

COPING WITH STRESS, ANXIETY, AND SUBSTANCE USE DURING COVID-19: HOW ANIMALS CAN HELP

The COVID-19 pandemic has created disruptions in our lives that can cause feelings of stress and anxiety. These feelings are normal.

Stress and anxiety may cause you to experience:

- Fear or constant worry
- Anger or being easily irritated
- Difficulty sleeping
- Difficulty concentrating
- Struggling to make decisions
- Consuming more alcohol, cannabis or other substances than usual

Did you know:

The connection between humans and animals can be important in reducing stress and anxiety.

In the Life in Recovery from Addiction in Canada survey led by CCSA, 88% of Canadians identified their relationship with animals or pets as an important support in their recovery from addiction.

Activities you can do with your pet to cope

Don't have a pet? Connect with therapy dogs online at therapydogs.ca to PAWS your stress.
