office hours

I believe in the value of being present in every moment, which means I do my very best to be completely present in my family moments and in my work moments. If I'm distracted, it means I'm "of two minds" and I'm not at my best artistically, creatively, or (even!) logically.

So, I set some loving boundaries to make sure everyone gets the best of me and I'm taking care of myself, so that my creativity and artistry operates at full capacity.

Because many of my weekends and evenings are taken up photographing clients, I keep my work hours and family hours very separate so I can focus on my family when I'm with them and focus on you when I'm with you

*I shoot at varying hours throughout the week and weekend, but I have

hello sweet bride

this will be you!

frequently asked questions

What do I do in the case of bad weather for our engagement or Bridals?

I will determine if the weather is bad enough to reschedule. I will typically wait until the day of the session to call it. Weather can fluctuate quite a bit, even just a few hours before the shoot. I do not reschedule just for clouds or gloomy weather (those are the best pictures). I might suggest bumping your session time up a bit, but you'll stay in the loop.

When will I receive the photos

3-4 days after the engagement session, 1-2 weeks after Bridals, and 6-8 weeks after the wedding.

How will I receive the photos

I use a website called Pic-Time, and I will send you a link, and you will be able to download them directly from there. If you want a flash drive

What is your Wedding Day style?

I'm both discrete (in the background, trying to go unnoticed as I snap details and candid moments) and interactive (managing the timeline and taking command as we do posed family and bridal party portraits or laughing with you on the dance floor as I capture you and your best people having the time of your life

If my wedding is canceled due to unforeseen circumstances, would I get a refund for payments already made?

All deposits/retainer fees are non-refundable. Sessions that have occurred prior to the cancellation will be pro-rated in return. All payments are final, and no payments will be returned if the wedding is within two months from the time of cancellation.

Where is the best place to print my pictures?
