

Injustices/Apologies Worksheet

Instructions

Using the information cards, complete the relevant parts of this worksheet. Then take the worksheet to a different group and complete the relevant parts. Return to your original group to complete the rest of the worksheet using the information from the other groups.

EVENT	METHODS USED Tick/circle the methods used
Mau Mau Uprising 1950s	Victim country's government Cultural campaigns Survivors' testimonies Campaigns by descendants Government investigations Media Do you think there should be an apology? YES / NO Explain your answer:	UK Parliament debates Memorials International pressure Activists' pressure Public enquiry Public opinion	Legal action by survivors UK Royalty Petitions Historians UK courts
Transatlantic Slave Trade	Victim country's government Cultural campaigns Survivors' testimonies Campaigns by descendants Government investigations Media Do you think there should be an apology? YES / NO Explain why you think this:	UK Parliament debates Memorials International pressure Activists' pressure Public enquiry Public opinion	Legal action by survivors UK Royalty Petitions Historians UK courts

Jallianwala Bagh (Amritsar) Massacre, 13th April, 1919	Victim country's government Cultural campaigns Survivors' testimonies Campaigns by descendants Government investigations Media Do you think there should be an apology? YES / NO Explain why you think this:	UK Parliament debates Memorials International pressure Activists' pressure Public enquiry Public opinion	Legal action by survivors UK Royalty Petitions Historians UK courts
Irish Famine 1845-1852	Victim country's government Cultural campaigns Survivors' testimonies Campaigns by descendants Government investigations Media Do you think there should be an apology? YES / NO Explain why you think this:	UK Parliament debates Memorials International pressure Activists' pressure Public enquiry Public opinion	Legal action by survivors UK Royalty Petitions Historians UK courts
Iraq War	Victim country's government Cultural campaigns Survivors' testimonies Activists' pressure Government investigations Media Do you think there should be an apology? YES / NO Explain why you think this:	UK Parliament debates Memorials International pressure Historians Public enquiry Public opinion	Legal action by survivors UK Royalty Petitions UK courts

Windrush Scandal	Victim country's government	UK Parliament debates	Legal action by survivors
	Cultural campaigns	Memorials	UK Royalty
	Survivors' testimonies	International pressure	Petitions
	Campaigns by descendants	Activists' pressure	Historians
	Government investigations	Public enquiry	UK courts
	Media	Public opinion
	Do you think the government should do more? YES / NO
	Explain what and why:		