State Project 2022-2024

The 2022 – 2024 GFWC Virginia State Project supports and promotes education of Virginia's natural resources.

We are encouraging people of all ages to enjoy and explore the outdoors and experience the beauty of our flora and fauna, water, soil and woods.

Project Goals:

- To promote stewardship & education
- To support natural resource non-profit organizations
- To promote student photography and member watercolor contests of Virginia's natural resources.

Interesting facts

- Virginia has 41 State Parks
- Virginia has 5 different geographical areas: Appalachian Plateau, Appalachian Ridge & Valley, Blue Ridge, Piedmont and Atlantic Coastal Plain
- Forests cover 2.3 Million acres of Virginia

purchase a pin

Support the GFWC Virginia State Project by purchasing a beautiful pin. The pin has the Virginia state butterfly, the Eastern Tiger Swallowtail, in the center and promotes the importance of pollinators & natural resources.

Proceeds from the pin fundraiser will help support the State selected non-profit organizations.

Purchase a pin at the GFWC Virginia District meetings and State meetings.
