Fort Collins Foxes to Host Front Range League Playoffs at City Park with Saturday Doubleheader, Drone Show, and Sunday Championship

Fort Collins, CO - July 30, 2025. The Fort Collins Foxes are excited to welcome fans to City Park Field for the 2025 Front Range League (FRL) Playoffs, bringing top-tier summer collegiate baseball to the heart of Fort Collins. The action-packed weekend kicks off with a doubleheader on Saturday, August 2, followed by the championship game on Sunday, August 3 at 4:05 PM.

The Saturday semifinal matchups will feature:

- 2:05 PM – Western Nebraska Pioneers vs. Boulder 64's
- 6:05 PM – Fort Collins Foxes vs. Spradley Collegians

Saturday's ticket grants fans access to both games plus a drone show spectacular lighting up the skies above City Park immediately following the 6:05 PM game. Winners of Saturday's games will return to City Park on Sunday at 4:05 PM to compete for the 2025 FRL Championship.

To enhance the playoff atmosphere, local food trucks will be onsite both days:

- Saturday: Backyard Bird and Walrus Ice Cream
- Sunday: Wild Brats and Walrus Ice Cream

Tickets for Sunday's championship game will be sold separately.

The Front Range League, founded in 2024, is a nonprofit organization built to foster competitive, respectful play while enriching the communities its teams represent. With eight teams across Colorado and Nebraska, the league prioritizes player development and community experience both on and off the field.

Preston Munsch, owner of the Fort Collins Foxes and vice president of the FRL, shared his enthusiasm for the weekend ahead: "This is what summer baseball is all about - great competition, community energy, and shared moments that stick with you. We're proud to host the playoffs here in Fort Collins and look forward to filling City Park with fans, families, and competitive baseball."
