CULTURAL SUPPORT PROGRAMS

We work to address gaps in service delivery through the provision of culturally appropriate services. Our programs reclaim the traditional way of mentoring a youth and adults by sharing the Aboriginal knowledge of Respect, Accountability and Responsibility that was handed down from the Spiritual Ancestors and Elders for thousands of generations.

Our youth programs facilitate opportunities to learn how to become not only strong and respectful youth but strong and respectful community members. This has been taught traditionally for over 60,000 years. Molwana is a Yorta Yorta phrase meaning ‘Young Man’ and Dhatjiba translates as ‘Young Sister’.
