I think it is safe to say that the consensus of our last year has been at the very least challenging. Many lost family members and loved ones or knew someone who did. Add life just being life and it was pretty tough. There are some that can look back and see some good from what we have all been through, and that can be a good thing. Below are some ways that can help get us to that point of seeing the good, which will get your 2021 off to a great start.

Take time to grieve losses. I have learned working in the hospice field that it is important to take time to feel the emotions you need to feel and work through losses. In a poem, called “But it Hurts… Differently” Earl A. Grollman beautifully illustrates how grief can work. (See inset)

Work at adopting a positive perspective. Once you have developed a good thought process about grieving losses, this is a great way to bring happiness back into your life. Look for things that are positive. Identify them and then think about them over and over. This can really help on days that start off feeling impossible to get through.

Stay healthy and get plenty of exercise. Like we have said in previous articles, take a walk in the sunshine, get plenty of sleep, write down what you are thankful for, take your vitamins, and eat healthy foods while indulging in a guilty pleasure (chocolate, maybe?) every now and then. Be gentle with yourself.

Set goals. Achievable ones. They can be daily, weekly, monthly. Goals met can give you a sense of accomplishment, and that’s a great mood booster.

Set time aside for YOU! Find a fun hobby, listen to music, pray, read, dance around your kitchen… just work on enjoying life!

---

But it Hurts… Differently

There’s no way to predict how you will feel.

The reactions of grief are not like recipes, with given ingredients, and certain results.

Each person mourns in a different way.

You may cry hysterically, or you may remain outwardly controlled, showing little emotion.

You may lash out in anger against your family and friends, or you may express your gratitude for their dedication.

You may be calm one moment – in turmoil the next.

Reactions are varied and contradictory.

Grief is universal. At the same time it is extremely personal.

Heal in your own way.

_Earl A. Grollman_
2021. When I typed those numbers I got a little shiver of anticipation. This past year sometimes felt like sitting in the waiting room at a dentist’s office. You never knew what was round the next corner, the next curve in the road, but you knew if you gritted your teeth, shored up your resolve and just got on with it, there was bound to be something better when it was all over.

2020 was a waiting room for 2021. We isolated and rationed. We locked down and masked up. We talked endlessly about “next year”.

So here we are at “next year” and 2021 beckons us onward. For most of us, a new year is a time of hope and optimism. Some play the resolutions game. Millions of diets are started. My mother and father-in-law hosted New Year’s Eve parties for years where all the celebrants wrote down their predictions for the coming year and sealed them. Then the next New Year’s Eve those predictions were opened and read aloud, accompanied by much merriment and hilarity. The glee and mirth were because the predictions never lived up to the reality. If anyone still writes down predictions for a new year, how did 2020 measure up? Good grief – who could have foreseen 2020!

And that’s the point. No one can completely foresee or accurately predict the course of history, the path of our lives, or a new year. Some study trends, science, and math and come up with probabilities or possibilities, but no one can lay out a blueprint of the next year. We have to embrace the inevitable surprises – good and bad.

My alma mater, Purdue University, did a study some years ago to determine why some people moved into and through their “senior” years with ease and positive attitudes and others struggled.

The researchers thought they would find out the difference would rely heavily on the physical challenges some deal with and others do not. The results showed physical condition and ailments had little to do with it. The big difference was the ability to adapt to change. Those who could and did adapt fared much better than those who could or would not.

We can thank 2020 for almost a full year of practicing adapting to change! Congratulations to us all. We did it. Not always gracefully. Not always willingly. Sometimes we behaved like tantrum throwing toddlers, more naughty than nice. Now we have a brand new year in which to practice our learned adaptability skills. We learned how to step up to, and with, the plate to feed a hungry, needful population. We learned how much we needed to shore up each other with phone calls, careful visits, and funny, inspirational memes on social media. (Special mention and thanks to Art Crawford and Glenn Clark for the latter!)

As long as we continue to learn, adapt, and practice our caring for and to each other, how can 2021 not be better than the past year?

Happy New Year, y’all – be safe, be well, be kind!
Happy New Year Silver Sagers, From Art Crawford

2020 has ended with The Silver Sage still being closed for lunch and activities. The staff is working diligently to continue to provide Meals on Wheels and Drive Through Lunch for everyone while also putting safety protocols in place for future reopening. Every day someone ask me when we are going to open back up. The simple answer is, I don’t know. When Texas HHS and our staff feel it is safe for us and for you, we will open. Sooner rather than later I hope.

In recent months we have seen a drastic increase in the number of meals served. Way back in February we were serving just under 3000 meals per month. Currently, we are serving over 8000 meals per month. The entire staff and I are proud and honored to be able to do this. As is to be expected, this kind of an increase in services comes with a price tag, and as always, all the meals we serve are free to all the participants. However, if you can and wish to donate to The Silver Sage you can do so by sending an envelope with your delivery driver or drop it by The Silver Sage or on our website donate button at www.silversage.org.

We are so excited that our partnership with the San Antonio Food Bank is growing. This means that our food distributions will be a little different this year. We will be hosting three distributions this month. January 26th distributions will be in Lakehills and Medina. January 27th distribution will be at Mansfield Park in Bandera. Read more about this on pages 19-21.

2020 is behind us. 2021 is here. Let us all leave the past behind us and be thankful for all the blessings that this new year will surely bring.

EASY CHICKEN POT PIE

Ingredients
1 2/3 cups frozen mixed vegetables, thawed
1 cup chopped cooked chicken
1 can (10 1/2 oz) condensed cream of chicken soup
1 cup Original Bisquick mix
1/2 cup milk
1 egg

Directions:
1. Heat oven to 375°F. Spray 9-inch pie plate with cooking spray. Add vegetables, chicken and soup and stir to combine.
2. In medium bowl, stir remaining ingredients until blended. Pour into pie plate.
3. Bake uncovered 25 to 30 minutes or until crust is golden brown.

Expert Tips
Sprinkle the crust with a little shredded cheese in the last 5 minutes of baking.
If you’ve got leftover cooked vegetables, use them instead of the frozen vegetables. You can even plan for that if you have this pot pie on your menu rotation.
Leftover chicken from a deli rotisserie can be mixed in with the vegetables for a heartier pie.
Season up the base veggie mixture with your favorite blend of dried herbs, sage, basil, oregano will bump up the flavor!

Hidden quotation by Ralph Waldo Emmerson:
Write it on your heart that every day is the best day in the year.

Our greatest need is for drivers and driver assistants to help with the Meals On Wheels program. We deliver meals Monday through Friday. The Silver Sage owns the vehicles which are used in the deliveries and gas is also purchased by the Center. A lunch is provided for drivers after their routes. Allow an hour or two to complete your route. What a special feeling it is knowing that you have made such a difference in someone’s life! You also get a chance to visit with some of the most marvelous people who get the meals.

Please call us at (830) 796-4969 and ask for Amy.

Thanks to grants from Bandera County, Foundations, USDA, and the Texas Department of Agriculture, the new year will bring lots of changes to our partnership with The San Antonio Food Bank. In addition to our onsite Food Pantry, The Silver Sage will now be hosting three food distributions each month from now through June 2021. The distributions will be held on the fourth Tuesday each month in Lakehills and Medina, as well as the fourth Wednesday each month at Mansfield Park in Bandera.

A few new rules apply to these distributions:
Each family may pick up food for themselves and one other family if we have the second family listed and you are their proxy. In practical terms this means you can’t just drive up and say you want to pick up for you and your neighbor and 3 others. You will only be allowed to pick up for yourself and one other. Please do not ask me to bend this rule and jeopardize the entire program for all those in the county that need it.

There will be no staff or coordinated deliveries. If you need this food distribution you must pick it up yourself or have someone that can bring your information (proxy) and pick it up for you.
There are three ways to qualify for this food. 1. Have you been affected in any way by Covid-19. If yes, you qualify. 2. Income guidelines as shown. Or 3. Are you receiving SNAP, TANF, SSI, NSLP, or Medicaid. If yes, you qualify.

We will be filling out new forms this year. Mostly demographic information like date of birth, male or female, veteran status, and ethnicity. Why do we need this information? This how we get grants to continue to provide this service to the residents of Bandera County. We need to tell our funders who we are serving. Some foundations only give grants to help veterans, so we need to prove we are helping veterans. Some foundations only give grants to help children. So we need to show how many children are receiving this food. Some funders only fund programs for senior citizens. So we need to show how many senior citizens we are serving. Without this current data, it is impossible receive adequate funding. Without the funding we could not continue the distributions.

These distributions are an immense amount of work for The Silver Sage and SAFB staff as well as many wonderful volunteers. All we ask in return is that you be patient, kind, and courteous to our volunteers. They don’t have to be there. Just a smile and a thank you makes it all worthwhile for them. - Art Crawford - CEO
