Texas Twister, arrived for a visit. We have a nice cabin near the house and that’s where they squatted. Everything was going along swimmingly until the AEM decided the five-year-old Twister needed to have her own fish.

So, being the Wonder Woman with a working credit card, I hauled them up to the Medium City’s only pet store and in we went. I figured every little girl should have the chance to kill her own guppy. Life lessons, you know.

They weren’t interested in guppies just exotics that required an aquarium, lights, pumps and all that other fishy stuff. Undeterred, I looked longingly at the goldfish and guppies. After finding the Teenage Fish Expert sales kid, we settled on a Beta Fish. It was bright yellow - Twister’s favorite color.

The Adult Eating Machine chimed in like a five-year-old and demanded, “What about me? Don’t I get a fish?” How could I say no to that? So, he picked out an orange and white fish that looked pretty much like a goldfish only it cost four times more. Then the Teenage Fish Expert sold me the fishbowl, a SpongeBob SquarePants Pineapple Fish House, the obligatory green plastic fauna, black rocks with sprinkles of neon rocks in them, water drops, a net and fish food. He reminded me to keep my receipt because if the unthinkable happened within the next two weeks, we could always come back in for a fish that was still alive.

Everyone was excited on the way home naming their fish. The Adult Eating Machine decided on Rockstar for his male fish and Twister named her female fish Vampirina. I’m a bit worried about her.

They kept their aquatic friends in the cabin as Sammy the Siamese Terrorist and Rockin’ Rod would have made sushi out of them if we kept them in the house. Anyway, everything went along swimmingly for more than two weeks, unfortunately. Then the duo left for a weekend trip and somebody who shall remain nameless forgot to feed said fish for three days.

When AEM and Twister arrived home, they found that Vampirina had eaten all of Rockstar except for his head. After I heard the announcement, I started pondering my death and burial speech for Rockstar. I figured we’d bury his head at sea in a toilet ceremony using the bidet for a fitting send-off.

But Twister had other ideas. She bounded in the door with the fish head in the net and said, “This guy’s dead. I’ll just throw his head in the trash.” No ceremony? No gnashing of teeth? No lesson on death? Then she asked for fish sticks for lunch. As I said, I’m worried about her.

Evidently, we’d bought a mini-Piranha and Twister had nailed her name. Then the duo up and left the ranch leaving me with a vicious fish. Knowing I’ve had too many fish die on my watch, I decided to give Vampirina, the bowl, pineapple, fauna, black rocks with neon sprinkles, water drops, net, and fish food away to the nearest victim I could find.

I ended up taking Vampirina to the office where she was immediately adopted as the Official Office Fish. I told them she might bite, but no one believed me. Now I must face Vampirina daily, fearing she knows my deep, dark secret.

And so ends my fishy tale.
