Purpose:

To support Military Families/Armed Services YMCA.

Objectives:

- Raise funds for the Armed Services YMCA for the purchase of a bus for their various transportation needs. Donations via the GFWC Virginia Dues & Contributions Form will be encouraged and a statewide fundraising project will be developed.
Goal - $35,000
- Support local military or guard bases and military families in our communities.
Contact local base's Family Resources Centers.
- Monitor legislation affecting the wellbeing of our military members.

All hours, projects, dollars and in-kind donations must be reported under the GFWC Virginia State Project: Support of Military Families/Armed Services YMCA. This will be part of a club's Civic Engagement and Outreach report.

Special Recognition

Certificates of Participation will be presented to all clubs who participate and report their activities. Awards will be given at each convention, to the General, Junior or Juniorette clubs judged to have best fulfilled State Project objectives using the same size categories for CSP awards. To be considered for an award on just your State Project activities, please complete the Narrative Form on the next page for the State Project and send to Joyce Jolly by January 25th each year. This special report is in addition to reporting the same projects on your club's Civic Engagement and Outreach report and is NOT considered cross-reporting.

All monetary contributions received by GFWC Virginia will be presented to the Armed Services YMCA in Hampton Roads, at the end of the administration. COPY and include the form below for direct monetary contributions made throughout the year. Make checks payable to GFWC Virginia, earmark for State Project, and mail to address shown below.
