FOR OUR CITY - CHANDLER PROJECTS & PARTNERSHIPS

Let's Pull Together (Year-Round)

This volunteer program directly assists residents with yard work, painting home exteriors, disposing of unwanted items, and minor home repairs.

ChangeUp (Year-Round)

A campaign that encourages givers to consider donating to an online fund that helps Chandler's professional Homeless Outreach Navigators better serve people experiencing homelessness.

Golden Neighbors (Year-Round)

For Our City - Chandler partners with the City of Chandler and other non-profits to assist seniors through the Golden Neighbors program. Golden Neighbors provides household and hygiene essentials, cost-of-living assistance, coordination of transportation services, and resources for home repairs.

Operation Back to School (July)

For Our City - Chandler collaborates with non-profits and businesses to coordinate the distribution of backpacks filled with school supplies to K-12 students who live or attend school in Chandler. Shoes, uniforms, socks and underwear are also collected through donation efforts.

For Our City Day (October)

For Our City - Chandler partners with Chandler Neighborhood Programs in this annual event that brings volunteers and residents together to build community and instill neighborhood pride. On National Make a Difference Day, over a thousand volunteers gather to paint home exteriors, spruce up yards, and clean up the neighborhood park and common areas.

Holiday Drives (November & December)

Chandler non-profit organizations that conduct food & gift drives collaborate these to fully utilize resources, reduce duplication efforts and expand the reach of those we help.
