ABOUT THE JR. SOUTHERN RODEO ASSOCIATION

The Junior Southern Rodeo Association is one of the largest youth rodeo associations in the United States. The Jr. SRA was established in the 1950's as a "youth division" of the Southern Rodeo Association (SRA).

The Jr. SRA and SRA are the oldest rodeo associations east of the Mississippi and throughout the years, generations of families have competed and started their rodeo career with the Jr. SRA.

The Jr. SRA takes great pride in providing our young athletes with a platform to learn values, sportsmanship, and improve their rodeo skills to advance on to National, Collegiate, and International Events. Several World Champions got their start competing in the Jr. SRA. Champions such as: Jerome Davis, Robert Lloyd, Luke Brown, Boyce Knox, Codi Baucom, Corey Atwell, Adam Plyer, and Cory Kidd. In order to keep this tradition alive and continue to provide rodeos for our youth, we need the generosity and support from the community and sponsors.

We would like to ask for you to consider becoming a 2022 Jr. SRA Corporate Sponsor. As a sponsor, you will receive positive media exposure with your affiliation with the Jr. SRA, a 501 (c) (3) organization. With your generosity, the Jr. SRA will continue to fund rodeos, provide year-end awards to reward our young athletes for their hard work and dedication, as well as provide a strong rodeo foundation that will encourage our youth to move on to Collegiate and/or National Circuits.

We have enclosed a detailed sponsorship proposal for you to review. If you are interested in becoming a Jr. SRA sponsor, please complete the sponsorship form and email it to secretary@jrsrarodeo.com. If you have any questions or would like more information, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

Jr. Southern Rodeo Association
