Coping with Loneliness During Uncertain Times

By Monica Zuniga, with Alamo Hospice and Alamo Supportive Care

Best way to beat loneliness during these trying times is to P-L-A-N. Planning will help beat the loneliness by keeping us in a routine and is a great way to pass the time, especially if we fill it with things that we enjoy and can look forward to. So be sure and P-L-A-N as follows.

P – “Pick up the phone” and call a friend or family member. Make an effort to connect with others as much as possible. Also PLAN to do activities with them as you feel comfortable.

L – Learn something new. Now is the perfect time to learn about technology because it can not only be a great way to connect, but also be a good source of information. Find out about meeting sites like Zoom and Google Meet to set up meetings with friends. Also, you may consider taking up a new hobby such as fishing, gardening, completing jigsaw or crossword puzzles, scrapbooking, drawing, knitting, learning golf or dance, or joining an on-line class like yoga.

A – Ask for help when you need it. You can talk to a friend, counselor, or even call your local senior center, like the Silver Sage here in Bandera. They can connect you to resources and point you in the right direction.

N – Nourish yourself – mind and body. Try to focus on things that are positive in your life – count your blessings and try not to compare yourself to others. Everyone is on their own journey with their own blessings and challenges. Maybe write down every day three things for which you are thankful. Be sure to eat a nutritious diet, get plenty of sleep, exercise regularly, and relax when needed.

For more information on how to beat loneliness, feel free to reach out to me at 830-388-9101. I am also available to help connect you to resources you may need.

It’s September when we begin counting down the days to fall, cooler temperatures, maybe even some rain. While we’re counting days, there’s another count going on by the United States Census Bureau. It’s called the Decennial because it occurs every ten years. The main purpose of the Decennial is counting people. How many people live full time in our community - how many men, how many women, how many children, ages, ethnicity, all add up to give the government a clear picture of the county and city in which we live.

The benefits? The Decennial determines how many representatives a particular area is allowed in Congress. The more accurate the count the more likely we will have adequate representation in Washington, D.C. to make sure our tax dollars come back to us. It truly affects every one of us and definitely affects every nonprofit serving Bandera, starting with the Silver Sage.

“We use Census data for our Foundation grant writing to keep our programs running,” says Executive Director Art Crawford. “Meals On Wheels, Food Bank distributions, all Silver Sage programs rely on the data collected by the Census Bureau to show the need in the community.” For the Silver Sage, the percentages of elderly, disabled, single family households, and other demographic information are crucial to its mission.

“All nonprofits use Census numbers,” adds Rebecca Norton, Executive Director of the Frontier Times Museum. “The Census Bureau is the go-to site for community data – like the number of children - that help us write for grant money and tax allocations for the programs and activities the Museum offers.”

The Arthur Nagel Clinic uses Census data to continue their mission to improve the health of the community and provide health care to citizens in need. In addition to the Decennial, the Census Bureau conducts ongoing surveys that collect information on health, poverty, health care costs and other areas representing specific nonprofit interests. The information extrapolated from that data is what creates rich layers of programs in the arts, health, food distribution, public works – everything you want and expect of your community.

The Decennial was established under George Washington’s tenure as President in 1790, and is required by the U. S. Constitution, Article I, Section 2. That’s 23 Decennials over a 230 year period. Add in the bigger surveys conducted year round and it’s a lot of data, all of it collected through citizen cooperation with mandates to protect your privacy and confidentiality.

This Decennial has offered several options for people to report their statistical information. There is the old standby paper form to fill out and mail in. There is information on how to report online. There is a phone number for recording your data. Finally, there are Census workers called “enumerators” covering the county making sure your household is represented and that the information collected is accurate. I am one of those people and I also worked the big surveys for years.

I hope you will cooperate and I hope the information I’ve given helps you understand the importance of your cooperation. We all want the best possible services and amenities for our community. Complying with the work of the Census Bureau, with the current Decennial and other surveys, is the best way for each of us to raise our voices to Washington, to let our representatives know exactly who we are, what’s important to us, and how we want our community to look and respond to our needs.

See you in October and remember to be kind to one another!
We Keep Your Data Safe!

When you trust us with your information, our goal — and legal duty — is to keep it safe. Our mission is to serve as the nation’s leading provider of quality data about its people and economy. We couldn’t produce this information without you.

The Law Protects Your Information

By law, your information is confidential. Your answers cannot be used against you by any government agency or court. The law is found in Title 13 of the U.S. Code. Anyone who violates this law faces severe penalties.

Our Privacy Principles Guide Our Work

Our privacy principles guide our actions so that we respect your privacy and protect your confidentiality.

- We do not identify individuals in the data
- We publish. We only publish statistics.
- Our Disclosure Review Board verifies that any data product we release meets our confidentiality standards.

Secure Technologies

From the beginning of the data collection process through the final storage of information, we protect your data following industry best practices and federal requirements. We use data encryption and two forms of authentication to secure system access. The security of our systems is a top priority and we continually refine our approach to address emerging threats.
Stingy Lawyer

A stingy old lawyer who had been diagnosed with a terminal illness was determined to prove wrong the old saying, “You can’t take it with you.”

After much thought and consideration, the old ambulance-chaser finally figured out how to take at least some of his money with him when he died.

He instructed his wife to go to the bank and withdraw enough money to fill two pillowcases. He then directed her to take the bags of money to the attic and leave them directly above his bed.

His plan: When he passed away, he would reach out and grab the bags on his way to heaven. Several weeks after the funeral, the deceased lawyer’s wife, up in the attic cleaning came upon the two forgotten pillowcases stuffed with cash.

“Oh, that old fool,” she exclaimed. “I knew he should have had me put the money in the basement.”

LOOKING GOOD

My face in the mirror isn’t wrinkled or drawn. My house isn’t dirty. The cobwebs are gone. My garden looks lovely and so does my lawn. I think I might never put my glasses back on.

OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF BABES

One day a little girl was sitting and watching her mother do the dishes at the kitchen sink. She suddenly noticed that her mother had several strands of white hair sticking out in contrast to her brunette hair.

She looked at her mother and inquisitive-ly asked, “Why are some of your hairs white, Mom?” Her mother replied, “Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white.”

The little girl thought about this revelation for a while and then said, “Momma, how come ALL of grandma’s hairs are white?”

A grave digger comes home all tired and exhausted, nearly dragging his hands on the ground. “What on Earth happened?!” asks his wife. “We were burying some mother-in-law or other, and the people applauded so much as we lowered her into the ground, that we had to do it again and again, eight times over!”

Man calls 911

man: calls 911 Hello? I need your help!
911: Alright, What is it?
man: Two girls are fighting over me!
911: So what’s your emer-gency?
man: The ugly one is winning.
Scarlet Sipper

4 cups cranberry-apple juice, chilled
1 cup orange juice, chilled
1/4 cup lemon juice, chilled
1 liter ginger ale, chilled
Optional: Fresh cranberries, orange and lemon wedges

In a pitcher, combine juices; stir in ginger ale.
Serve over ice. If desired, garnish with cranberries, orange and lemon wedges.

Fizzy Peach Shake

3 medium peaches, pitted
1/3 cup ginger ale, chilled, plus additional for topping if desired
2 tablespoons honey
1 quart vanilla ice cream
Optional: Whipped cream and peach slices

Place peaches, ginger ale and honey in a blender; cover and process until smooth.
Add ice cream; cover and process until combined. Pour into serving glasses. If desired, top with whipped cream or additional ginger ale and garnish with peach slices. Serve immediately.

Raspberry Refresher

8 cups fresh or frozen raspberries, thawed
1-1/2 cups sugar
2/3 cup cider vinegar
2-1/2 cups cold water, divided
2 liters ginger ale, chilled

In a large saucepan, crush the berries. Stir in sugar, vinegar and 1/2 cup water. Bring to a boil; reduce heat. Simmer, uncovered, for 20 minutes. Strain to remove seeds; refrigerate. Just before serving, stir in ginger ale and remaining water. Serve over ice.

Pumpkin Pancakes

Ingredients:

Makes: 7 (2 4-inch pancakes per serving)

- 1 1/2 cups whole-wheat flour
- 2 tsp. baking powder
- 1/2 tsp. pumpkin pie spice
- 1/4 tsp. baking soda
- 1 large egg
- 1 1/2 cups skim milk
- 1 Tbsp. lemon juice
- 1 cup pumpkin puree
- 2 Tbsp. canola oil
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract
- 3 Tbsp. honey
- 1/4 cup pecans, chopped

Recipe adapted and photo credited from: http://www.eatingwell.com/

Method:

1. Whisk flour, baking powder, pumpkin pie spice, and baking soda in a large bowl. In a separate bowl, whisk egg, milk, lemon juice, pumpkin, pecans, oil and vanilla until evenly mixed.

2. Make a well in the center of the dry ingredients, add the wet ingredients and whisk until just combined. Try to not over mix, this will make the pancakes have a tough texture. Let the batter sit, without stirring, for 10 to 15 minutes.

3. Coat a nonstick skillet or griddle with cooking spray; heat over medium heat. Without stirring, measure about 1/4 cup batter per pancake and pour onto griddle. Cook pancake for 2 to 4 minutes, or until edges are dry and then flip the pancake over and cook for another 2-4 minutes. Repeat with the remaining batter.

4. Drizzle 1 tsp. honey on top of pancakes. Top with 1 Tbsp. pecans.

Tips on Pumpkin

How To Store: Cover cut pumpkin in foil or plastic wrap. Store in refrigerator, up to 2-4 days. Pureed pumpkin can be frozen, up to 3 months.

How To Use: Add puree to pancakes or bread mixes

Health Benefits: Promotes healthy vision, immune system and heart

How To Use: Dice into casseroles or rice dishes

May lower the risk of some cancers

Film History

Read on and see if you can guess which great movies are summarized in one sentence:

1. Dirty old rich man dumps wife and family for young, blonde filly with a speech impediment, who drinks herself into a stupor and ends up gone.

2. WWII draft dodging, gin-swilling, Fedora-wearing dude flees U.S., is spurned by a sentimental Parisian woman who’s really from Sweden, dumps her, then vanishes into the night with another man.

3. Intimidating New York control freak with hanging jowls helps his friends by utilizing guns, lawyers and long-distance animal abuse.

4. Dixie buttercup achieves riches and finds love by flaunting her beauty, betraying friends, and smacking servants upside their heads, while others lose their lives in her behalf.

5. British Officer becomes enchanted fighting for freedom in foreign land, sucks up to royalty, and becomes famous for wearing a dress.

6. Transported to a surreal landscape, a young girl kills the first woman she meets and then teams up with three complete strangers to kill again.

7. Two brothers start out together in life but arrive at separate destinations, one smashed up yet victorious, the other just hanging out.

8. A greedy and vain Slav factory owner decides he’d rather be loved than rich and is given posthumous worldwide recognition as a hero by a Hollywood producer.

9. A dripping guy does a one-footed stomp in the gutter while his silly friend runs into a brick wall and the female love interest earns a living by talking.

10. A man whose business is failing meets a dead geezer and hallucinates his way to happiness.

WHAT DOES VINEGAR HELP WITH?
Using white distilled vinegar is an excellent, economical and earth-friendly way to clean our kitchens.

Vinegar is made of acetic acid, which is a natural disinfectant for killing some common germs like salmonella and E. coli, but is best when used in along with antibacterial soap and water to guarantee all germs are killed.

HOW TO PREPARE & STORE VINEGAR MIX

2 cups of Water
2 cups Vinegar

Use this solution to clean and disinfect surfaces where food is prepared or stored.
Store at room temperature away from food.

WHAT DOES BLEACH DO?
Bleach is a disinfectant, not a cleaner. It does a fantastic job of killing germs; it removes tough stains and whitens clothing. But, bleach doesn't really clean dirt and residue from surfaces. To do that, you'd need to scrub and rinse the surfaces first, and then apply a bleach solution. Most of us smell bleach and think that it is cleaning a surface, but really, it is probably being used to disinfect the surface instead.

HOW TO PREPARE & STORE BLEACH MIX

1 Gallon of Water
1/2 cup Bleach

Wipe down areas that are prone to germs, then use prepared solution to disinfect.
Store at room temperature, away from food.
