Pai	t II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- 1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- 2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- 3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- 4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)

Jr SRA Code of Conduct

The code of conduct for any contestant, parent, guardian, family member, a person associated with a stock contractor and/or producer will include but it is not limited to the following:

- NO display of un-sportsmanship like behavior
- NO consuming alcoholic beverages nor the use of any illegal substances.
- NO unbecoming language including swearing, belittling, and harassing.
- NO bullying

A warning, $100 fine and/or indefinite suspension may be imposed by the Jr SRA Board of Directors. The disciplinary action will be progressive however the Board reserves the right to combine or skip steps depending upon the facts of each situation and the nature of the offense. In addition, a contestant may also be subject to disqualification should a parent, guardian, or family member disrespect the code of conduct. Any violation of the code of conduct should be reported to the Jr SRA Board of Directors for resolution.

The Boards decision is final.

As an association we depend on each other to make the rodeo experience the best it can be for the contestants and spectators.

This form must be signed and returned to the Rodeo Secretary's office before a contestant will be allowed to compete.
