

Walil Archer

The Real RAPP Radio Show

---

---

Walil Archer is a traveling photojournalist known for capturing compelling images and authentic stories from events, red carpets, and cultural moments across the country. With a background rooted in media and broadcasting, he blends visual storytelling with real-time reporting, delivering work that reflects both creativity and journalistic integrity. His ability to document people, places, and experiences with clarity and purpose has made him a trusted presence on major assignments, industry events, and high-profile productions.

The Real RAPP Radio Show

The Real RAPP Radio Show is a signature program broadcasting from its home base at Downtown Hott Radio and syndicated across more than 50 sister stations nationwide. As an internet radio show with reach in multiple cities and states, the program airs on various stations with unique daily scheduling based on each market. Known for its authentic approach to hip-hop culture, celebrity interviews, exclusive stories, and real conversations, The Real RAPP Radio Show continues to expand its presence while delivering unmatched insight, credible commentary, and meaningful connections to listeners across the country.

Collaboration Opportunity

On behalf of The Real RAPP Radio Show with Walil Archer, any artists who want to build and be heard. We're currently looking for a new intro and outro for the show something original, energetic, and true to the culture.

In exchange for creating the show's new audio, we're offering a full radio interview on-air plus radio play for your music across Downtown Hott Radio and our extended network of sister stations.

If you're interested in locking in a real collaboration that puts your sound in front of a bigger audience, let's talk and make something dope happen.

Here's a sample of the current Intro: https://www.instagram.com/p/DRMuyQrDb\_6/