

Claire Aldin Publications is an award-winning hybrid publishing company that is a member of the Independent Book Publishers Association (IBPA) and is Better Business Bureau accredited. Our mission is to provide education, resources, and professional services to first-time authors from underrepresented backgrounds so their dynamic voices can be heard.

Claire Aldin Publications utilizes a five-step book creation process to take you from blank page to published author which includes:

1. book production
2. book design
3. book marketing
4. book publishing
5. book distribution

As an author, you maintain 100% of your book rights and have a non-exclusive contract. There are no pre-sale requirements. Claire Aldin Publications earns 0% royalty fees on published books. Our profits come from providing the quality services that you expect so you have a professional, industry standard book in the marketplace.

Each publishing package is designed with your needs in mind. Every package offers three rounds of professional editing, a custom book cover, manuscript formatting, eBook and paperback publishing plus more! Kindly refer to the publishing packages for more information.

Claire Aldin authors receive customized recommendations from a trained book strategist to meet your specific project needs. With Claire Aldin Publications, you are in control and approve all aspects of the book creation process.
