

Indiana National Guard Relief Fund (INGRF) Overview

Overview:
The Indiana National Guard Relief Fund (INGRF) is a private, non-profit, tax-exempt corporation. The INGRF is not an Army, Air Force, or Department of Defense organization. Funds are not for use by the Army or Air Force, and the government cannot dictate the use of funds. Our mission is accomplished by providing funds to service members, and their families, for limited financial relief.
Stipulations:	Who is Eligible?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Meet eligibility requirements ● Submit written application packet ● Provide required documents ● Note: This is NOT an emergency relief fund approximate processing time is 30 days	Indiana Army or Air National Guard Service Members (SM) in good standing are eligible to apply. Eligibility to apply does not guarantee a grant award
Hardship Grant
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Up to a maximum of $7,500 ● Any duty status is eligible to apply ● Provide a financial hardship related to military duty or unexpected event(s) beyond SM's control ● Member in good standing
Eligible Areas of Assistance (including but not limited to):	Ineligible Areas of Assistance (including but not limited to):
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Non-receipt of pay ● Loss of income ● Utilities ● Fire or other disasters ● Essential private owned vehicle ● Unexpected repairs ● Dependent funerals expenses ● Rent/Mortgage payments ● Cell Phone (SM/primary line) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Divorce/marriage expenses ● Lease or purchase of a vehicle ● Ordinary leave ● Continuing assistance (same hardship, multiple applications) ● Overdrawn "bounced" checks ● Liquidation or debt consolidation ● Business ventures or investments ● Goods/items of convenience or luxury ● Court fees, fines, judgments, liens, bails, legal fees, income tax, or child support ● Civil suits/bankruptcies ● Credit cards ● Student loans/college tuition ● Personal Loans

Please note: If approved, payments will not be issued to the service member or family member. All checks will be made payable to the creditor/service provider directly.

 Completed application packet due to INGRF NLT COB Monday *****