FRONT RANGE LEAGUE ANNOUNCES ALL STAR TEAMS, COACHES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GERING, NE – The Front Range League today announced their 2025 All Star Game team selections.

From the eight FRL teams, 55 players were selected to participate in the game, scheduled for July 8 at Oregon Trail Park Stadium in Gering, Nebraska. The game will cap a two-day event featuring a charity softball game, home run derby, and a spectacular fireworks show after the game itself.

Players were divided into two teams, the “Peaks” (visiting team) and “Plains” (home team). The Peaks will be coached by NOCO Prospectors Head Coach Chris Knabenshue and the Plains will be coached by Western Nebraska Pioneers Head Coach Easton Babe. Players have been placed on the two teams to give all players a chance to shine in front of fans, scouts and college coaches.
