

ALLEGIANCE VOLLEYBALL SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITTES

Allegiance Volleyball is a Junior Olympic program that is dedicated to enhancing Houston area volleyball athletes' abilities to further their career at the high school or collegiate levels. We believe we have a responsibility to not only train young women as volleyball players, but to also prepare them to be women of character who have the traits to be successful, positive women throughout their lives.

Why we Coach Club Volleyball

The foundation of our effort is on respect. Coach Jenn and Sean always respect and care about each and every girl that steps on the court. It is expected that our players will respect other players, the coaches, and the game of volleyball. Their passion is to see the girls grow throughout the years and give each athlete an opportunity for a college scholarship.
