

JRSRA CODE OF CONDUCT

The code of conduct for any contestant, parent, guardian, family member, a person associated with a stock contractor and/or producer, will include but it is not limited to the following:

- NO display of unsportsmanlike behavior.
- NO consuming alcoholic beverages nor the use of any illegal substances.
- NO unbecoming language; including swearing, belittling, and harassing.
- NO bullying.

In the case of violations, the JRSRA Board of Directors may impose:

- First Step: Warning
- Second Step: $100 fine
- Third Step: Indefinite suspension

The disciplinary action will be progressive however the Board reserves the right to combine or skip steps depending upon the facts of each situation and the nature of the offense. In addition, a contestant may also be subject to disqualification should a parent, guardian, or family member disrespect the code of conduct. Any violation of the code of conduct should be reported to the JRSRA Board of Directors for resolution. Any complaints or concerns about the decisions of the JRSRA should be made directly to the JRSRA Board of Directors only, and any public complaints or negative discussion made through social media or otherwise will also make contestants, parents, guardians, family members, or others associated, subject to disciplinary action listed above.

The JRSRA Board of Directors' decision is final.

As an association we depend on each other to make the rodeo experience the best it can be for the contestants and spectators.

This form must be signed and returned to the Rodeo Secretary's office before a contestant will be allowed to compete.
