Heads Up

News Letter

Kiwanian of the Month!

Congratulations to our Kiwanian of the month Al Shafer. Al volunteers at our service projects, has headed up the Children's Health and Safety Carnival for 12 years, becomes Shoo Shoo the clown at events. Additionally, he and his wife Linda host club parties at their beautiful home. We appreciate you, Al!

Information for the good of the Club

THANK YOU!!!!

Thank you, Greg Nichols, for contacting Vern Taylor, retired public works, for help locating and putting our Kiwanis sign at Pioneer Park back on display. Our sign is proudly on display once again! Big thanks to Vern Taylor.

Santa's Workshop Event at Sierra Presbyterian Church

Gold Country Kiwanis was happy to participate in the Santa's Workshop event. Children were able to pick out gifts for 25 cents. A very Fun Day!!!!

Salvation Army Bell Ringers

Gold Country Kiwanis enjoyed a good day of bell ringing to support the Salvation Army, $602.58 was collected!

December Guest Speaker

On the December 11th meeting we welcomed and gave donations to three local nonprofits that support children and families in Nevada County. Thank you, Bell Hill Academy, Hospitality House, and Interfaith Food Ministries, for serving our Community! Also pictured is Tom Morrissey, Gold Country Kiwanis Team One Chair.
